I, Walter M. Peterson, of the U.S.A. Peterson Construction, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly on said vessel from said port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 30 of the Act of February 2, 1917, contrary from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 21 and 28, Act of May 26, 1924, smiley appear below.

Walter M. Peterson
Master, ~~Mate, Engineer~~ or Officer.

Sworn to before me this 11th day of April, 21

Immigrant Inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes or alien members to be sworn (Form 598) shall not be delivered on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "MOTHERWAY" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all applying to enter, and specifying those who be held to be discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing no more or such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe: and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a written list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will remain board from the vessel, giving the length of time they have been employed, the nature of their duties, and the wages paid to them; and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of all sick or injured alien seamen, respectively, or on board such vessel, and the names, ages, and last known addresses of the persons to whom their effects belong: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may by the regulations prescribe, in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists herein required as to the time of the departure of any alien employee, the penalty to be imposed upon such owner, agent, consignee, or master for such failure: And provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may by the regulations prescribed require the masters of vessels carrying passengers between ports of the United States and foreign contiguous territory to deliver to the immigrant inspectors at the ports of arrival lists containing the names of all such passengers who are aliens, with such additional information concerning them as may be required by the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act, in the event such fine is imposed, shall be remitted or refunded. Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless to secure a substitute pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the discharge of the seaman, or in case of the death of the seaman, for the disposition of his effects, and any alien seaman so landed shall be deported in the same manner as provided in the immigration laws. Any alien seaman employed on any vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection at all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who shall be found to be afflicted with any contagious disease during the period of quarantine, or who shall be found to be insane, shall be detained on board or at the option of the master landed to the custody of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel pending examination by the medical officers of the Public Health Service, and if such alien seaman is certified to be afflicted with any such disease or insanity he shall be deported in the same manner as provided for the deportation of other aliens found in the United States in violation of this Act. Any alien seaman who shall land in violation of this section shall be deported in the same manner as provided for the deportation of other aliens found in the United States in violation of this Act. Any alien seaman who shall land in violation of this section shall be deported in the same manner as provided for the deportation of other aliens found in the United States in violation of this Act.

(a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside contiguous territory or adjacent islands to which the provisions of section 3 of this Act are applicable, who shall refuse or fail to deport any alien seaman employed on such vessel when ordered so to do by the Secretary of Labor or any immigrant inspector, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question whether a penalty is incurred hereunder, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) From time to time, as often as may be necessary, the Secretary of Labor shall appoint and send to the various ports of the United States such immigrant inspectors as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this section.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived will be unduly burdensome because of the lack of accommodations for the return of such alien seaman, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes or additions mentioned in section 12 of the Act of February 20, 1907, shall be prepared by the master of the vessel at the port of departure and delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival. Failure to prepare and deliver such list or changes or additions will be punished by a fine of not more than $10 for each person in respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers until the master shall have delivered to the collector of customs at the port of departure the list or changes or additions required by this section, and a certificate from the collector of customs to the effect that this has been done shall be produced to the officer granting clearance papers.

SEC. 12. That the master of every vessel bringing any alien not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa and passport, if required by the Secretary of Labor, shall deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a list or manifest of all such aliens on board such vessel, which list or manifest shall be prepared in quadruplicate, on such forms and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall contain such information as may be required by the boards of special inquiry or immigrant inspectors, and such additional information relative to such aliens as the Secretary of Labor may require. Any master who refuses to deliver such list or manifest, or who refuses to furnish information required by this section, or who delivers a list or manifest which is incorrect or incomplete in the opinion of the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, shall be punished by a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such refusal, and may be refused clearance papers by the collector of customs until the penalty is paid or secured to be paid to his satisfaction or that of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of a vessel in the United States from foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, master, purser, or person in charge of the port of arrival [here continue the names to all] immediately to report the name of each alien on board, the number of cabin passengers, when and where they were respectively supplied to engage passage, the amount of money each alien has with him, the final destination of each alien, whether he has a ticket in his possession through to such destination, whether the passage has been paid for by the alien or by any other person or corporation, and if by such other person or corporation the name and address of such person or corporation, whether such alien is going to join any relative or friend, and if so, what relative or friend, the last place from which such alien came, whether he has been deported at any time as an alien or pauper or as a member of any of the excluded classes, and whether he is coming to the United States in pursuance of any offer, promise, or agreement to perform labor in this country, and if so what such offer, promise, or agreement is, and whether he has been in the United States before, and if so when and how long he remained, and whether he has a ticket through to the place of his destination, and whether he intends to become a citizen of the United States, and whether he is going to join a husband, wife, father, or other relative, and if so what relative and what his or her name or names were, and whether he is in possession of $50 in cash, and if not the amount he has with him not exceeding $50, and whether he has ever been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, and if so when and where, which information shall be recorded by the said immigrant inspectors at the time of the examination of each alien: Provided, That the master of any vessel bringing aliens who are not in possession of unexpired immigration visas and passports, or who are not in possession of the money required by this section, shall be liable to the penalties prescribed in section 37 of this Act.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel that shall have violated the provisions of section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, here specified, and not then unless notice of intention to file application for such clearance shall have been given at least 48 hours before such vessel shall be ready to depart.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 11. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such illness or injury as may incapacitate him for the performance of his duties, unless the immigration officer in charge at the port of debarkation or such alien shall have given written notice to the master of such vessel that such alien is destined to the United States.

SEC. 26. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Newfoundland, Bermuda, the Panama Canal Zone, or any island adjacent thereto, any alien (whether an immigrant or not) who is found to be afflicted with any of the mental or physical defects or disabilities which would be the cause of his exclusion by the boards of special inquiry, shall be required to take such alien back to the place from which he came, or to any place where he may enter, at the option of the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel, and the cost of the maintenance of such alien while in the United States and the cost of his transportation shall be borne by the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel.

(b) Every alien, an alien seaman, and any person who appears upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, who shall remain in the United States beyond the period for which he was admitted, or who shall depart from the United States without having secured the certificate required by section 6 of this Act, shall be deported as provided by sections 19 and 20 of this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the master of the vessel on which the alien arrived in the United States will not effect the return of such alien, he may require the owner of such vessel to pay the cost of the maintenance of such alien while in the United States and the cost of his deportation, or may require the owner of such vessel to deposit with the collector of customs a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, conditioned upon the deportation of such alien within such time as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of which refuses to comply with the requirements of this section.

(d) Every alien, an alien seaman, and any person who appears upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States who shall remain in the United States beyond the period for which he was admitted, or who shall depart from the United States without having secured the certificate required by section 6 of this Act, shall be deported as provided by sections 19 and 20 of this Act.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien will not be effected by the immigration officer at the expense of the master of the vessel on which the alien arrived in the United States, he may require the owner of such vessel to pay the cost of the maintenance of such alien while in the United States and the cost of his deportation, or may require the owner of such vessel to deposit with the collector of customs a bond sufficient to secure the payment thereof, conditioned upon the deportation of such alien within such time as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of which refuses to comply with the requirements of this section.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the Immigration Inspector boarding the vessel as the ship is entering, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of first arrival, but shall not be inspected on board, but shall be delivered on shore at a time when the vessel is not in motion.

Form 6 items (688 shall not be inspected on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port." When an alien is entering Canada or is a national of a foreign country not adjacent to the United States, a "transit" visa must be obtained before sailing from the last foreign port of departure.

SEC. 36. That upon arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, or consignee, to master forthwith to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped, and the names of all aliens who have been discharged or who have died on board during the journey, and the cause of death in each case, and such other information relative thereto as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration and the Secretary of Labor, and it shall be the duty of the master of any such vessel to see that all aliens employed thereon at the time of the arrival duly report to the immigration officer at the time of the inspection of such vessel, and that all such aliens remain on board until admitted or otherwise lawfully permitted to land. Any master who shall refuse to comply with the requirements of this section shall pay a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, or to cause such owner, agent, consignee, or master to be so delivered, or who shall refuse to allow the immigration officials to board the vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or who shall refuse to detain any alien on board when required so to do by any such officials, or who shall refuse to carry back to the last foreign port from which said vessel came any alien ordered deported by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall refuse to pay the cost of such detention and subsistence, shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such default occurs. No vessel shall be cleared or allowed to depart pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty or any part thereof, but such vessel may be detained by the collector of customs until the payment thereof, or the giving of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, shall be determined by the Secretary of Labor, or by the court on appeal as provided in this section.

(a) If any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel shall refuse to allow any alien to land from said vessel, or shall refuse to detain any alien on board when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or by any board of special inquiry, or by any immigrant inspector, or shall refuse to carry any alien back to the last foreign port from which said vessel came, or shall refuse to pay the cost of such detention and subsistence, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(b) If any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel shall refuse to allow any alien to land from said vessel, or shall refuse to detain any alien on board when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or by any board of special inquiry, or by any immigrant inspector, or shall refuse to carry any alien back to the last foreign port from which said vessel came, or shall refuse to pay the cost of such detention and subsistence, such vessel shall be held liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such refusal occurs, and such penalty may be recovered by suit or proceeding against such vessel, her tackle, furniture, apparel, boats, and cargo, or against the owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel, and such vessel may be libeled therefor in any district court of the United States within the district in which she may be found. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel upon which or on account of which any penalty has accrued, and such vessel may be seized and detained by any officer of customs or immigration authorized for the purpose by the Secretary of Labor until such penalty is paid or secured to be paid, or her master or owner gives a bond with sufficient surety conditioned for the payment of such penalty as may be assessed therefor, or such vessel may be libeled therefor and sold to pay such penalty, and the decision of the Secretary of Labor shall be final as to the remission or mitigation of such penalty: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such disputed question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted via vessel until the liens reported by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been satisfied, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section 10 to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act, and not then unless the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. (a) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws shall be employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress, or for the purpose of changing to another vessel or of proceeding in transit through the United States to a foreign country, only such alien crewmen employed on board such vessel as shall be certified by a consular officer in charge at the port of departure as having been duly admitted to the United States for the purpose of performing service on board such vessel (which certification shall be noted on the crew list of such vessel), and such alien crewmen as may be necessary to replace them, as certified by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel who shall violate the provisions of this subdivision shall pay to the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be cleared pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty or any part thereof, but such vessel may be detained by the collector of customs until the payment thereof, or the giving of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, shall be determined by the Secretary of Labor, or by the court on appeal as provided in this section.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or who shall depart in violation of the provisions of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by the immigration laws of the United States, except that no warrant for the arrest of such alien seaman shall be issued unless it is determined by the Secretary of Labor that such alien seaman has failed to depart with reasonable promptness or that his departure cannot be secured by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which he arrived.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, or any such vessel on which he arrived, will be prejudicial to the interests of the United States, he may cause such alien seaman to be taken on board such vessel and detained thereon under such guard as he may deem necessary, and such vessel may be required to remain in port for a period not exceeding five days after the expiration of the period of time required for the departure of such vessel.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in any port of the United States shall be deported in the manner provided by the immigration laws of the United States, and the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation shall be collected from the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which he arrived. Such alien seaman shall not be granted a visa by any consular officer unless he is satisfied that the cost of maintenance while detained and of deportation will be paid, and that such alien seaman is not otherwise inadmissible.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, or any such vessel, will be prejudicial to the interests of the United States, he may cause such alien seaman to be taken on board such vessel and detained thereon under such guard as he may deem necessary, and such vessel may be required to remain in port for a period not exceeding five days after the expiration of the period of time required for the departure of such vessel.

I, ... master of the ..... do declare that I have carefully read the foregoing answers to the questions and statements in the above list of all the crew properly entered on said vessel, and that each and all of the answers and statements therein contained are true, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, and that I have complied with the requirements of section 18 and section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and with the regulations of the Commissioner General of Immigration with respect to the same.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, contained in the application for clearance of the vessel, and the copy of sections 18 and 30 of the Act of May 26, 1924, hereto attached.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be inserted on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel as the boat to arrive; and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 888) shall not be inserted on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all the aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, how and where they were respectively naturalized, the intended length of their stay in the United States, and the intended final destination of such aliens, so far as known, and such other information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and alien members of the crew of such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, at arrival, as soon as discovered, all cases in which such alien shall have illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of the vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been employed and discharged, and the cause of such discharge. It shall be the duty of the master of any vessel bringing an alien to the United States from foreign contiguous territory to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of entry the certificate of head tax, if required, issued in his behalf, and to report and deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of entry the name of each alien employed on board the vessel who has been refused a certificate by the consular officer, and the name of each alien who has been granted a certificate by the consular officer but who has been refused admission to the United States by the immigrant inspector, and the facts in connection therewith. Such reports shall be kept available for inspection by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival for a period of two years from the date of the report.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the adjacent islands, or from any place in the United States to which such vessel is destined, having on board any alien immigrant, shall detain such alien on board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has been notified and such alien has been given such physical and mental examination by the medical examiner(s) as such immigration officer may deem necessary; and no such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel shall refuse to permit any immigration officer to enter upon such vessel for the purpose of inspecting any or all of the alien members of the crew thereof or any alien passengers or to detain such aliens on board after such inspection or to deport such aliens otherwise than upon the certificate of the Secretary of Labor to do so, and then only to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located and such other immediate examination and inspection as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the case remains pending, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit with the collector of customs of such amount as may be required to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien who shall not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any person who may be reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a limited to determine whether such alien has been granted permission to land temporarily under bond or otherwise, or has become a public charge, or has violated any of the provisions of the immigration laws, and the burden of proof shall be upon such alien to establish that he entered in accordance with all the requirements of the immigration laws.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have caused the deportation of any alien because of his connection with any vessel, the owners of such vessel shall be liable to the payment of the expenses incidental to such deportation, unless the master of such vessel shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien could not be detained upon board or otherwise by the exercise of due diligence.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of any emergency as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall detain on board the vessel such alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has been notified and such alien has been given such physical and mental examination by the medical examiners(s), as such immigration officer may deem necessary; and no such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel shall refuse to permit any immigration officer to enter upon such vessel for the purpose of inspecting any or all of the alien members of the crew thereof or any alien passengers or to detain such aliens on board after such inspection or to deport such aliens otherwise than upon the certificate of the Secretary of Labor to do so, and then only to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located and such other immediate examination and inspection as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the case remains pending, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit with the collector of customs of such amount as may be required to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien who shall not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any person who may be reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a limited to determine whether such alien has been granted permission to land temporarily under bond or otherwise, or has become a public charge, or has violated any of the provisions of the immigration laws, and the burden of proof shall be upon such alien to establish that he entered in accordance with all the requirements of the immigration laws.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have caused the deportation of any alien because of his connection with any vessel, the owners of such vessel shall be liable to the payment of the expenses incidental to such deportation, unless the master of such vessel shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien could not be detained upon board or otherwise by the exercise of due diligence.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted vun vessel until the liens provided by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been terminated, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act remains open thereof, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel as the boat is arriving, and in all instances before taken from the vessel. The list to changes to alien members of the crew (Form 583) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien arriving assumes a "nom de plume" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arriving in the United States from the foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when born, where they were respectively naturalized, and the places where they have resided for one year previous to the time of such arrival in the port, and such information shall be kept and recorded by such officer, and such lists or copies thereof certified by the master of such vessel shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated in favor of the United States and every such master who shall refuse to furnish such lists or who shall report falsely or incorrectly in any respect any such matter concerning any such alien shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such offense, and may be arrested upon warrant issued upon complaint made by any immigrant inspector and may be prosecuted and punished by any court of competent jurisdiction in the district in which he may be found or into which he may first come. Masters of vessels shall be responsible for the proper care while on board the vessel of such alien seamen as may be entitled to be detained on board vessels pursuant to the provisions of section 16 of this Act, and for their delivery to the proper officer of the United States at the port where the vessel shall first arrive after the giving of such notice by the immigrant inspector in charge at such port, or in default thereof shall be liable to the penalties provided in this section in the case of alien seamen employed on board: Provided, That the master shall not be liable to a penalty for the illness or injury of any alien seaman which shall be certified to by the medical officer of the port of arrival, or for the desertion of any alien seaman who shall have been shipped with the consent of a shipping commissioner after the vessel's departure from a foreign port, if the master shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he has complied with the requirements of this section relative to the shipping of such seamen, and that he has given the consul of the country to which such seaman belongs reasonable notice of the intended departure of such seaman.

SEC. 16. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the foreign contiguous territory of Canada or Mexico, or from any insular possession of the United States (except Panama), shall be required to detain on board such vessel any alien seaman employed on board such vessel (which includes a seaman employed in any capacity on board such vessel), and such alien seaman shall not be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or for such other reasons as may be satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor, under such regulations as he may prescribe, and such seaman shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country to which he belongs unless he shall have previously secured a permit to land in the United States from the Secretary of Labor, which permit shall be granted only upon a certification by the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival that the seaman has been found admissible under the immigration laws and is in possession of a valid passport viséed by the consul of the country to which he belongs, unless such seaman establishes to the satisfaction of such immigrant inspector in charge that he is unable to procure a passport viséed by the consul of the country to which he belongs without undue hardship, in which case such immigrant inspector in charge may, in his discretion, grant such seaman a permit to land temporarily in the United States solely for the purpose of medical treatment, to be specified in such permit, and subject to such conditions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such seaman. Upon the granting of such permit the immigrant inspector in charge shall report the name of such seaman, the name of the vessel on which he arrived, the date of his arrival, and the hospital to which he has been sent, to the commissioner of immigration at the district in which the hospital is located. Such seaman shall not be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, to the extent and for the purpose specified in such permit, and shall be deported by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, or by the master of any vessel sailing to the country to which he belongs, or by the master of any vessel sailing to the country from which he came, as the Secretary of Labor may direct, and the cost of his maintenance while in the United States and of his deportation may be recovered from the master of the vessel on which he arrived. The list of crewmen to be furnished to the immigrant inspector boarding such vessel at the port of arrival in the United States shall include the name of every alien seaman employed on board the vessel at the time of its departure from the last foreign port or place from which it sails, and the name of every alien seaman who joins the vessel subsequently at any intermediate port, and the cause for the absence from the vessel at the time of its arrival at the port of the alien seaman whose name is contained in the list of each alien seaman who was employed on board but who is not then on board. The master of every such vessel shall also deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding such vessel at the port of arrival a list containing the name of every alien seaman who has been employed on board such vessel and who has left the vessel before the vessel reaches the port of arrival, and the reason for the absence of each such seaman, whether by reason of desertion, death, illness, or otherwise, and the date of and place from which each such seaman left the vessel, and the name and last known address of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel from which such seaman left the vessel, and the name of the vessel, if any, on board which such seaman has taken passage or sailed, and the destination of such seaman. Such list shall be certified to by the master of the vessel as correct, subject to the pains and penalties of perjury. Masters of vessels shall be responsible for the proper care while on board the vessel of such alien seamen as may be entitled to be detained on board vessels pursuant to the provisions of this section, and for their delivery to the proper officer of the United States at the port where the vessel shall first arrive after the giving of such notice by the immigrant inspector boarding such vessel at the port of arrival, and in default thereof shall be liable to the penalties provided in this section in the case of alien seamen employed on board: Provided, That the master shall not be liable to a penalty for the illness or injury of any alien seaman which shall be certified to by the medical officer of the port of arrival, or for the desertion of any alien seaman who shall have been shipped with the consent of a shipping commissioner after the vessel's departure from a foreign port, if the master shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he has complied with the requirements of this section relative to the shipping of such seamen, and that he has given the consul of the country to which such seaman belongs reasonable notice of the intended departure of such seaman.

(b) Every alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws employed on board any vessel arriving at the United States from a place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or for such other reasons as may be satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor under such regulations as he may prescribe, and such seaman shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country to which he belongs unless he shall have previously secured a permit to land in the United States from the United States consul within whose district he last resided before departing for the United States, except upon certification by the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival that the seaman has been found admissible under the immigration laws and is in possession of a valid passport viséed by the consul of the country to which he belongs, unless such seaman establishes to the satisfaction of such immigrant inspector in charge that he is unable to procure a passport viséed by the consul of the country to which he belongs without undue hardship, in which case such immigrant inspector in charge may, in his discretion, grant such seaman a permit to land temporarily in the United States solely for the purpose of medical treatment, to be specified in such permit, and subject to such conditions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such seaman. Upon the granting of such permit the immigrant inspector in charge shall report the name of such seaman, the name of the vessel on which he arrived, the date of his arrival, and the hospital to which he has been sent, to the commissioner of immigration at the district in which the hospital is located. Such seaman shall not be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, to the extent and for the purpose specified in such permit, and shall be deported by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, or by the master of any vessel sailing to the country to which he belongs, or by the master of any vessel sailing to the country from which he came, as the Secretary of Labor may direct, and the cost of his maintenance while in the United States and of his deportation may be recovered from the master of the vessel on which he arrived. The list of crewmen to be furnished to the immigrant inspector boarding such vessel at the port of arrival in the United States shall include the name of every alien seaman employed on board the vessel at the time of its departure from the last foreign port or place from which it sails, and the name of every alien seaman who joins the vessel subsequently at any intermediate port, and the cause for the absence from the vessel at the time of its arrival at the port of the alien seaman whose name is contained in the list of each alien seaman who was employed on board but who is not then on board. The master of every such vessel shall also deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding such vessel at the port of arrival a list containing the name of every alien seaman who has been employed on board such vessel and who has left the vessel before the vessel reaches the port of arrival, and the reason for the absence of each such seaman, whether by reason of desertion, death, illness, or otherwise, and the date of and place from which each such seaman left the vessel, and the name and last known address of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel from which such seaman left the vessel, and the name of the vessel, if any, on board which such seaman has taken passage or sailed, and the destination of such seaman. Such list shall be certified to by the master of the vessel as correct, subject to the pains and penalties of perjury. Masters of vessels shall be responsible for the proper care while on board the vessel of such alien seamen as may be entitled to be detained on board vessels pursuant to the provisions of this section, and for their delivery to the proper officer of the United States at the port where the vessel shall first arrive after the giving of such notice by the immigrant inspector boarding such vessel at the port of arrival, and in default thereof shall be liable to the penalties provided in this section in the case of alien seamen employed on board: Provided, That the master shall not be liable to a penalty for the illness or injury of any alien seaman which shall be certified to by the medical officer of the port of arrival, or for the desertion of any alien seaman who shall have been shipped with the consent of a shipping commissioner after the vessel's departure from a foreign port, if the master shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he has complied with the requirements of this section relative to the shipping of such seamen, and that he has given the consul of the country to which such seaman belongs reasonable notice of the intended departure of such seaman.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall grant such deportation or the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, or the master of any vessel sailing to the country from which he came, refuses or neglects to detain such alien seaman on board his vessel after notice and demand as provided in this section, or if for any reason such alien seaman cannot be deported on account of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is ready to depart from the port before such deportation can be effected, the master of such vessel shall pay to the collector of customs the sum of $100 for each such alien seaman, and such sum shall be a lien upon the vessel, and may be recovered by libel in any district court of the United States within the jurisdiction of which the vessel may be found. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such liability upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to the execution by the master of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be deported at any time within two years after the date of such departure at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act, upon the certification by the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival of the facts in the case to the Secretary of Labor, and warrants issued by the Secretary of Labor for the deportation of such seaman shall have the force and effect of warrants issued in pursuance of section 19 of this Act.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel that has failed to deposit the sum required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, when such failure is alleged, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative authorities as prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said Act, and not then until the sum required by said section 36 has been deposited in the sum of $8 for each such alien seaman.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws employed on board any vessel arriving at the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or for such other reasons as may be satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor under regulations as the Secretary may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such seaman in the manner provided by law to the country to which he belongs unless he shall have previously secured a permit to land in the United States from the United States consul within whose district he last resided before departing for the United States, except upon certification by the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival that the seaman has been found admissible under the immigration laws and is in possession of a valid passport viséed by the consul of the country to which he belongs unless such seaman establishes to the satisfaction of such immigrant inspector in charge that he is unable to procure a passport viséed by the consul of the country to which he belongs without undue hardship, in which case such immigrant inspector in charge may, in his discretion, grant such seaman a permit to land temporarily in the United States solely for the purpose of medical treatment, to be specified in such permit, and subject to such conditions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such seaman. Upon the granting of such permit the immigrant inspector in charge shall report the name of such seaman, the name of the vessel on which he arrived, the date of his arrival, and the hospital to which he has been sent, to the commissioner of immigration at the district in which the hospital is located. Such seaman shall not be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, to the extent and for the purpose specified in such permit, and shall be deported by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, or by the master of any vessel sailing to the country to which he belongs, or by the master of any vessel sailing to the country from which he came, as the Secretary of Labor may direct, and the cost of his maintenance while in the United States and of his deportation may be recovered from the master of the vessel on which he arrived. The list of crewmen to be furnished to the immigrant inspector boarding such vessel at the port of arrival in the United States shall include the name of every alien seaman employed on board the vessel at the time of its departure from the last foreign port or place from which it sails, and the name of every alien seaman who joins the vessel subsequently at any intermediate port, and the cause for the absence from the vessel at the time of its arrival at the port of the alien seaman whose name is contained in the list of each alien seaman who was employed on board but who is not then on board. The master of every such vessel shall also deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding such vessel at the port of arrival a list containing the name of every alien seaman who has been employed on board such vessel and who has left the vessel before the vessel reaches the port of arrival, and the reason for the absence of each such seaman, whether by reason of desertion, death, illness, or otherwise, and the date of and place from which each such seaman left the vessel, and the name and last known address of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel from which such seaman left the vessel, and the name of the vessel, if any, on board which such seaman has taken passage or sailed, and the destination of such seaman. Such list shall be certified to by the master of the vessel as correct, subject to the pains and penalties of perjury. Masters of vessels shall be responsible for the proper care while on board the vessel of such alien seamen as may be entitled to be detained on board vessels pursuant to the provisions of this section, and for their delivery to the proper officer of the United States at the port where the vessel shall first arrive after the giving of such notice by the immigrant inspector boarding such vessel at the port of arrival, and in default thereof shall be liable to the penalties provided in this section in the case of alien seamen employed on board: Provided, That the master shall not be liable to a penalty for the illness or injury of any alien seaman which shall be certified to by the medical officer of the port of arrival, or for the desertion of any alien seaman who shall have been shipped with the consent of a shipping commissioner after the vessel's departure from a foreign port, if the master shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he has complied with the requirements of this section relative to the shipping of such seamen, and that he has given the consul of the country to which such seaman belongs reasonable notice of the intended departure of such seaman.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and in advance he is hereby authorized to board the vessel for the purpose of delivering the same to the master, who is required to deliver the list to the immigration officer at the port of entry (Form 883) and not to proceed with the discharge of passengers until the immigration officer has completed the examination of the list, or otherwise directed. Failure to comply with this requirement will subject the master to a penalty of $10 for each and every passenger not listed. "Master" as used herein includes the person in charge of any vessel.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel, another principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival, into conference and answer such questions as may be propounded by such officer in relation to the persons on board such vessel, their nationality, their last residence, and their destination, whether they have been convicted of any crime or misdemeanor, and whether they are in possession of money sufficient in amount to pay their railroad fare or other transportation to their destination, and such other questions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Said master shall also present to such officer a list or manifest of all passengers, including cabin passengers, who are aliens, for the inspection of such officer, and said master shall, if required by such officer, subscribe to and verify by his oath such list or manifest. Such list or manifest shall contain such information touching each and every such passenger and the right to enter the United States as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Said master shall also deliver to such officer a certificate from the consular officer of the United States at the port of foreign embarkation of each alien passenger, stating that such consular officer has personally examined each such alien passenger and his right to enter the United States under the law, and has stamped his approval upon the manifest in the space provided therefor. Such certificate shall be prepared and delivered by such consular officer at the time of the granting of the application for the visa of such alien passenger. Said master shall also deliver to such immigration officer at the time of inspection of the vessel at the first port of arrival in the United States a certificate from the Secretary of Labor stating the amount of money which has been collected from each alien passenger and specifying the disposition made of each sum. Said master shall also report and deliver to such immigration officer at the time of inspection of the vessel at the first port of arrival in the United States the name of any alien passenger who became ill during the voyage, specifying the character of illness and the port at which such passenger was landed. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who died during the voyage, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list certifying the name, age, last residence, and cause of death of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the number and nationality of stowaways, if any, found on board his vessel after departure from the last foreign port of call, and shall deliver to the immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name, age, last residence, and destination, if known, of each stowaway. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who became ill during the voyage and was detained in quarantine, specifying the character of illness and the length of detention, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name, age, last residence, and destination of each passenger who was detained in quarantine, specifying the length of detention and the character of illness. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who was treated during the voyage for any contagious disease, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name, age, last residence, and destination of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who was found to be insane during the voyage, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name, age, last residence, and destination of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who died during the voyage, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name, age, last residence, and destination of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the number of pieces of baggage belonging to each passenger, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the number of pieces of baggage belonging to each passenger. Said master shall also report the amount of money in his possession belonging to each passenger, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the amount of money belonging to each passenger. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who was found to be afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who was found to be afflicted with a mental disease, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who was found to be a criminal, a convicted felon, or a person who admits the commission of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who was found to be a polygamist, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who was found to be an anarchist, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who was found to be a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States, or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates the assassination of public officials, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who was found to be a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such disbelief in or opposition to organized government, or advocating such assassination of public officials, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who was found to be a prostitute, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who was found to be a person who has been coming to the United States in pursuance of a previously existing contract or agreement to perform labor, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who was found to be a person who has been assisted to come to the United States by any corporation, association, society, municipality, or foreign government, and shall deliver to such immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the name of each such passenger. Said master shall also report the name of any passenger who was found to be a person who has been induced, assisted, encouraged, or solicited to migrate to the United States by offers, promises, agreements, contracts, or representations of employment, or

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according or separate manifests immigrants and non-immigrants, as defined by the immigration Act of 1924: and also according or separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class and the so-called tourist class, where these have been the subjects of technical variance, and those where aliens do not land such subjects. The manner of all members of a family should be the same, whether they travel in the same class: but if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Name of child.).—The surname of each child accompanied by parent or guardian should be entered in the same manner as in column 1 for adults.

Column 2 (Age.).—The years of age of each child should be expressed in years or months, the latter applying only to those under 1 year of age.

Column 3 (Sex.).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 4 (Married or single).—The entry should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 5 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arriving, as, for example: Civil engineer, stenographer, accountant, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, nurse, tailor, farmer, model, writer, or other indefinite designations.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the farm who operates it.

Arrangements commencing should make this distinction on the manifests, and correction of the entry should be made if necessary, by stamping the personal examination of the alien thereon.

Column 8 (Able to read or write.).—The entry should be "Yes" or "No" as the alien can or cannot read and write some language or dialect. Literate aliens may write their own language, but one who is illiterate may write his own name and make his mark. It is sufficient if the ability to read or write is shown in any one language or dialect. It does not necessarily mean that the alien can read or write English.

Column 9 (Nationality.).—Operation 9 should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Column 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject; country to which last permanent residence; and country to which "France," "Germany," "Italy," "Russia," and similarly "French," appearing under the head of country does not mean "French" by race or people, and similarly "French" appearing under the head of race or people does not mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race under proper circumstances should be certainly returned by inspectors in this terms. For instance, "England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, Switzerland, or any other country." In this connection the following distinctions should be especially observed:

GREAT BRITAIN

The term "Canada" refers to the Canada people (not Negroes).

WEST INDIAN

SPANISH AMERICAN

HEBREW

"Negro" refers to the African (black). whether coming from Cape or other parts of the West Indies, North or South America, Europe, or Africa. Any alien having admixture of blood of the African (black) should be classified under this heading.

Column 12 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name, exact relationship, and complete address of such relative. If no such relative lives in country whence alien came, give name and address to which relative or friend in country of origin communicated before sailing.

Column 13 (Final destination).—The purpose to file direction likely from the port of arrival to the place of final destination, as for example: If to join husband, wife, father, mother, or other relative or friend, write name and address, and relationship. If to go to a position, write name and address of employer. If coming to friends, write name and address. If to go to a school, state name and location of school. Address should include street and number.

Column 14 (Have you a ticket to final destination?).—The purpose to file direction likely from the port of arrival to the place of final destination. If the ticket is complete to destination, write "Yes." If not complete, write "No." If ticket is partly paid for, state amount paid and by whom, and amount to be paid on arrival at destination.

Column 15 (Whether in possession of $50, and if less, how much).—The purpose of this question is to ascertain whether the alien has sufficient funds in his possession to land. The amount should be stated in dollars, and the entry should be "Yes" or "No" as the case may be. If the alien has less than $50, the amount should be stated. If the alien has no money, the entry should be "None."

Column 16 (Whether going to join relative or friend).—The purpose for which the alien is coming to the United States should be stated, as for example: "To join husband," "To join father," "To visit friends," "For pleasure," "On business," "To study," "To work at trade of ——," "To work as laborer," "To work as ——," "To accept position as ——," "To join brother in business at ——," "To attend school," "To study medicine," "To study law," "To study theology," "To lecture," "To exhibit paintings," "To play in orchestra," "To sing in church," "To practice medicine," "To practice law," "To practice theology," "To join a colony," "To settle on farm," "To work on farm," "To work in mine," "To work in lumber camp," "To work in sawmill," "To work in factory," "To work in ——," "To travel for firm of ——," "To travel for ——," "To sell goods for ——," "To repair machines for ——," "To collect bills for ——," "To introduce machinery for ——," "To set up machinery for ——," "To buy goods for ——," "To sell goods for ——," "To manufacture ——," "To buy and ship ——," "To sell on commission," "To take orders for ——," "To deliver goods for ——," "To collect and ship ——," "To buy and ship ——," "To buy hides for ——," "To buy furs for ——," "To buy rags for ——," "To buy wool for ——," "To buy cotton for ——," "To buy silk for ——," "To buy feathers for ——," "To buy ——," "To sell ——," "To sell ——," "To sell

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. According as separate manifests immigrants and nonimmigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924: and also according as sections which arise do not read exactly alike. The names of all members of the so-called contract class, whose visas read the initials of technical advisers, should appear on one manifest sheet when they travel in the same class: and if they travel in different classes, appropriate pers of a family shall appear on the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class.

CROSS REFERENCES should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Number on list.)—Number the persons on each manifest consecutively, beginning with 1 and numbering consecutively to the end of the list.

Column 2 (Name in full.)—The surname shall be entered first, followed by the given names and middle initial, if any. Titles, such as Mr., Mrs., Miss, Dr., Rev., Hon., Prof., Baron, Count, Countess, Lord, Lady, Sir, Dame, etc., should be omitted. Initials should be avoided, and the full name written. Nicknames should not be used. Where initials are used, they should be explained in the manifest, as "J. (John) Smith."

Column 3 (Head-tax status.)—Symbols from those given below should be entered in this column to indicate the status of each alien with respect to the head tax:

Column 4 (Age.)—The years of age should be entered for each person, as of his last birthday. Infants under 1 year old should be entered as "0."

Column 6 (Married or single.)—The terms to be used are M (married), S (single), Wd (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation.)—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien, as, for example: Civil engineer, mechanical engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, mining engineer, steam boilermaker, sheet boilermaker, iron molder, brass finisher, etc., but not merely as engineer, boilermaker, molder, farmer, or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, terrorists of the unions to whom known, as follows:

A farmer laborer is one who works on a farm for the most part for others.

Stenographic components should make this distinction on the manifests, but correction should be made, if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of aliens arriving.

Column 8 (Able to read and write.)—The letters AR shall be inserted in this column following questions: "Read some language?" If answered "No," the word "No" should be entered. If the alien is able to read and write at least one language, it should be stated.

Column 9 (Nationality.)—Question 9 should be construed to mean the country which alien is a citizen or subject.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country of last permanent residence, and country to which "France," appearing under the head of country does not mean "French," by race or people, and similarly "French" appearing under the head of race or people does not mean "France," by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race should only come under the heading of England, Switzerland, or any other country. If this connection the following distinctions should be observed carefully:

The term "Canada" refers to the Canada people (not Negroes).

WEST INDIAN

The term "West Indies" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Canada or Mexico.

CENTRAL AMERICAN

NEGRO

"Negro" refers to the African (black) race, or Africa. Any alien intends of the West Indies, North or South America, Europe, or Africa (black) should be classified under this heading with admixture of blood of the African (black) race.

Column 11 (Place of birth.)—The State, province, or district of birth should be given in words in addition to the city or town.

Column 12 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came.)—The entry should give name, exact relationship, and complete address of nearest relative or friend in the country from which he came. It should not be sufficient to write merely "brother," "friend," etc., but the name and address should be sufficiently complete to enable the United States authorities to communicate with the person referred to. Initials should be avoided, and the full name written.

Column 13 (Final destination.)—The purpose of the alien in coming to the United States should be stated, as "to join husband," "to visit friend," "to work on farm," "to enter business," "to study," "to attend school," etc. Where the alien has a ticket to a specific destination, it should be stated. If the alien has no definite destination in the United States, the word "undetermined" should be entered.

Column 14 (Whether ticket through to destination.)—The terms should be "Yes" or "No."

Column 15 (Whether in possession of $50 and if less, how much.)—The terms should be "Yes" or "No," as the alien has or has not $50 in his possession. If he has less than $50, the exact amount should be stated, as "$40," "$30," etc.

Column 16 (Whether going to join relative or friend, with name and complete address.)—The terms should be "Yes" or "No," as the alien is going to join relatives or friends, and if so, the name and complete address should be given, as "Mr. John Smith, 1482 Main Street, Detroit, Mich."

Columns 17 to 22.—These questions are to be answered "Yes" or "No" in each case, as the alien may be subject to exclusion or deportation under the immigration laws. Any "Yes" answer should be carefully scrutinized, and if the alien is excludable, the fact noted in the proper column. Any alien who admits the commission of a crime involving moral turpitude should be excluded, even though no conviction has been had.

Column 17 (Polygamist.)—The terms to be used are "Yes" or "No."

Column 18 (Anarchist.)—The terms to be used are "Yes" or "No."

Column 19 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when; where; and how long ago.)—The terms should be "Yes" or "No," as the alien has or has not been previously in the United States. If the answer is "Yes," the date of last admission should be given, as "1910," "1914," etc., and the place, as "New York," "Boston," etc. If the alien has been previously in the United States more than once, the last admission should be stated. If the alien has been in the United States before, but it is not known when, the answer should be "Yes, time unknown."

Column 20 (Whether coming to join husband, father, mother, or other relative; if not, what relationship.)—The terms should be "Yes" or "No," as the alien is coming to join relatives or not. If the answer is "Yes," the relationship should be stated, as "husband," "father," "mother," "brother," "sister," "uncle," "aunt," "cousin," "friend," etc.

Column 21 (Whether in possession of ticket to reach final destination.)—The terms should be "Yes" or "No," as the alien has or has not a ticket to reach final destination.

Column 22 (Whether coming under contract labor law.)—The terms should be "Yes" or "No," as the alien is or is not coming under contract to perform labor in the United States.

Columns 23 to 36.—These questions are to be answered "Yes" or "No" in each case, as the alien may be subject to exclusion or deportation under the immigration laws. However, if answered "Yes," it will not necessarily debar the alien from admission, but will require further investigation by the Secretary of Labor or by a board of special inquiry.

Column 23 (Whether a polygamist.)—The terms should be "Yes" or "No," as the alien is or is not a polygamist.

Column 24 (Whether an anarchist.)—The terms should be "Yes" or "No," as the alien is or is not an anarchist.

Column 25 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when; where; and how long ago.)—The terms should be "Yes" or "No," as the alien has or has not been previously in the United States. If the answer is "Yes," the date of last admission should be given, as "1891," "1894," etc., and the place, as "New York," "Boston," etc. If the alien has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate the last admission only, and give exact or approximate date of last admission.

Column 26 (Whether coming to join husband, father, mother, or other relative; if not, what relationship.)—The terms should be "Yes" or "No," as the alien is or is not coming to join relatives or friends, and if so, the exact relationship.

Columns 27 to 36.—These questions are to be answered "Yes" or "No" in each case, as the alien may be subject to exclusion or deportation under the immigration laws. However, if answered "Yes," it will not necessarily debar the alien from admission, but will require further investigation by the Secretary of Labor or by a board of special inquiry.

Form No. 2—Rev. 1920

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, regardless of separate manifests immediately and additionally made, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924: and also regardless of separate manifests whose aliens travel in the third class and the so-called tourist class, whose rights to land upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class: but if they travel in different classes, appropriate pens to a family shall suffice, though the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class: and if they travel in different classes, appropriate close references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 2 (Last name.)—The surname in this column should be extreme to the left in this column. The above is for use of Government officials only.

Column 3 (Head-tax status.)—Ascertain this status before making no entries in this column. The above is for use of Government officials only.

Column 6 (Married or single.)—The surname should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation.)—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arrived, as, for example: Clerk, surgeon, stenographer, engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, plane boilermaker, steel boilermaker, iron molder, boom tender, etc., but not simply as laborer, molder, farmer, or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, respectively as the amount of money owned, as follows:

Seamstress companies should make this distinction on the manifests, and correction should be made, if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of alien arrivals.

Column 8 (Able to read and write.)—Each individual must contain the answer "Yes" or "No" to the question: "Can you read and write some language?" If answered in the affirmative, the following question: "What language or dialect can he read and write?" If alien is unable to read to write any language, the fact should be stated.

Column 9 (Nationality.)—Question 9 should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country of last permanent residence, and country of birth, as manifests should be carefully reviewed by inspectors in this regard. For instance, people, and similarly "France" should not be used to race or people does not mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race might properly come under the heading of England, Switzerland, or any other country. In this connection the following distinctions should be especially observed:

CUBAN

The term "Cuban" refers to the Cuban people (not Negroes).

WEST INDIAN

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Cubans or Negroes.

SPANISH AMERICAN

"Spanish American" refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

"Negro" refers to the African (black), whether coming from Cuba or other parts of the West Indies, North or South America, Europe, or Africa. Any alien claiming to be of the African (black) should be classified under this heading.

Column 11 (Place of birth.)—The State, province, or district of birth should be given by the city or town.

Column 12 (Visas.)—The number in this column should be extended in year or month. The above is for use of Government officials only.

Column 13 (Last permanent residence.)—Actual or an intended residence of 1 year or more. The last country in which alien resided for 1 year or more is sufficient. The entire is should be given by the immigrant. If he has been a resident of the United States for 1 year or more, the last permanent residence should be given. If he has been a resident of Canada, Mexico, Cuba, or Panama for 1 year or more, the last permanent residence should be given. It is important for statistical purposes that accurate information be given in this column. The above is for use of Government officials only.

Column 14 (Final destination.)—Actual or an intended residence of 1 year or more. The last country in which alien resided for 1 year or more is sufficient. The entire is should be given by the immigrant. If he has been a resident of the United States for 1 year or more, the last permanent residence should be given. If he has been a resident of Canada, Mexico, Cuba, or Panama for 1 year or more, the last permanent residence should be given. It is important for statistical purposes that accurate information be given in this column. The above is for use of Government officials only.

Column 15 (Whether having a ticket to final destination.)—The entry should be either Yes (ticket) or No (no ticket).

Column 16 (Whether passage paid by self or by others, and by whom.)—The entry should be either self, other individuals, relatives, societies, etc.

Column 17 (Whether in possession of $50 and if less, how much.)—The amount should be given in each case (individual or family) for exact amount of money in the possession of the alien. The above is for use of Government officials only.

Column 18 (Whether ever before in the United States: and if so, when, where, and how long.)—The entries should be made by the words Yes (or 1) or No (or 0).

Column 19 (Whether going to join relative or friend.)—The nearest blood relative in the United States should be given, as, Brother, Father, Friend, etc. Where a relative or friend is named, give exact or approximate date of last departure from the United States.

Column 20 (Whether going to join relative or friend, with name and complete address: whether going to join a relative or friend, with name and complete address: and if so, relative, friend, and exact relationship.

Column 21 (Whether deported before.)—The entries should be made by the words Yes (or 1) or No (or 0).

Column 22 (Whether in prison or institution.)—The entries are to be made by the words Yes (or 1) or No (or 0).

Column 23 (Whether physically and mentally sound.)—The entries should be made by the words Yes (or 1) or No (or 0).

Column 24 (Whether deformed or crippled.)—The entries should be made by the words Yes (or 1) or No (or 0).

Column 25 (Height.)—Ascertain and state the height of the alien as accurately as possible.

Column 26 (Complexion.)—The entry should be made by the words Light, Medium, or Dark.

Column 27 (Color of hair and eyes.)—The entry should be made by the words Light, Medium, or Dark.

Note.—Full text of section 38 is as follows: "Whoever a person who performs if to advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or to advocates the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, or the Government of the United States or to any of its agencies or instrumentalities or of any unit of government, or to advocates the unlawful destruction of property, or to advocates or teaches the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or to advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful destruction of property, or to advocates the unlawful destruction of property, or to advocates or teaches or to attempt to do so, or to advocates the assassination of public officials, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or to advocates or teaches or to attempt to do so, or to advocates

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according as debarkation is intended at ports within the so-called contract class, whose areas were fixed by the initials of technical wharves, and those whose areas do not bear such initials. The names of all members and nationalities, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924: and also according as debarkation is intended at ports within the first class and those within the second class: and if they travel in different classes, appropriate pens to a family shall appear upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class: and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Head-tax status).—Standard lines should make no entries in this column. The space is for use by Government officials only.

Column 2 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 3 (Married or single).—The terms should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed) or D (divorced).

Column 4 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as definitely as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arriving, as, for example: Civil engineer, mechanical engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, steam boilermaker, wood turner, iron molder, wood turner, etc., and not simply as engineer, boilermaker, molder, turner, or other indefinite designations.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the farm owner operates it.

Seamen should not be shipped under this distinction on the manifests, but corrections should be made, if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of alien seamen.

Column 5 (Able to read and write).—This column is subdivided into two parts, the following questions: "Can the alien read?" "Can the alien write?" If the alien is able to read and write in any language, a check mark should be placed. If the alien is able to read but cannot write, a check mark should be placed in the column headed "Can read," but not in the column headed "Can write." If the alien is unable to read or write in any language, no check mark should be placed in either column.

Column 6 (Nationality).—Opposite each alien's name should be entered the nationality of the country to which he owes allegiance, as, for example, Russia, Great Britain, Germany, Sweden, Norway, Italy, Austria-Hungary, France, Spain, Portugal, Turkey, Greece, Switzerland, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Mexico, Cuba, Japan, China, India, Egypt, Liberia, Arabia, Persia, Abyssinia, Armenia, Syria, Palestine, Servia, Montenegro, Roumania, Bulgaria, Finland, Russia, Poland, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, England, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Africa, South America, Central America, West Indies, Asia, Europe, or Africa. Do not use the word "American" unless it is clearly established that the alien is entitled to be so described.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country to which at that permanent residence, and country of birth.

Persons born in Canada should be described as natives of Canada, and not as natives of England, Scotland, Ireland, or Wales, unless they were born of parents temporarily residing in Canada, who did not intend to acquire Canadian citizenship. Persons born in Ireland should be described as natives of Ireland, and not as natives of Great Britain, unless they were born of parents temporarily residing in Ireland, who did not intend to acquire Irish citizenship. Persons born in Scotland should be described as natives of Scotland, and not as natives of Great Britain, unless they were born of parents temporarily residing in Scotland, who did not intend to acquire Scotch citizenship. Persons born in Wales should be described as natives of Wales, and not as natives of Great Britain, unless they were born of parents temporarily residing in Wales, who did not intend to acquire Welsh citizenship.

Column 7 (Last permanent residence).—Aliens coming to the United States should make entries in this column. The space is for use by Government officials only.

Column 8 (Final destination).—The terms should be as interpreted in regard to Column 7.

Column 9 (Name).—The terms in this column should be entered in the order of surname, the Christian name, and the middle initial, if any. The name of the wife or minor child should be entered immediately after that of the husband or parent, as the case may be.

Column 10 (Age).—The entry should be given in years. Children under 1 year of age should be entered as "under 1."

Column 11 (Sex).—The terms in this column should be as interpreted in regard to Column 5.

Column 12 (Married or single).—The terms should be as interpreted in regard to Column 3.

Column 13 (Height).—The entry should be given in feet and inches. Persons under 5 feet in height should be carefully observed by inspectors in the examination, and if any doubt exists as to the correctness of the statement made, the height should be measured.

Column 14 (Complexion).—The terms should be as interpreted in regard to Column 4.

Column 15 (Color of hair).—The terms should be as interpreted in regard to Column 4.

Column 16 (Color of eyes).—The terms should be as interpreted in regard to Column 4.

Column 17 (Place of birth).—The name of the country, province, or district of birth should be entered in full in addition to the city or town.

Column 19 (Special examination).—Examining officers should enter in this column the word "Passport," "Section 3," "Section 4," "Section 13," "Section 6," "Section 7," "Section 9," "Section 10," "Section 11," "Section 14," "Section 15," "Section 16," "Section 17," "Section 18," "Section 19," "Section 20," "Section 21," "Section 22," "Section 23," "Section 24," "Section 25," "Section 26," "Section 27," "Section 28," "Section 29," "Section 30," "Section 31," "Section 32," "Section 33," "Section

NOTE.—Each item is to be answered as follows: "Whether a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such principles or advocating such things either openly or secretly, or who is a polygamist, or who advocates or teaches the practice of polygamy, or who is coming to the United States to engage in any other immoral practice, or who has been convicted of any crime involving moral turpitude, or who has been previously deported from any country, or who is a person likely to become a public charge, or who has a mental or physical defect of such a character as may affect his ability to earn a living, or who has been within a year a pauper, professional beggar, or vagrant, or who is coming to the United States in pursuance of any offer, solicitation, promise, or agreement to perform labor or service of any kind, whether such offer, solicitation, promise, or agreement proceeds or is made by or on behalf of the prospective immigrant or by or on behalf of any person or persons, company, partnership, or corporation in the United States, or who is coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, or agreement to perform labor or service of any kind in any skilled trade, unless it is shown that at the time of his application for admission or entry skilled workmen in such trade are not being imported under contract or agreement into the locality to which he is going to perform such labor, or who is coming to perform labor if he belongs to a class or is of a character of person specifically excepted, or who is not in possession of a ticket or sufficient money to pay his fare to the place of his ultimate destination, or who has come in consequence of the procurement, assistance, or payment of another who by reason of any of the foregoing is excluded from admission into the United States, shall be excluded from admission into the United States."

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according or separate manifests immigrants and nonimmigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also according or separate manifests those aliens traveling in the first class and the so-called tourist class, where there exist the facilities of reception, and those aliens who do not pass such facilities. The names of all members of a family shall appear next the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Number on list).—Numerals should be entered in this column, beginning with the number 1 for the first alien on each manifest and continuing in regular order.

Column 2 (Last name).—The surname of each alien should be entered in full, whether consisting of one or more words.

Column 3 (Given name in full).—The given name in full of each alien should be entered, and not merely the initial letter or letters.

Column 4 (Age).—The years of each alien should be entered in figures opposite his name. Children under 1 year old should have their ages stated in months, as "6/12."

Column 6 (Married or single).—The word S (single), M (married), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation of each alien, as, for example: Clerk, engineer, mechanical engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, farmer, laborer, servant girl, tailor, tailoress, dressmaker, milliner, seamstress, stenographer, typist, bookkeeper, accountant, author, physician, surgeon, lawyer, clergyman, musician, actor, artist, etc. Do not use such indefinite designations as laborer, laboress, driver, worker, dealer, manufacturer, agent, servant, housework, housekeeper, at home, none, etc.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the farm owner operating it.

A gardener should be described as such, and not as a laborer.

Column 8 (Able to read) (able to write).—Data in columns 8 and 9 should be distributed and contain the following designations: "Yes" or "No." If the alien is able to read but unable to write, the word "Yes" should be entered in column 8 and "No" in column 9. If unable to read or write, the word "No" should be entered in both columns. If unable to read, it is obvious that he cannot write, and the ditto mark should not be used in column 9.

Column 9 (Nationality).—Question 9 should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Special attention should be had to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject; country of last permanent residence; and country of birth, and manifests should be correctly viewed by inspectors in this regard. For instance, "France" represents under the head of country does not mean "France," by race or mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race might properly come as a "French" people, and, similarly, "French" representative under the head of race or people does not necessarily indicate that the bearer is a citizen or subject of France, but may be a citizen of England, Switzerland, or any other country. If this connection the following distinctions should be especially observed:

CANADA

The term "Canadian" refers to the Canadian people (not Negroes).

WEST INDIAN

HAWAIIAN ANCESTRY

ASIATIC

"Negro" refers to the African (black), whether coming from Cuba or other West Indian, North or South American, Europe, or Africa. Any alien admixture to blood of the African (black) should be classified under this heading.

Column 11 (Place of birth).—The name of the city or town should be written in addition to the city or town.

Column 12 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name, exact relationship, and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came, even when same address as friend. If alien has no relative living, give name and complete address of friend in country whence alien came. Address should include street and number.

Column 13 (Final destination).—The answer to this question should be the intended future permanent residence. The entry should be definitely the place (city or town) and permanent residence. The entry should be definitely the place (city or town) of intended future permanent residence, if within the United States; country, if outside the United States; and port of intended debarkation.

Column 14 (Whether having a ticket to said final destination).—The answer should be either Yes (ticket) or No (no ticket).

Column 15 (Whether in possession of $50 or more (cash)).—The entry should be definitely by money passage was paid, whether by alien himself, father, mother, or other relative; friend; employer; or other person.

Column 16 (Whether going to join relative or friend).—The answer should be definite; for instance, "Father, Robert Roe, 1234 Main Street, Chicago, Ill." Mere statement "Brother" or "Friend" is insufficient. Where in the United States should alien once previously indicate last residence when and give exact or approximate date of last departure from the United States.

Column 17 (Whether going to join relative or friend).—The answer should be definite; for instance, "Father, Robert Roe, 1234 Main Street, Chicago, Ill." Mere statement "Brother" or "Friend" is insufficient.

Columns 18 to 20.—These questions are to be propounded by the examining officer to the alien and the answers recorded thereon. Where alien has been excluded heretofore under any previous immigration act, it should be stated when and where such exclusion occurred.

Columns 21 to 24.—These questions are to be propounded by the examining officer to the alien. However, if answers to questions 20 to 24, inclusive, are all negative (as they usually will be), the entry "None" in column 20 will be sufficient.

Column 25 (Whether deported at any time).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No."

Column 26 (Whether in possession of railroad or steamship ticket through to ultimate destination).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No."

Column 27 (Whether in possession of $50 or more (cash)).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No."

Column 28 (Whether ever before in the United States: date, if so, where, when).—The entries should show whether or not (Yes or No) in the United States before; if so, the year (or period of years) and place, as, 1881—Philadelphia. Where in the United States more than once previously, indicate last residence only, and give exact or approximate date of last departure from the United States.

Column 29 (Whether going to join relative or friend; with name and complete address; whether going to join other relative or friend, with name and complete address; if so, relative; the exact relationship.

Columns 34 to 36.—These questions are to be propounded by the examining officer in the examination of aliens. However, if answers to questions 34 to 36, inclusive, are all negative (as they usually will be), the entry "None" in column 34 will be sufficient.

Column 37 (Whether deported).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No."

Column 38 (Whether in possession of railroad or steamship ticket through to ultimate destination).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No."

Column 39 (Whether in possession of $50 or more (cash)).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No."

Column 40 (Whether ever before in the United States: date, if so, where, when).—The entries should show whether or not (Yes or No) in the United States before; if so, the year (or period of years) and place, as, 1881—Philadelphia. Where in the United States more than once previously, indicate last residence only, and give exact or approximate date of last departure from the United States.

Column 41 (Whether going to join relative or friend).—The answer should show whether going to join relative or friend, with name and complete address; whether going to join other relative or friend, with name and complete address; if so, relative; the exact relationship.

Columns 34 to 36.—These questions are to be propounded by the examining officer in the examination of aliens. However, if answers to questions 34 to 36, inclusive, are all negative (as they usually will be), the entry "None" in column 34 will be sufficient.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. Record on separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class and non-immigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also record on separate manifests those aliens traveling in the so-called tourist class, whose rates next the initials of technical advisers, and those serving as members of the crew. Persons who are not members of a family shall engage rooms that are separate and distinct from those occupied by persons of a different class, appropriate to the nationality of each person. Cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Line of ship).—The name, province, or district of ship should be written in addition to the city or town.

Column 2 (Serial number of document presented).—Each alien arriving should be provided with a ship's manifest, or part thereof, to be presented to the immigration officer at the time of inspection. This manifest should be prepared in duplicate, typewritten, and in accordance with the following instructions. Any alien who arrives without having been provided with a manifest as required by law may be refused admission to the United States.

Column 3 (Family or surname).—Surnames should be written first, followed by the given names and middle name or initial, if any. Titles, such as Mr., Mrs., Miss, Dr., Rev., Hon., Prof., Count, Baron, etc., should be omitted. Initials should be followed by periods and should be separated by spaces. Thus, "J. Henry Smith" should be written "J. H. Smith." Where the surname is compounded, as "Van Dyke," "De Witt," "Mac Donald," "O'Brien," "Le Moyne," "St. John," "Von Bismarck," "Ben Ali," "Ibn Saud," "Abd el Kader," "Di Cesnola," "Du Pont," "La Salle," "Mc Kinley," or "Fitz Roy," the name should be written as one word, without spaces or punctuation marks, as "VanDyke," "DeWitt," "MacDonald," "OBrien," "LeMoyne," "StJohn," "VonBismarck," "BenAli," "IbnSaud," "AbdelKader," "DiCesnola," "DuPont," "LaSalle," "McKinley," or "FitzRoy."

Column 4 (Given name in full).—The given name should be written in full, and not merely the initial letter. Nicknames should not be used in place of the real name. Thus, "Thomas" should be written instead of "Tom," "Margaret" instead of "Peggy," "Elizabeth" instead of "Lizzie" or "Betty," "Katherine" instead of "Kitty" or "Kate," "Mary" instead of "Polly," "Alexander" instead of "Alec," "Edward" instead of "Ned," "Theodore" instead of "Ted," "Frederick" instead of "Fred," "Benjamin" instead of "Ben," "Samuel" instead of "Sam," "Nicholas" instead of "Nick," "Joseph" instead of "Joe," "Daniel" instead of "Dan," "Abraham" instead of "Abe," "Jacob" instead of "Jake," "Isaac" instead of "Ike," "Jeremiah" instead of "Jerry," "Christopher" instead of "Chris," "Timothy" instead of "Tim," "Patrick" instead of "Pat," "Michael" instead of "Mike," "Matthew" instead of "Matt," "Walter" instead of "Wat," "Gregory" instead of "Greg," "Lawrence" instead of "Larry," "Anthony" instead of "Tony," "Francis" instead of "Frank," "Alexis" instead of "Alex," "Philip" instead of "Phil," "Leonard" instead of "Leon," "Gerald" instead of "Gerry," "Geoffrey" instead of "Jeff," "Bernard" instead of "Bernie," "Albert" instead of "Al," "Hubert" instead of "Hub," "Herbert" instead of "Herb," "Percival" instead of "Percy," "Reginald" instead of "Reggie," "Ronald" instead of "Ron," "Donald" instead of "Don," "Gerard" instead of "Gerry," "Edmund" instead of "Ed," "Raymond" instead of "Ray," "Clarence" instead of "Clare," "Clement" instead of "Clem," "Cornelius" instead of "Neil," "Stephen" instead of "Steve," "Hugh" instead of "Hughie

LIST OR MANIFEST OF ALIEN PASSENGERS FOR THE UNITED

ALL ALIENS arriving at a port in the United States from a foreign port, or a port in any possession of the United States, from a foreign port, or a port in the insular possessions of the United States from a port in a possession other than that in which the alien lands, must be listed. Each sheet must be signed by the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel or aircraft. (Ink (black) should be used if not the pencil is typed.)

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according or separate manifests immigrants and nonimmigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also according or separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class and the so-called tourist class, whose rates pass the initials of recognized agents; and those whose rates do not pass such initials. The manner of all members of the family should be the same; that is, if they travel in the same class; but if they travel in different classes, appropriate steps to a family shall appear now the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; but if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Name in full).—Alphabetical list of surnames and given names of all persons to be listed on the manifest, commencing each family group with the surname of the head of the family, followed by the given names of the members of the family. Titles, such as Mr., Mrs., Miss, Dr., Rev., etc., should be omitted. Initials should not be used except when they appear in the passport. Persons traveling under assumed names should be listed under the names by which they are known.

Column 2 (Age).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 3 (Married or single).—The entry should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 4 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arriving, as for example: farmer, laborer, servant, saleswoman, saleswoman, engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, civil engineer, mechanical engineer, accountant, author, clerk, draftsman, architect, merchant, manufacturer, editor, lawyer, physician, surgeon, teacher, student, minister, professor, etc. Do not use such terms as gentleman, lady, or person.

Column 5 (Nationality).—Nationality should be entered in this column for all persons, including citizens of the United States. Nationality should be entered as Canadian, Chinese, Japanese, Mexican, Russian, Turkish, Armenian, Syrian, Hindu, Irish, Scotch, Welsh, English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Greek, Polish, Bohemian, Hungarian, Roumanian, Finnish, Swedish, Norwegian, Danish, Dutch, Belgian, Swiss, Austrian, Czechoslovak, Yugoslav, Lithuanian, Latvian, Esthonian, Russian, Ukrainian (Ruthenian), Slovak, Croatian, Slovenian, Montenegrin, Albanian, Bulgarian, Rumanian, Greek, Arabian, Palestinian, Egyptian, Abyssinian, Liberian, Indian, Burman, Siamese, Malay, Filipino, Australian, New Zealander, Cuban, Haitian, Dominican, Jamaican, Porto Rican, Panamanian, Costa Rican, Guatemalan, Honduran, Nicaraguan, Salvadorian, Mexican, Colombian, Venezuelan, Ecuadorian, Peruvian, Bolivian, Chilean, Paraguayan, Uruguayan, Brazilian, or Argentinian. Act of 1924.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country of last permanent residence, and country of birth, and manifestos should be correctly veried by inspectors in this regard. For instance, "France," universally under the head of country does not mean "French" or race or people, and similarly "French" appearing under the head of race or people does not mean "France," or country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien or race might properly come under any of the headings of England, Switzerland, or any other country. In this connection the following qualifications should be carefully observed:

CUBAN

The term "Cuban" refers to the Cuban people (not Negros).

WEST INDIAN

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than Cuban or Haitian, or Negros.

HAWAIIAN ANCIENCAN

CHINESE

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according or separate manifests immigrants and non-immigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also according or separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class and the so-called tourist class, whose rates pear the initials of technical schools, and those whose rates do not pear such initials. The names of all members of a family should appear upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate entries should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Line of ship).—The Slate, province, or district of ship should be given in addition to the city or town.

Column 11 (Place of ship).—Enter serial number of document presented.—Enter serial number of document presented with application "Q1V," "NQ1V," "VP," or "BP," as appropriate, to designate Alien, or Nonquota Immigration Alien, Temporary Alien, or Nonquota Immigration Alien, respectively, under the provisions of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended by section 4 (a).

Column 13.—Date duration for reference to the place and date of issue of the document described in column 12 and is self-explanatory.

Column 14 (Last permanent residence).—Answer to be approximate to the entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 15 (Nationality of females, etc.).—Strangulation times should make no very certain entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 16 (Last comparable permanent residence. The last country in which alien resided for one year and claimed permanent residence. The entries in column 16 should be the information contained in column 1 next to most likely be the last permanent residence of the alien.

Column 17 (Last permanent residence).—Answer to be given in full the last permanent residence of the alien. The entries in column 17 should be the information contained in column 1 next to most likely be the last permanent residence. It is important for statistical purposes that accurate information be given. If the alien has resided in the United States, city or town, State, province, or district of last permanent residence should be entered. If the alien has resided in more than one place in the United States, the last place of permanent residence should be given.

The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country of last permanent residence, and country of birth, and immigrants should be carefully trained by inspectors in this regard. For instance, "France" abbreviate under the head of country does not mean "French" by race or mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien may not be a citizen of any other country. In this connection the following distinctions should be carefully observed:

CANADA

The term "Canada" refers to the Canada people (not Negroes).

WEST INDIAN

BRITISH AMERICAN

MEXICO

"Negro" refers to the African (black), whether coming from Cuba or other islands of the West Indies, North or South America, Europe, or Africa. Any alien mixture of blood of the African (black) should be classified under this heading.

Column 19 (Color or complexion).—Strangulation times should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 20 (Height).—The answer in this column should be expressed in feet and inches. Enter whole number only to those under 1 year of age.

Column 22 (Married or single).—The answer should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 23 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arrived, as, for example: Civil engineer, mechanical engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, steam boilermaker, steel boilermaker, iron molder, brass finisher, etc., and not simply as engineer, boilermaker, molder, tinner, or other indefinite designations.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the man who operates it.

Gentlemen of leisure should make this distinction on the manifests, and correction from such persons if necessary by inspector during the personal examination of aliens arriving.

Column 24 (Able to read or write).—This column is subdivided and contains the following directions: "Read and write language [or, if impossible to classify, read and write language to which alien is able to read]." If answer this only question is answered "yes," the alien is able to read and write any language or dialect. If alien is unable to read and write any language, the entry should be made "no."

Column 25 (Nationality).—Quotation 5 should be consulted to learn the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country of last permanent residence, and country of birth, and immigrants should be carefully trained by inspectors in this regard. For instance, "France" abbreviate under the head of country does not mean "French" by race or mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien may not be a citizen of any other country. In this connection the following distinctions should be carefully observed:

They come under the heading of England, Switzerland, or any other country. In this connection the following distinctions should be carefully observed:

CANADA

WEST INDIAN

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Canada or Negroes.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members (Form 583) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 508), "Workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board for discharge in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who may have joined the vessel at the time of the vessel's departure, and any other information called for by such list. Any such owner, agent, consignee, or master who shall refuse to deliver lists as herein required, or who shall fail to report, or to deliver any certificate or list required by the Secretary of Labor, or by any rule made thereunder, or who shall refuse to allow any immigrant inspector to enter upon any such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same and the persons on board thereof, or who shall refuse to detain any alien on board when ordered so to do by such inspector, or who shall refuse to allow any such alien to be taken on shore for medical treatment, or who shall refuse to deliver to the master of such vessel before leaving the last port outside the United States any alien ordered by the Secretary of Labor to be deported, or who shall refuse to pay the cost of the maintenance of such alien on board such vessel while in port, or who shall refuse to pay any fine imposed upon him by this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall for each such offense be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Such vessel shall also be liable for the payment of any such fine, and may be libeled therefor in any district court of the United States within the jurisdiction of which such vessel may arrive or depart, and shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 38. (a) That the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of Canada, Newfoundland, Cuba, Mexico, Central America, the Canal Zone, Panama, Miquelon, Saint Pierre, Bermuda, the Bahama Islands, Jamaica, the Republic of Haiti, the Dominican Republic, the Virgin Islands of the United States, or the British West Indies, shall, before any alien crewman employed on such vessel shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury requiring his detention, cause such alien crewman to be examined by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, and obtain a certificate, signed by such medical officer, stating whether such alien crewman is found to be suffering from any of the following diseases or defects: Idiocy, imbecility, epilepsy, insanity, constitutional psychopathic inferiority, chronic alcoholism, tuberculosis in any form, leprosy, or any dangerous contagious disease. Such certificate shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and no such alien crewman shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury requiring his detention, until such certificate has been delivered. Any such owner, agent, consignee, or master who shall refuse to obtain such certificate, or to present such alien crewman for examination, or who shall refuse to detain on board any such alien crewman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall have granted such alien crewman a certificate, or who shall refuse to detain any such alien crewman on board after such inspection or to deport such crewman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien crewman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a bond or undertaking vessel to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such alien seaman on board such vessel at the expense of the master for the return voyage on which he arrived, and such vessel may be libeled therefor in any district court of the United States within the jurisdiction of which such vessel may arrive or depart, and shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel may be libeled therefor in any district court of the United States within the jurisdiction of which such vessel may arrive or depart, and shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury requiring his detention, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who shall fail to deliver on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall have inspected such seaman (which inspection it is the duty of such immigration officer to make), and issued a permit in writing authorizing the landing of such seaman, or who shall refuse to detain on board any alien seaman who is afflicted with any of the diseases or defects enumerated in section 18 of this Act, or who shall fail to deliver on board any such vessel before departure from the United States any alien seaman who has been ordered by the Secretary of Labor to be deported, or who shall refuse to pay the cost of the maintenance of such alien seaman on board such vessel while in port, or who shall refuse to pay any fine imposed upon him by this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a bond or undertaking with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such alien seaman on board such vessel at the expense of the master for the return voyage on which he arrived, and such vessel may be libeled therefor in any district court of the United States within the jurisdiction of which such vessel may arrive or depart, and shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

FEB. 5. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section 30 to that prescribed by section 38 of said Act, unless a bond with sufficient surety in such amount as may be required by the Secretary of Labor has been executed and delivered to the collector of customs, conditioned for the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

The list described below shall be prepared on plain white writing by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes or alien members here of crews (Form 598) shall not be retained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When no alien arriving seaman is a "stowaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped to engage, and specifying those to be held on board when the vessel leaves port, and the names of those discharged from the vessel, and the cause of discharge, and the names of those who died on board, and the time and place of death, and such other facts concerning the history, character, and circumstances of the case as may be required by such officer in order to enable him to carry out the provisions of the immigration laws and to properly certify the facts in the cases of aliens who are entitled to enter the United States and of those who are not entitled to enter the United States under the provisions of the immigration laws. Such lists shall be produced before and certified to by the said immigration officer at the time of the vessel's first entry in connection with the vessel's application for clearance or for a permit to proceed from one port to another in the United States, and no such application shall be granted until such lists have been produced. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person acting in behalf of any such vessel who refuses to deliver such lists, or who knowingly delivers incorrect lists, or who refuses to any such immigration officer the right to examine the crew of such vessel, or who refuses to detain on board such vessel any alien member of the crew when ordered to do so by such officer, or who refuses to deliver to such officer any such alien when ordered to do so, or who refuses to pay the cost of maintenance of such alien while detained on board such vessel, or who refuses to pay any fine imposed upon him for violation of the immigration laws, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any such fine may be remitted and any such imprisonment may be terminated by the Secretary of Labor upon such terms as he may prescribe.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment or because of illness, injury, or quarantine requirements, or to the administrative authorities prescribed by section 16 of the Act of February 5, 1917, unless security be furnished to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien will not become a public charge, and that he will be deported when destitute or when required by the Secretary of Labor, at the cost of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws, to the country from which he came to the United States or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, whichever the Secretary of Labor may direct.

(a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board the vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), has given his written permission for the landing of such seaman, or who fails to detain such seaman on board the vessel after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Front fines on alien seamen did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a like effect to defeat or reduce fines imposed hereunder, but such evidence may be overcome by the production of the alien seaman or his discharge or other papers, or by the testimony of the master, officers, or crew of such vessel, or other competent witnesses.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived is impracticable by reason of the refusal of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel to receive him on board, or by reason of the failure to detain him on board or to deport him on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel clearance has been granted, the Secretary of Labor shall cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, [illegible], of the [illegible], do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place during the past twenty months.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 30, Act of May 26, 1924, hereto appear below.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be printed on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the vessel as the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 528) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. When an alien member of a crew is discharged from a vessel in the United States, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons comprised in the crew, and separately those of the passengers, their ages, sex, and nationality, and the places where they were respectively furnished to be employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those who are destined to the United States; to report to the immigration officer, at which any such alien may land in the United States, the intended destination of each alien, and whether in possession of a ticket through to destination; to report to the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival the name of any such alien who may become ill during the detention of the vessel at quarantine, and the name of any such alien who may die on board before the vessel is admitted to entry; to report to the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to the immigration officer, at which any such alien shall land from such vessel, any such alien who may have been concealed on board such vessel after inspection or who may have been inadvertently passed without inspection, and any such alien who may be ordered by the Secretary of Labor to be returned to the country whence he came, at the cost of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance pending the decision of the Secretary of Labor in such case unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or consignor of such vessel shall deposit with the collector of customs a sum sufficient to cover the cost of such return, or unless such master, owner, agent, consignee, or consignor shall produce a certificate from the Secretary of Labor that no such deposit is required. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or consignor of any such vessel who shall refuse or fail to comply with the requirements of this section or any lawful regulations made thereunder, or to carry back any alien ordered to be returned by the Secretary of Labor under the provisions of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(a) Any person who knowingly or willfully, by force, threats, or menace, prevents any master, owner, agent, consignee, or commander of any vessel from complying with any of the requirements of this section, or who knowingly or willfully interferes with the discharge of any alien required by this section to be detained on board or landed at a designated place, or who knowingly or willfully aids or abets any such alien to escape from such vessel without having been duly inspected, or who knowingly or willfully aids or abets any such alien to land in the United States at a time or place not designated by the immigration officers, or who knowingly or willfully aids or abets any such alien to evade any of the requirements of the immigration laws, or any lawful rules, regulations, or orders made by the Secretary of Labor with reference to such aliens, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(b) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien subject to the head tax provided for in section 1 of this Act, unless such alien shall have been duly inspected by the immigration officers at the port of entry, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each and every such alien so brought, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall adopt rules and regulations not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, and shall cause the same to be printed in convenient pocket form, and furnish a sufficient number of copies thereof to the owners, agents, consignees, masters, or commanders of vessels arriving at ports of the United States to supply the persons who are required to obtain the same before the departure of the vessels from foreign ports, and cause the said rules and regulations to be posted in the proper languages in the forward part of all vessels carrying passengers, adjacent to the space where the same will be most likely to be seen and read by the passengers and emigrants, the said rules and regulations shall have the force of law, and the penalties provided in this section for violations of law shall apply to violations of said rules and regulations.

(d) Proof that an alien seeking admission was not rejected upon the outward manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was not reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a landing officer or any court that such alien was brought to the United States by the vessel on which he arrived.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall adopt rules and regulations not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, and shall cause the same to be printed in convenient pocket form, and furnish a sufficient number of copies thereof to the masters of vessels arriving at ports of the United States to supply the persons who are required to obtain the same before the departure of the vessels from foreign ports, and cause the said rules and regulations to be posted in the proper languages in the forward part of all vessels carrying passengers, adjacent to the space where the same will be most likely to be seen and read by the passengers and emigrants, the said rules and regulations shall have the force of law, and the penalties provided in this section for violations of law shall apply to violations of said rules and regulations.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws may be employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty, or by reason of the sickness or injury of any such alien seaman, until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival is satisfied that the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived has furnished a bond or undertaking approved by the Secretary of Labor, in such sum not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman, and with sureties satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien seaman will depart from the United States on a vessel or aircraft within the period for which he is admitted, and will comply with all the requirements of the immigration laws with respect to aliens seamen, and that such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer will pay the cost of maintenance while in hospital and the expenses of burial of such alien seaman in case of death, and the cost of his return to the port from which he was brought or to the country whence he came, as the Secretary of Labor may direct, and will pay to the collector of customs the hospital dues required by section 32 of the Act of June 5, 1920, to be paid in the case of alien seamen employed on vessels of the United States. Such bond or undertaking may be sued for and recovered by any person who shall be injured by the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived to perform any of the conditions of such bond or undertaking, and shall be available for the payment of the hospital dues, expenses of burial, and return of such alien seaman, or any of them, not paid by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel. Clearance may be granted to such vessel upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such dues, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outward manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a landing officer or any court that such alien was brought to the United States by the vessel on which he arrived, and may cause such alien to be returned to the country whence he came at the cost of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 588) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is in possession of a "mortgage" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held for the action of the Secretary of Labor; to list separately those who have been lawfully admitted to the United States, giving the names of the cities in which they were last admitted, and such information likely to lead to his identification as may be required by the Secretary of Labor; and to report the names of all aliens who may desert or leave such vessel while in port. Any master, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver to the principal immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has been employed on such vessel, or who shall refuse or neglect to report any such desertion or departure, or who shall refuse or neglect to deliver to such immigration officer any such alien for examination before the departure of such vessel from the port at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been employed on board such vessel since the inspection of the same by the immigration officers, or who shall refuse or neglect to deliver lists containing the names of all such persons, or who shall refuse to answer truthfully the questions contained in such lists as to the right of any person to enter the United States, or who shall refuse to permit any immigration officer to go on board such vessel and into every part thereof and question any person found thereon concerning the right of any or all persons thereon to enter the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(a) The master, purser, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any person in charge of the port of departure of such vessel, shall be required to deliver to each immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seamen (which inspection at all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who shall be found on board after such inspection or to depart such seamen if required by such immigration officer to the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers during the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance papers may be granted by the collector of customs.

(b) Front that an alien seaman did not obtain from the consignee manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the inspector in charge at the port of departure as an alien seaman on board such vessel, shall be prima facie evidence of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of the failure to obtain or deport alien seamen by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien seamen he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those of the persons named in said lists concerning whom a certificate has been issued by the Secretary of Labor as provided by section 3 of this act; the said lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer thereof, and shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. The master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel is hereby required to deliver to the said officer a further list containing the names of any aliens employed on such vessel after the departure of such vessel from the last port at which the said officer was authorized to land aliens, and before the departure of such vessel from the port at which the said officer is stationed, and to make oath to the same, or who shall refuse to permit the said officer to make such examination of the said vessel and of the passengers and crew thereof as may be necessary to determine whether the provisions of this act have been complied with, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and such vessel shall be refused clearance pending the payment of such fine or the giving of a bond for the payment thereof.

(d) Proof shall be made in such manner and by such persons as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor that the provisions of this section have been complied with before the vessel on which any alien arrives in the United States shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been interfered, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by this section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act prior to the granting of clearance, as the case may be, has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws who is employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Newfoundland, Panama, the Canal Zone, or the Republic of Haiti, or the Dominican Republic, or on board any vessel which has been allowed clearance papers, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily and for medical treatment, or to transit to and from foreign territory in immediate and continuous transit through the United States, except upon such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, approved by the Secretary of State, and in charge of such officers as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor as the immigration officers at the port of arrival (which inspection may be performed by medical officers of the United States Public Health Service), and any such seaman who lands in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported to the country whose flag the vessel on which he arrived was flying, or to the country in which he shall have been born or naturalized, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this act. Any such seaman who is ordered deported shall be detained on board or in such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival pending the completion of his deportation, and the master of the vessel on which he arrived shall be required to furnish a bond or undertaking satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor for the faithful performance of this condition. Any such seaman who shall have been granted shore leave while his vessel was in port shall be required to return to the vessel before it departs from port, and the master of the vessel shall be responsible for the return of any such seaman. Any such seaman who shall desert while in the United States shall be deported as provided in this section, and shall be ineligible to citizenship and debarred from becoming a naturalized citizen of the United States in the manner provided by section 4 of the Act of March 2, 1907, as amended by section 2 of the Act of May 9, 1918, unless such seaman shall have resided permanently in the United States for five years subsequent to the time of such desertion.

(a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Newfoundland, Panama, the Canal Zone, or the Republic of Haiti, or the Dominican Republic, or on board any vessel which has been allowed clearance papers, shall before the departure of such vessel from the port at which it is located deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port a list containing the name, nationality, last permanent residence, and intended address in the United States of every alien employed on board such vessel, and shall make oath to the correctness of such list before the said immigration officer or his deputy. Such list shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Secretary of Labor, and may be obtained from the immigration officer in charge at the port. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel who shall refuse to deliver to the said officer the list required by this section, or who shall refuse to make oath to the same, or who shall refuse to answer truthfully and fully to the best of his knowledge any question touching the right of any alien to enter the United States put to him by the said officer, or who shall refuse to permit the said officer to make such examination of the said vessel and of the passengers and crew thereof as may be necessary to determine whether the provisions of this act have been complied with, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and such vessel shall be refused clearance pending the payment of such fine or the giving of a bond for the payment thereof.

(b) Any alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws who is employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Newfoundland, Panama, the Canal Zone, or the Republic of Haiti, or the Dominican Republic, or on board any vessel which has been allowed clearance papers, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or to transit to and from foreign territory in immediate and continuous transit through the United States, except upon such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, approved by the Secretary of State, and in charge of such officers as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor as the immigration officers at the port of arrival (which inspection may be performed by medical officers of the United States Public Health Service), and any such seaman who lands in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported to the country whose flag the vessel on which he arrived was flying, or to the country in which he shall have been born or naturalized, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this act. Any such seaman who is ordered deported shall be detained on board or in such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival pending the completion of his deportation, and the master of the vessel on which he arrived shall be required to furnish a bond or undertaking satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor for the faithful performance of this condition. Any such seaman who shall have been granted shore leave while his vessel was in port shall be required to return to the vessel before it departs from port, and the master of the vessel shall be responsible for the return of any such seaman. Any such seaman who shall desert while in the United States shall be deported as provided in this section, and shall be ineligible to citizenship and debarred from becoming a naturalized citizen of the United States in the manner provided by section 4 of the Act of March 2, 1907, as amended by section 2 of the Act of May 9, 1918, unless such seaman shall have resided permanently in the United States for five years subsequent to the time of such desertion.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived will cause undue hardship, and that such seaman is likely to abscond or not to be deported on another vessel as the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and the Secretary of Labor may grant temporary relief by the immigration officer in charge at the port arrival upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such time, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(d) Proof shall be made in such manner and by such persons as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor that the provisions of this section have been complied with before the vessel on which any alien arrives in the United States shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

The law described below shall be prepared on shall remain exhibited by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the inspection port at which the vessel is due to arrive. The law is not to be delivered by the master to any person other than the immigration officer at the port, or other (from 888) shall not be detained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

"Alien" as in either case means it a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 26. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of the first arrival such lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the alien's country, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and absolutely none to be landed in the port of first arrival; to report to such immigration officer in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has been illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has been illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who may have left the vessel prior to the departure of such vessel, and also the names of those, if any, who have been added to the crew since the arrival of the vessel, together with the cause of the absence of each such person as far as the same may be known or can be ascertained by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel; and for every failure to deliver such list or to report the illegal landing of any alien, or for every omission to include in such list the name of any alien employed on such vessel, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or to report as above as above required: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted vun vessel until the fines imposed by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been paid. Unclaimed, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative authorities prescribed by this section or to that prescribed by section 36 of this Act has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board vun vessel arriving in the United States from vun place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury requiring his detention, certified by the Secretary of Labor, to the deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of vun vessel arriving in the United States from vun place outside thereof who fails to deposit on board vun such vessel such immigration officer in charge at the port of first arrival (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), and who refuses to permit such inspection or to deport such seaman on board with such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall be fined not to exceed $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance vun be granted prior to the determination of the question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof upon the collector of customs.

(b) Front that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from vun place outside thereof, or that he was not reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a failure to obtain or deport after treatment by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is detained on such account be more than seven days, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall pay to the collector of customs for each day in excess of seven (but not exceeding thirty days) $5 per day, and for each day thereafter $10 per day, which shall be a lien on such vessel, and may be recovered by the United States in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(d) Front that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from vun place outside thereof, or that he was not reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a failure to obtain or deport after treatment by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is detained on such account be more than seven days, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall pay to the collector of customs for each day in excess of seven (but not exceeding thirty days) $5 per day, and for each day thereafter $10 per day, which shall be a lien on such vessel, and may be recovered by the United States in any court of competent jurisdiction.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the vessel at the port of arrival. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form 588) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. When an arriving seaman is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those who are to be landed in the port of arrival; lists containing as much of such information as can be ascertained, and specifying those who are to be landed in the port of arrival from each foreign port or place at which the vessel may touch in the United States, and also the names of all aliens employed on such vessel who may be discharged, died, or who desert or abscond before the vessel departs from the port of arrival, and the intended destination of such aliens, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and prior to the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed there who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who left vessel prior thereto at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been landed in the United States, and the reasons therefor. Any such owner, agent, consignee, or master who refuses or neglects to deliver either of the lists required by this section, or who refuses or neglects to report, record, or detain any alien as required by the immigration officers in charge of the port, or by any special board of inquiry appointed as provided by this section, or who refuses or neglects to perform any duty required of him by any rule or regulation made by the Secretary of Labor in pursuance of the provisions of this section, or who refuses or neglects to pay the tax imposed by this section, or who refuses or neglects to deliver to any alien any certificate in his possession required by this section to be delivered to such alien, or who takes any fee, deposit, or consideration for the delivery of any such certificate, or who violates any provision of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof in any court of the United States shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien in respect to whom any such violation occurs, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, refund fines imposed for violations of this section upon the production of such evidence as may be required by the rules and regulations of the Department of Labor.

(a) The master, purser, or agent of every vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily under bond as provided in section 16 of this Act, only such alien members of the crew as are employed on board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has been notified of such alien's intention to land, and has granted to such alien a landing certificate, duly indorsed by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service as provided in section 16 of this Act, or has granted such alien a special permit as provided in section 3 of this Act. Such certificate or permit shall be delivered by such master, purser, or agent to the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival, and shall be surrendered by such alien to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure from the United States, except that in the case of an alien who has been granted a special permit as a temporary visitor for business or pleasure, such certificate or permit shall be surrendered by such alien to the immigrant inspectors at the port of entry.

(b) Upon the arrival of any vessel at a port in the United States, it shall be the duty of the master, purser, or agent thereof to report and deliver to the immigrant inspectors at such port lists showing the full name, age, sex, calling, nationality, last permanent residence, and final destination of every alien who intends to land at such port, and of every alien who has been granted a special permit as a temporary visitor who intends to land at such port, and to deliver to such inspectors the certificates and permits granted to such aliens outside the United States. Such lists shall be verified by the oath of such master, purser, or agent, taken before the consul who issued the certificate or permit of each alien specified in the lists, and shall be delivered to the inspectors at the time of the vessel's entry into the port. Such master, purser, or agent shall also report and deliver to the inspectors at the time of departure the same information with respect to aliens who have been discharged or who have died or deserted since the date of sailing, and the inspectors may go on board any vessel at any time before departure is completed and before the vessel passes beyond the limits of the port for the purpose of examining the crew and the lists relating thereto, and may question any person or persons on board as to the compliance with the provisions of this section. Any master, purser, or agent who refuses or fails to deliver the lists required by this section, or who refuses or fails to report, record, or detain any alien as required by the immigrant inspectors, or who refuses or fails to pay the tax imposed by this section, or who refuses or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section, or with any rules and regulations made thereunder, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien in respect to whom any such violation occurs. The vessel shall also be liable to a penalty of $300 for each violation, which may be sued for and recovered by the United States district attorney in a civil action. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel the master, purser, or agent of which refuses or neglects to pay the tax or fine imposed upon him by this section until the same has been paid or sufficient security therefor given to the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that any vessel has arrived or departed from a port or place in the United States without complying with the provisions of this section, or any rule or regulation made thereunder, he may, in addition to any other penalty provided by this section, refuse clearance to such vessel until he is satisfied that such vessel will comply with such provisions, rules, and regulations.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid or sufficient security given therefor, and not then unless notice of inability so to do administrative time prescribed by said section or to any time prescribed by section 35 of said Act, in the event such time is imposed, while it remains pending: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospital treatment to such vessel's crew, or for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board such vessel all the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival any alien seaman employed on board such vessel at the time of arrival (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to deport any such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien seaman in respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a like effect in any proceeding for the collection of the tax imposed by this section.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that any vessel has arrived or departed from a port or place in the United States without complying with the provisions of this section, or any rule or regulation made thereunder, he may withhold clearance to such vessel until such evidence has been given as to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

LIST OR MANIFEST OF ALIENS EMPLOYED ON THE VESSEL AS MEMBERS OF CREW

Required under Act of Congress of February 2, 1917, to be delivered to the United States immigration officer by the representative of the vessel before such alien shall be granted clearance papers, or in the case of vessels not engaged in the foreign trade before departure from a port or place in the United States.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes or alien members of crews (Form 583) shall not be detained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate manifest is required, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the vessel's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying cause to be paid on account of each alien employed in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as may be required by regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe: and every such information likely to lead to his apprehension: and agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has deserted the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension: and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed upon new ports not mentioned in the lists of such vessel at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon as the case may be, by sickness, death, or desertion, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired or landed: and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver either of the lists required by this section at the time of the departure of those, if any, who have been hired or landed, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as upon written request, and in the event such sum is unpaid, may be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative officer as prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said Act of May 26, 1924, has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the minimum deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 28. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who lands or allows to be landed from any vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board until such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the deposit of such sum or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the deposit of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof or such other action upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every such seaman who shall desert or who shall not be found on board when the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after treatment by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense shall not be exacted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of ARRIVAL, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes to alien immigrants (Form 583) shall not be delivered on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "MOTAWEN" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the grade and compass of such vessel, and the nationality, last permanent residence, and final destination so far as known of each alien employed, which lists shall be prepared as prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, approved by the Secretary of Labor, and printed on the forms furnished by the Department of Labor; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer, at the time, or as soon as practicable, all cases in which any alien has been illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed, the reason why they were not employed, and the last permanent address of each alien so employed. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel who refuses to deliver any list required by this section, or who knowingly delivers a false list or manifest, or who refuses to any such immigration officer the right to question, in relation to the matters required to be set forth in such lists, any person on board such vessel, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel who refuses to detain on board any alien when ordered so to do by any immigration officer, or who refuses to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel who refuses to deliver any list required by section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to do the administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act cannot be complied with, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless such seaman (a) has been duly admitted as a temporary visitor, or (b) has been granted a landing certificate, or a transit or other visa, and has been inspected by an immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and has given a sufficient bond to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located and has paid to the collector of customs a tax of $10 for each alien seaman to be granted a landing certificate, or (c) has been granted by the Secretary of Labor, or such person as he may designate for the purpose, a landing certificate or permit to land temporarily notwithstanding the provisions of this section, and has given a sufficient bond to the collector of customs conditioned upon the return of such seaman on board the vessel or upon the departure of such seaman in such manner, at such time, and at such port as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor. The Secretary of Labor is authorized to prescribe such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section, including a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or (d) who is found to belong to any class which, if known to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or (e) who fails to deliver on board the vessel upon which such seaman arrived, prior to the departure of such vessel from the United States, a certificate from the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located that such seaman has given a sufficient bond to the collector of customs conditioned upon the return of such seaman on board the vessel upon which he arrived, or upon the departure of such seaman in such manner, at such time, and at such port as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, or has paid to the collector of customs a tax of $10 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such tax, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit with the collector of customs of such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such alien on board such vessel when she departed from a port of the United States.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of the time such vessel will remain in port during the unloading and reloading thereof, he may, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, permit the substitution of another vessel sailing to the same port within a reasonable time, upon the payment to the master of the vessel on which he arrived of the expense of the passage of such seaman on such vessel, but such seaman shall not be entitled to the benefits of this section unless he has been duly admitted to the United States by an immigration officer.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector posting the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens mentioned in the preceding paragraph will be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 588) shall not be destroyed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "moreman," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or entered, and specifying those to be held on board discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and valid the entry of any such vessel if shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who shall will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired to and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists required, he, she, or they shall severally pay to the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: and no such vessel shall be cleared from any port of the United States under the penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the data required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative tax prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act therein has been waived, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress, or for such temporary purpose as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board such vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall have granted such alien a permit to land in the United States, or who or any agent of such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master who refuses to pay the cost of maintenance and treatment of such alien seaman on board such vessel while such inspection is pending, or who fails to detain such alien seaman on board such vessel after notice of the exclusion of such alien seaman by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Fines and an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport alien seaman by such vessel unless the master establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that the alien seaman was prevented from departing on the outbound vessel by reason of illness, injury, or distress, or for such temporary purpose as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

I, GEORGE EMDEN, master of the M. S. "SEA MAID", do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 20, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens memorandum of the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed in the port of arrival; of alien members of the crew who have been discharged in the port of arrival as sick or injured or left behind on account of illness in a foreign port or place if able to proceed, and the intended destination of each; of alien members of the crew who have been left behind in any foreign port or place for any cause other than illness, with the reason therefor; and of aliens who have been transferred to or received from other vessels, with the name of each vessel and the date of such transfer or reception. Such list or manifest shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the time of the vessel's arrival at the port of entry, and no member of the crew or other person shall be allowed to leave the vessel before the inspection is completed, except temporarily under the supervision of an officer of the vessel, unless and until the master has received from the immigrant inspector in charge a permit granting such permission. Any master who refuses to deliver such list or manifest, or who fails to report, or who reports incorrectly or falsely any matter or thing concerning any alien required to be reported, or who refuses to detain on board his vessel any alien required to be detained thereon, or who refuses to permit any immigrant inspector to go on board such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or who refuses to assist such inspector in the performance of his duties, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 and by imprisonment for not more than one year.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place if bound for the duly of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed in the port of arrival; of alien members of the crew who have been discharged in the port as sick or injured or left behind on account of illness in a foreign port or place if able to proceed, and the intended destination of each; of alien members of the crew who have been left behind in any foreign port or place for any cause other than illness, with the reason therefor; and of aliens who have been transferred to or received from other vessels, with the name of each vessel and the date of such transfer or reception. Such list or manifest shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the time of the vessel's arrival at the port of entry, and no member of the crew or other person shall be allowed to leave the vessel before the inspection is completed, except temporarily under the supervision of an officer of the vessel, unless and until the master has received from the immigrant inspector in charge a permit granting such permission. Any master who refuses to deliver such list or manifest, or who fails to report, or who reports incorrectly or falsely any matter or thing concerning any alien required to be reported, or who refuses to detain on board his vessel any alien required to be detained thereon, or who refuses to permit any immigrant inspector to go on board such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or who refuses to assist such inspector in the performance of his duties, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 and by imprisonment for not more than one year.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been transmitted and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act cannot be served, the reason therefor specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, casualty, or emergency, or to accompany and remain with a seaman employed on such vessel, until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or has been notified by the Secretary of Labor to do so, and then only to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located and such seaman has been granted a permit to land by such immigration officer or the collector of customs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the detention of any such alien, or while the same remains there, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

(d) Every alien seaman who does not depart from the contiguous territory of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who has been reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to the same effect in any proceeding under the immigration laws, and any such alien seaman who shall depart from the United States shall be deported at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Islaid Kovar, do declare that I am master of the M.N.S. of the port of [illegible]; that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew now on board said vessel, and that the following is a correct statement of the number of persons on board said vessel who are not citizens of the United States, showing the nationality of each, the capacity in which each serves, the length of time each has been employed on board said vessel, and the country from which each was shipped:

Nationality.	Capacity.	Length of time employed.	Country from which shipped.
Swedish	Seaman	1 year	Sweden
Finnish	Seaman	1 year	Finland
Norwegian	Seaman	1 year	Norway
Danish	Seaman	1 year	Denmark

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 30 of the Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of ARRIVAL, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crews (Form 588) shall not be delivered on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "MOTORWAY" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those of the said aliens, if any, who are destined to the United States; to furnish such information as to the said aliens and their landing in the United States as may be required by the Secretary of Labor; and to deliver to the master of the vessel a certificate of the payment of the head tax imposed by this Act upon each of the said aliens, for which certificate and payment a receipt shall be given by the master. Any master who shall refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties required of him by this section, or who shall refuse to deliver to any such alien a certificate showing the payment of the head tax imposed by this Act upon such alien, or who shall refuse to pay the head tax imposed by this Act upon any such alien, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of the United States shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each and every such offense, and shall moreover be liable to a penalty of $300 for each and every alien in respect to whom any such violation occurs. The vessel shall be detained by the collector of customs for the payment of such fines, penalties, and head taxes, and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists required, or the certificate of the payment of the head tax, or any part thereof, with respect to each and every alien on board, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of the United States shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 and imprisonment not exceeding one year, and such vessel shall be detained until the said lists are delivered and certificates issued for the payment of the said head taxes, or the amount thereof adjudged by the court imposing such fine, shall be deposited with the collector of customs, and shall constitute a lien upon the vessel which may be enforced by libel in any court of competent jurisdiction. The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe all such rules and regulations and issue all such blanks as may be necessary to carry into full force and effect the provisions of this section.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been delivered to the immigration officer at the port of departure, and not then unless notice of liability to the head tax prescribed by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, has been delivered to the master, and a certificate obtained, or the payment of such head tax prescribed by section 36 of said Act noted on the lists. In the event such head tax is imposed, while it remains unpaid, not shall such be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such questions upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has been employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of accident, illness, or other cause beyond his control, pending the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, or pending his removal to the country to which he belongs under the provisions of section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, or any Act amendatory thereof.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any person who violates or fails to obey any lawful regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or medical treatment of aliens on board vessels arriving in the United States, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs.

(b) Before any vessel arriving after the passage of this Act from any place outside thereof, except from foreign contiguous territory, shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs, or the equivalent officer, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall deposit with the collector of customs a sum sufficient to cover the cost of the return of each alien employed on board such vessel, including a personal physical examination by the medical examiners, to the port from which such alien was shipped, or to a foreign port to which the vessel may be willing to carry such alien, and a sum sufficient to cover the cost of the physical examination of each alien seaman employed on board at the time of departure, and a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, conditioned that each such alien seaman will depart from the United States on the vessel on which he arrived or on some other vessel, or by some other means within the time prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and will not become a public charge, and will report to the Secretary of Labor or to any officer designated by him for examination at such times and places as he may direct during a period of two years following the departure of such vessel from the United States, unless sooner granted permission to depart permanently from the United States. Upon the deposit of such sum with the collector of customs, a certificate shall be granted by the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure, and not otherwise, showing the name, age, and description of each such alien seaman, the amount deposited in his behalf, and the period within which he is required to depart from the United States. Upon the presentation of such certificate to the collector of customs at the port of departure, the amount deposited in behalf of such alien seaman shall be refunded to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which such alien seaman departed from the United States, or to his representative.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of any alien seaman on board any vessel at a designated port of departure will result in undue hardship to such alien seaman, or that no vessel sailing to the country to which such alien seaman belongs will touch at such port within a reasonable time, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, permit such alien seaman to depart on any vessel sailing to any other country willing to receive him, upon the deposit by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel of a sum sufficient to cover the cost of the return of such alien seaman to the country to which he belongs, or the cost of his maintenance for a period not exceeding six months, pending his return to such country, and upon the giving of such bond with sufficient surety as may be required by the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the discharge from the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or from any place outside the United States, to which he may have been removed by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be taken before the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and such officer shall cause such alien seaman to be examined by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, and if such alien seaman is found to be suffering from any disease, illness, or other cause which would be a ground for his deportation under the provisions of this Act, he shall be detained on board or at such place as may be designated by such immigration officer pending the certification of such case by the Public Health Service, and shall be deported on the vessel on which he arrived, or by some other vessel to the country to which he belongs, or to the country in which he resided before coming to the United States, at the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, at any time within five years after the date of his entry into the United States, when sufficient funds are available therefor in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, and such deportation shall be a charge against the appropriation for the expenses of the administration of the immigration laws. Any alien seaman who shall not be granted clearance shall not be entitled to any payment unless and until he has been certified by the Secretary of Labor as having been entitled to such payment at the time of his departure from the United States.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members for crews (Form 683) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an arriving seaman is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all alien members of the crew employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's country, when and where they were respectively naturalized or engaged, and specifying those to be paid off in the port of arrival; to list contained on board of such vessel; and to report the illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and to report to the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any alien employed on such vessel deserts or secretes himself or attempts to do so, and to deliver to such officer a certificate setting forth the cause of such desertion, if known, and the steps taken to apprehend such alien. Such officer shall also be furnished by the master of such vessel with a list of all aliens employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who left the vessel prior to the departure of such vessel from the port, and also the names of those, if any, who have been added to the crew subsequent to the arrival. Such owner, agent, consignee, or master so failing to deliver either of the lists required or to report any deserting alien shall pay to the Secretary of Labor, for the use of the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is located, a sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or reported: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted via vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been tendered, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act remains open served, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine, or unless specifically certified by the Secretary of Labor as entitled to be admitted as a bona fide member of the crew of a vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof duly liable to detain on board via alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall have inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or to any alien seaman who has been granted shore leave under the provisions of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1917 and who is otherwise admissible under the provisions of such Act. Upon the departure of such seaman from the United States from any place outside thereof, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel upon which such alien arrived shall report the name of such seaman to the Secretary of Labor, who shall cause a search to be made for such alien, and if found to collect from the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien arrived the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Fines and penalties which may be imposed upon masters of vessels under the provisions of this section may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor, upon such terms and conditions as he shall deem just, or compromised before or after suit is instituted.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of an alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Hans A. Jensen, of the Am. tug Wyatt H. Knight, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 18 and 28, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 513) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "stowaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival a list containing as many of all the persons on board of said vessel, whether cabin passengers or those in the steerage, as may be required by such officer, which list shall be prepared and delivered at such time before the departure of said vessel from such foreign port as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and upon the refusal of any such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver such list when required, or upon the discovery by an immigration officer, or any officer in charge of any port of entry of the United States, before the departure of such vessel from such port, of any omission from or inaccuracy in such list, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, to be collected by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located and the amount thereof may be deducted from the penalty imposed by section 2 of this Act: Provided, That no such penalty shall be remitted or refunded except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the liability to the payment of such penalty in cases where it is improbable, while it remains pending, that such fine or penalty will be incurred: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 32 of said Act has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or arriving in the United States at the termination of a voyage from any place outside thereof, or transferring at sea to any such vessel, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress, or for the sole purpose of obtaining supplies or making repairs to the vessel, or for such other reasons as may be approved by the Secretary of Labor, and then only under such conditions as he may prescribe, to insure that he will not become a public charge and will be available to the immigration officials for examination and to secure his departure when required.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who shall refuse to permit any immigrant, or any person who may subsequently be found to be an immigrant who arrived on such vessel, to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress, or who shall refuse to detain any such person on board while such vessel remains in any port of the United States, or who shall refuse to return any such person to the country from which such vessel arrived, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such person, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

(b) The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe rules governing the detention on board or at quarantine of aliens liable to be excluded from the United States under the provisions of this Act, and the transportation of such aliens to the ports from which they came to the United States.

(c) The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe rules governing the inspection of aliens applying for admission into the United States, and the boarding and inspection of vessels for the purpose of ascertaining whether aliens are unlawfully present therein.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or transferring at sea to any such vessel, shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners(s) assigned for that purpose by the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $2 for each alien seaman so inspected, and shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from the port of arrival within the time limited in this section, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a like effect in any proceeding before the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of the relation of the master to the vessel as a member of the crew or otherwise, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or adjustment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the scene of the boat to arrive, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of crewmen of alien nationality (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien is arriving aboard it a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on the vessel's arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and specified in the regulations hereinafter provided, with such additional information relative to same as may be required by the said officer, and such lists shall be produced on the demand of any such officer for inspection or be delivered to him; and no such vessel shall depart from any port of the United States without the permission of the said officer. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel violating the provisions of this section shall pay a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: But no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty, and in the event such sum is imposed, while it remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inspection to the administrative authorities prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 32 of said act herein been waived, the deposit specified in rule 55 have been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has been employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or has landed in the United States, except temporarily while in the service of the vessel on which he arrived, and such seaman may be required to depart in the manner provided in section 20 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, for the deportation of aliens. The master, purser, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien seaman who has been refused a landing shall be liable to the cost of maintenance and return of such alien seaman, unless it be shown that all reasonable efforts were made to prevent the landing of such alien seaman.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board the vessel prior to the departure thereof from each port of the United States at which such vessel touches for the purpose of taking on board additional seamen, or for any other purpose, a true list of all the persons on board such vessel, stating the full name, age, nationality, last permanent residence, calling, and port of embarkation of each person who joins the vessel at each such port, the intended port of debarkation, whether destined to the United States or not, the nature and number of his passport, the place where and the date when issued, and such other reasonable details with respect to each such person as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Front fines on alien seamen did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States at which such seamen were discharged, or if that be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, such fines may be remitted by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and such vessel may be granted clearance.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seamen by such vessel's detainment at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, ... of the ....., do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any foreign place during the present voyage.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the alien's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board for the action of the immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has been found secreted on board such vessel; and it shall be the duty of such master, agent, consignee, or owner to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such master, agent, consignee, or owner to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed there at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such master, agent, consignee, or owner to report such cases of desertion or landing, such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall be jointly and severally liable to the penalty provided in section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a true report is not made as above set forth, and in the event such alien is imposed, while it remains subject to deportation under the provisions of this Act, such penalty shall be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fine prescribed by section 35 of said Act therein need served, the deposit specified in rule 25 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the Canal Zone, for medical treatment, or treatment to which regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside foreign owns fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel duly the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), the Secretary of Labor is to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $ 1,000 for each alien seaman so detained on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the failure to deliver to the master of such vessel shall be grounds for withholding clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport, which fact may be established by the certificate of the master of such vessel, duly verified before a person authorized to administer oaths.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be granted clearance thus such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector possible after the vessel at the port to arrive, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members for crews (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is not listed on the list of changes, another blank may be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That from every vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival there containing the names of all aliens who shall have been shipped to such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively engaged, and the intended destination of each such alien; and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has been taken from such vessel, stating a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a true list of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival of the vessel at the port of arrival, but who may have been shipped or discharged, and of the cause for the separation in each case so far as the same can be ascertained by the exercise of due diligence on the part of such owner, agent, consignee, or master: Provided, That clearance shall not be withheld from any vessel by reason of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver such list or any part thereof if it shall appear from the oath of the master, first or second officer, and such other evidence as may be obtainable that the person or persons whose names are omitted from such list could not be found after reasonable diligence, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such application by the Secretary of Labor as to any alien in respect to whom such application is pending. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the application by the Secretary of Labor as to any alien in respect to whom such application is pending, or in respect to whom a fine has been imposed, while it remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such application upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 4. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been paid, mitigated, or remitted, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act, in the case such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: Not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such application upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, other than Canada or Mexico, (after inspection at all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $4 for each alien seaman not a resident of Mexico such alien may be found to be afflicted with trachoma, unless it appears to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien seaman has resided in the United States for a period of at least one year immediately preceding the date of his application for admission to the United States, and has been continuously employed on board vessels engaged in the trade between the United States and foreign contiguous territory during such period, and is returning to the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or another vessel employed in such trade: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the payment of the tax in the case of any such alien seaman who is in possession of a valid passport viséed by the consular officer at the port from which he departed, and who is destined to the port through which he entered the United States, if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien arrived at the United States shall furnish a bond in such amount, not exceeding $1,000, as may be required by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman (other than one who appears upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a foreign port via a place outside thereof) who is required by the master of such vessel to be detained on board thereof shall be detained on board by the master of such vessel as a seaman, shall be primâ facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman on such vessel, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall be liable to a fine of $100 for each such alien seaman.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have reasonable cause to believe that any alien seaman on any vessel arriving in the United States is afflicted with trachoma, he shall cause such alien seaman to be detained on board such vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance pending the determination of such alien seaman as to the existence of trachoma, unless such alien seaman shall be removed to a hospital for treatment in accordance with the provisions of section 16 of this Act, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall have paid or have filed with the Secretary of Labor a bond in such amount as he may require, not exceeding $500, conditioned upon the removal of such alien seaman to a hospital for treatment and upon the payment of all expenses incident to such treatment. Such vessel shall not be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the removal of such alien seaman to a hospital for treatment, unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall have paid the sum required by this section to be paid on account of such alien seaman.

(d) Every alien seaman who is required by the master of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States to be detained on board thereof shall be entered on the crew list of such vessel as a seaman, and shall be subject to all the provisions of law relating to seamen employed on vessels arriving in the United States from foreign ports.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall have reasonable cause to believe that any alien seaman on any vessel arriving in the United States is afflicted with trachoma, he shall cause such alien seaman to be detained on board such vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance pending the determination of such alien seaman as to the existence of trachoma, unless such alien seaman shall be removed to a hospital for treatment in accordance with the provisions of section 16 of this Act, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall have paid or have filed with the Secretary of Labor a bond in such amount as he may require, not exceeding $500, conditioned upon the removal of such alien seaman to a hospital for treatment and upon the payment of all expenses incident to such treatment. Such vessel shall not be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the removal of such alien seaman to a hospital for treatment, unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall have paid the sum required by this section to be paid on account of such alien seaman.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness of such seaman, or for such temporary purposes as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, or pending the final determination of such alien's right to land under the provisions of section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and any such seaman who lands in violation of this section, or who fails to remain with the vessel upon which he arrived, and such vessel, shall be severally liable to a penalty of $1,000. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel pending the decision as to the right of any seaman to land, and pending the payment of any penalty which may be imposed hereunder.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to obtain on board the alien seamen employed on such vessel shall the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seamen (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to obtain such seamen on board after such inspection or to deport such seamen if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not abscond upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a liability to a penalty or entry under this section, respectively, or to deport such cases of deletion to conduct, such owner, agent, consignee, or master to do so to deport alien seamen who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deport either of the aliens specified in the first proviso of the deportation, and also the names of those, if any, who have been held on and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deport alien seamen, the Secretary of Labor, by to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above provided; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or entered, and whether those or any of those have been discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing as much of such information as may be required by such immigration officer, to which, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has been illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer, in writing, as many additional lists containing as much of such information as may be required by such officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed upon such vessel at the time of the arrival but who left the vessel before her departure at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been held on and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists specified in the first proviso of this section, or to deport such aliens specified in the first proviso of this section, or to pay the penalties imposed by this section, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall be severally liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above provided or entered, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such penalty has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 632) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Leo. M. Connear, of the U.S.A.T. Wm. M. Wright, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place during the past twenty-four months to the best of my knowledge and belief, and that I have not, nor has any officer of said vessel, to my knowledge or belief, concealed, removed, or destroyed any list or any part thereof.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from application B, rule 7, and copy of sections 18 and 50, Act of May 26, 1924, marked appear below.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspectors boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens of alien members employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed at the port of arrival; or their continuance on board of such vessel to another port or place in the United States from which such alien may depart by vessel, and the names of all alien members of the crew who have been left behind at any foreign port or place from which the vessel departed on her last voyage to the United States, and the cause or reason for each alien's not being on board, and the intended future movements of such alien members of the crew, so far as known, and the number of pieces of baggage belonging to each alien. Such list shall be verified by the master or commanding officer of the vessel, who shall make oath before the examining immigration officer at the port of arrival to the truthfulness and completeness of the list. Any master or commanding officer of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver such list, or who knowingly and wilfully lands or permits to be landed from his vessel any alien without the permission of the immigration officer at the port of arrival, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such alien so landed or permitted to be landed, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed at the port of arrival, or their continuance on board of such vessel to another port or place in the United States from which such alien may depart by vessel, and the names of all alien members of the crew who have been left behind at any foreign port or place from which the vessel departed on her last voyage to the United States, and the cause or reason for each alien's not being on board, and the intended future movements of such alien members of the crew, so far as known, and the number of pieces of baggage belonging to each alien. Such lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer of the vessel, which oath the immigration officer at the port of arrival is hereby authorized to administer; and any master or commanding officer who knowingly and wilfully lands or permits to be landed from his vessel any alien without the permission of the immigration officer at the port of arrival, or who refuses or neglects to deliver such lists to such immigration officer, or to make oath to the same when required, or who knowingly and wilfully inserts or causes to be inserted in such lists any false statement, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master or commanding officer who shall refuse to deliver to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(a) Any master or commanding officer of any vessel who shall refuse to deliver to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(b) Any master or commanding officer who knowingly and wilfully lands or permits to be landed from his vessel any alien without the permission of the immigration officer at the port of arrival, or who refuses or neglects to deliver such lists to such immigration officer, or to make oath to the same when required, or who knowingly and wilfully inserts or causes to be inserted in such lists any false statement, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty, or unless specifically certified by the Secretary of Labor from time to time in his discretion as the necessities of the service may require.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, now by law required to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or to cause any such alien seaman to be detained on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do or, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the customs district in which the vessel on which he arrived in the United States is reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be taken into custody upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that reasonable efforts have been made to secure the departure of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is ready to depart prior to the deportation of the alien seaman or the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman by reason thereof, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 21. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the secretary of labor may prescribe for the alternate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 23. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel duly admitted by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to deport any alien seaman on board such vessel duly inspected and admitted by the immigration officer at the port of departure, or who fails to deport any alien seaman detained at the request of the consular officer in charge of the consulate district in which the port of departure is located (the name of such alien seaman to be stated in a report to the commissioner general of immigration by the consular officer), shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, or upon the inbound manifest of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport.

(c) If the secretary of labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is otherwise ready to depart from the port, would cause him to be detained on account of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is detained on account of such alien seaman, the secretary of labor may cause such alien seaman to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be allowed clearance until such expense has been paid to the payment thereof to the satisfaction of the secretary of labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector posted upon the vessel at the port of arrival, and in advance of arrival at any intermediate port if specified by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When no alien (from 658 down) is to be examined on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien passenger "mortgages" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of the vessel in the United States from the foreign port or place if shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival like counterlists of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the position each occupies, and where they were born and where they were respectively naturalized, if naturalized, and the last foreign port from which they severally came to the United States, and the final destination of each such alien as far as known by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk, and such counterlists shall be delivered to the immigration officer at the time of the vessel's entry at the port of arrival: Provided, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk of any vessel may, upon the vessel's arrival at the port of arrival, deliver to the immigration officer in charge at such port a list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the position each occupies, and where they were born and where they severally came to the United States, and the final destination of each such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his identification as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and thereupon be relieved from delivering to such immigration officer, at the time of the vessel's entry at the port of arrival, the counterlists of aliens required by this section: Provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk of any vessel arriving at a United States port from a foreign port shall report to the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival the name of each alien employed on such vessel who may have been refused a certificate of admission to the United States, and also the names of those employed aliens who were not employed thereon when such vessel departed from the last foreign port or place: And provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk of any vessel arriving from a foreign port or place shall report to the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival the name of each alien, if any, who may have been left behind on account of illness, and shall furnish such information concerning the cause for detention of such alien as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and the amount of money sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor to defray the expenses of such alien in case he becomes a public charge, and the name of the relative or friend, if any, who may have paid for the passage of such alien, and such information concerning the destination of such alien as may be required by the Secretary of Labor.

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted upon a list which lacks the certificate required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, nor upon a list which fails to show the name of any alien employed on board the vessel, the nationality of each, and the port at which he was engaged, unless notice of inability to furnish such information has been given by the master to the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival, and such officer has consented in writing to the granting of clearance without the production of the list. Clearance may be granted upon a list which fails to show the name of any alien employed on board the vessel at the time of her departure from a foreign port or place if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk shall have made oath before the collector of customs that such alien was employed on board the vessel at the time of her departure from such foreign port or place, and that the reason for the failure to include the name of such alien in the list has been stated to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival. Clearance may be granted upon a list which fails to show the name of any alien employed on board the vessel at the time of her departure from a foreign port or place if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk shall have made oath before the collector of customs that such alien was left behind on account of illness, and that the vessel has been detained at the port of departure for a period sufficient to cover such time, and that the amount of money deposited with the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival is sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor to defray the expenses of such alien in case he becomes a public charge, and that the name of the relative or friend who has paid for the passage of such alien has been reported to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival. Clearance may be granted upon a list which fails to show the name of any alien employed on board the vessel at the time of her departure from a foreign port or place if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk shall have made oath before the collector of customs that such alien was left behind on account of illness, and that the vessel has been detained at the port of departure for a period sufficient to cover such time, and that the amount of money deposited with the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival is sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor to defray the expenses of such alien in case he becomes a public charge, and that the name of the relative or friend who has paid for the passage of such alien has been reported to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival. Clearance may be granted upon a list which fails to show the name of any alien employed on board the vessel at the time of her departure from a foreign port or place if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk shall have made oath before the collector of customs that such alien was left behind on account of illness, and that the vessel has been detained at the port of departure for a period sufficient to cover such time, and that the amount of money deposited with the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival is sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor to defray the expenses of such alien in case he becomes a public charge, and that the name of the relative or friend who has paid for the passage of such alien has been reported to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival. Clearance may be granted upon a list which fails to show the name of any alien employed on board the vessel at the time of her departure from a foreign port or place if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk shall have made oath before the collector of customs that such alien was left behind on account of illness, and that the vessel has been detained at the port of departure for a period sufficient to cover such time, and that the amount of money deposited with the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival is sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor to defray the expenses of such alien in case he becomes a public charge, and that the name of the relative or friend who has paid for the passage of such alien has been reported to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival.

(d) Proof shall be made by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk before the collector of customs that the vessel has been searched before departure and that no aliens were found secreted on board. Such proof shall consist of the affidavit of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk, and such search shall be made in the presence of a customs officer, who shall join in the affidavit.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien secured a clearance or who entered the United States by means of fraudulent papers, and such alien cannot be deported because of inability to secure a ship to carry him to the country to which he is entitled to be deported, or because of the refusal of the country to which he is entitled to be deported to receive him, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk who secured such clearance or who brought such alien to the United States shall pay to the Secretary of Labor $1,000 for each alien secured clearance in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the Secretary of Labor as to the amount to be paid, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of such sum, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof to the collector of customs.

(f) Every master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk who shall refuse to report, or who shall conceal or secrete, or assist in concealing or secreting, any alien who may be found on board of such vessel after she has been reported clear, or who shall refuse to give information in relation to the same to any person authorized to board such vessel, or to any collector of customs or immigrant inspector, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such refusal is made, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(g) Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk who shall refuse or neglect to report, or who shall conceal, or assist in concealing, any stowaway, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 for each stowaway concerning whom such refusal is made, or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(h) Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk who shall refuse or neglect to report, or who shall conceal, or assist in concealing, any alien who may be found on board of such vessel after she has been reported clear, or who shall refuse to give information in relation to the same to any person authorized to board such vessel, or to any collector of customs or immigrant inspector, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such refusal is made, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless specific provision is made in the appropriation act for the expenses of such alien seaman from the United States.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any person who shall cause any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspection of such seamen (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), and to the immigration officer at the port of departure such seamen on board such vessel such inspection or to deport such seamen if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located and such seamen to the immigration officer at the port of departure a sum sufficient to cover such time, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof to the collector of customs.

(b) Every master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk who shall refuse to report, or who shall conceal or secrete, or assist in concealing or secreting, any alien seaman on board such vessel after she has been reported by the master to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or who shall refuse to give information in relation to the same to any person authorized to board such vessel, or to any collector of customs or immigrant inspector, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such refusal is made, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien secured a clearance or who entered the United States by means of fraudulent papers, and such alien cannot be deported because of inability to secure a ship to carry him to the country to which he is entitled to be deported, or because of the refusal of the country to which he is entitled to be deported to receive him, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk who secured such clearance or who brought such alien to the United States shall pay to the Secretary of Labor $1,000 for each alien secured clearance in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the Secretary of Labor as to the amount to be paid, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of such sum, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof to the collector of customs.

(d) Proof shall be made by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk before the collector of customs that the vessel has been searched before departure and that no aliens were found secreted on board. Such proof shall consist of the affidavit of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk, and such search shall be made in the presence of a customs officer, who shall join in the affidavit.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien secured a clearance or who entered the United States by means of fraudulent papers, and such alien cannot be deported because of inability to secure a ship to carry him to the country to which he is entitled to be deported, or because of the refusal of the country to which he is entitled to be deported to receive him, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or manifest clerk who secured such clearance or who brought such alien to the United States shall pay to the Secretary of Labor $1,000 for each alien secured clearance in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the Secretary of Labor as to the amount to be paid, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of such sum, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof to the collector of customs.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector, boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest shall be delivered by the master of the vessel (Form 528) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of vessels in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position that respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and when and where they are to be discharged in the port of arrival; or, if said vessel is bound to some other port in the United States, then at such port; or, if said vessel is bound to a foreign port, then at such port, and such lists shall contain as much as such information officer may require, as soon as practicable, all cases in which vessels arrive at any port in the United States from any foreign port: Provided, however, That upon arrival at the first port of arrival in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer at such port a complete list containing the names of all persons employed thereon at the time of the arrival of such vessel at such port, and also a list of all persons who may have been employed on such vessel and discharged in any foreign port or place at which such vessel may have touched on the way to such port of arrival, and such lists shall contain such information as may be required by such immigration officer, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs or other officer authorized to grant clearance papers until the master thereof has delivered to such collector of customs a certificate to the effect that all such lists required by this section have been delivered as herein provided, and that the same are true and correct lists to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that no person required to be listed therein has been omitted therefrom, and that no false statements have been made in such lists for the purpose of preventing the detention on board or the landing in the United States of any alien who is not entitled to admission under the provisions of this Act or any other law or treaty now or hereafter in force regulating the admission of aliens into the United States, and that no person has been or will be granted a landing certificate or a permit to go on board any vessel for the purpose of bringing any passengers to the United States who have been refused admission to the United States, or who have been ordered deported from the United States and have not left the United States or obtained the permission of the Secretary of Labor to reapply for admission, and that no passenger has been or will be allowed to depart from such vessel in the United States who has been ordered by the Secretary of Labor to be detained in the United States for hearing, unless a landing certificate or permit has been granted to such passenger by the Secretary of Labor or by such person or persons as he may designate for the purpose, and that no passenger has been or will be taken on board such vessel who has been ordered deported from the United States until a certificate has been obtained from the Secretary of Labor that such person may be allowed to depart from the United States, and that no person has been or will be concealed on board such vessel for the purpose of avoiding detention or examination by the immigration officers at any port of arrival, and that the master will cooperate with the immigration officers in the examination of all persons on board prior to the departure of such vessel from any port in the United States. The list or manifest shall be prepared and delivered in such form and contain such other information concerning each alien as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and such additional lists or manifests shall be prepared and delivered at such time and such ports as the Secretary of Labor may require. Upon the refusal of any master to deliver such lists, or to prepare and deliver such additional lists or manifests as required, or upon the refusal of any master to deliver to any immigration officer any and all information in his possession concerning any alien who is ordered deported from the United States, such master shall pay to the collector of customs the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of the district in which the port is located while such default continues. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of Labor, by and with the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is located, to prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this section, including the determination of the head tax to be paid by masters of vessels for aliens who may be passengers on such vessels, and the refunding of such head tax in the event such alien is refused admission to the United States, and the commutation of the head tax in the case of aliens employed on such vessels who are in transit through the United States to foreign countries, and the refunding of such head tax in the event such alien is prevented from landing in the United States for any cause other than sickness or disability existing prior to the time of the vessel's departure from the foreign port. Whoever shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws shall be employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless security is given to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien will not become a public charge, and the cost of maintenance and treatment while in the United States will be paid, nor shall any such seaman be granted a landing certificate or permit to go on board any vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to its determination on such deposit or payment of such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or with such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a similar effect made by the master of such vessel, and such report shall be admissible as evidence in any proceeding for the deportation of such alien seaman.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such assurance by the master of such vessel, such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense is paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, ... of the ..... do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew properly in said vessel from and port or place quoted per present voyage. I have noted the copy of section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 20 Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

Master, First or Second Officer.

Sworn to before me this ..... day of ..... 19..

Immigrant Inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival. The list of changes of alien members (Form 598) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien departing seaman is at a "motorway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the gang, company, mess and where they were respectively paid or entered, and specifying those who do not belong in the port of arrival; or state contrary to such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, forthwith any such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired and who subsequently deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to so deliver either of the lists aforesaid, he shall be jointly and severally liable to a penalty of $120 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, or a true report is not made as aforesaid, if required by the Secretary of Labor, but no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains pending not to exceed the amount so deposited.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 32 of said act, unless good cause be shown, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such temporary as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (which term shall include a person to whom such alien seaman has been assigned), who shall employ on board any such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who shall employ on board any such seaman on board such vessel such inspection or to do (a) deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of such sum or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall desert or remain in the United States beyond the time for which he was granted permission to land, shall be deported as provided in this Act, and shall be deported on the vessel on which he arrived, unless the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such seaman has been lawfully discharged and has been granted a landing permit by the proper immigration officer, or that the cost of the maintenance while detained, and the expense of his deportation, shall have been paid, or that a sufficient sum has been deposited with the collector of customs to pay such cost and expense, and that such vessel is otherwise entitled to clearance. Every such seaman who shall be deported shall be deported to the country whence he came, at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, or of the owner thereof, if practicable, or if not practicable, then at the expense of the United States, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel while any seaman who has been ordered deported is detained on board thereof, unless security satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor has been given for the removal of such seaman.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is otherwise entitled to clearance, will cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes to alien members of crews (Form 080) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the alien's country, what nationality they were respectively alien employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the alien's country, what nationality they were respectively entered on outward, and specifying those so to be held on discharged in the port of arrival; to list containing no names of aliens shall also be delivered by the master, agent, consignee, or master to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival before any such vessel shall be granted clearance; and the master of every such vessel shall, before obtaining such clearance, deliver to the collector of customs a certificate that the provisions of this section have been complied with. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver to the proper immigration officer at the time of the departure of such vessel from any port of the United States any list required by this section, or who refuses or neglects to report, list, detain, or deliver any alien on board such vessel when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor or any person authorized by him to make such demand, or who obstructs or hinders the proper execution of the provisions of this section regarding the same, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance while in default. Any person who knowingly secures or attempts to secure the landing of any alien in violation of this section, or who knowingly aids or abets any alien to land in violation of this section, or who knowingly harbors any alien who has landed in violation of this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 39. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (except one liable to detain on board vessel under section 16) with any alien on board who is liable to be certified by the medical officer at the port of arrival for special inquiry, or who has been certified, or who shall be discovered after such arrival and before the departure of such vessel from such port to be suffering from any mental or physical defect or disease which would be the cause of the exclusion of such alien from the United States, shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien examined in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the liability to the payment thereof upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Fines and liens on alien seamen did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from this or foreign ports, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman on board such vessel and the same shall be recovered from such vessel.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury to such seaman, or because of the refusal of the consular officer to issue a visa to such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, other than an inspected vessel carrying only alien seamen employed on such vessel, shall pay the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by such immigration officer or the medical examiners), or to any alien on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, a bond in the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien, an alien seaman who did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any alien seaman who has been reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport with such vessel, and the burden of proof shall be upon such alien or such seaman to show that he was unable to depart with such vessel because he was prevented from so doing by sickness or injury or was detained by the immigration officers for the purpose of giving testimony in connection with the prosecution of any person charged with violating the provisions of this section, or was otherwise unable to depart with such vessel, or that the master of such vessel refused to permit such alien or such seaman to depart on such vessel.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel would cause undue hardship to such seamen he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which the Secretary of Labor may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the allowance of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or departing from the United States, shall, before the departure, remove, or cause the removal of any alien from on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or the alien is detained as an alien seaman on board after such inspection or to depart such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver or deport alien seaman pursuant to the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as may be required by regulations prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has fallen ill or died on board, stating the name, age, sex, nationality, and last place of residence of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his identification; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to the apprehension of any such alien who may illegally land from the vessel, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of all other persons who have been employed on board after such inspection or to depart such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver or deport alien seaman pursuant to the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at boarding vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of charges of alien members of crews (from C&S) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Allan Hall Wilson, of the United States, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 30, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury requiring hospital treatment, or on account of the vessel's sailing before the expiration of such alien's time of service, unless such alien seaman furnishes a bond with sufficient surety to insure the payment thereof to the collector of customs.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States, or any person who knowingly or willfully aids or abets any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival have inspected such seaman (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), and thereof duly issued a certificate to the master of such vessel that such inspection or to a deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such alien upon the demand of the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below of persons on board your vessel is required by the Department of Labor for delivery to the Immigration inspector at the port of arrival. The list of changes or additions mentioned below must be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. When no additions are to be reported, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 583) shall be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port.—When an additional manifest is required, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That from and after the expiration of three months after the passage of this Act no person of the following classes shall be admitted into the United States: Persons who can not read and write the English language or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew or Yiddish: Provided, That any admissible alien or any person admissible as a United States citizen who can read and write his own language or dialect may bring with him a relative or friend who can read and write such language or dialect, unless such relative or friend is excluded from admission into the United States under the provisions of this Act: And provided further, That nothing contained in this section shall exempt from the operation thereof persons who are otherwise admissible as readers and writers who can read and write the English language or some other language or dialect, and who have resided in the United States or coming to the United States at the time of the passage of this Act for a period of five years or more, or who are the parents, grandparents, husbands, wives, children, brothers, or sisters of persons so admissible and residing in the United States: And provided further, That for the purpose of ascertaining the admissibility of any alien coming or attempting to come into the United States, the Secretary of Labor shall cause to be conducted such investigation of the cases of such aliens as he may deem necessary, which investigation may be conducted either before or after the arrival of such aliens at ports of the United States, and shall have access to all privately or publicly owned vessels, trains, or other conveyances arriving at such ports for the purpose of such investigation, and shall have power to administer oaths to such aliens and to any witnesses testifying in such cases, and to require the production of books, papers, and documents touching the right of such aliens to enter the United States, and to make such decision as to the admissibility of any alien concerned as shall be specified in rules and regulations or orders not inconsistent with this Act which may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, which rules, regulations, and orders shall have the force and effect of law.

SEC. 36. That any alien who by reason of any of the provisions of this Act is excluded from admission into the United States shall be immediately deported in accordance with the provisions of section 19 of this Act: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be held to prevent the transportation in connection with any such alien of his wife and minor children who may not be excluded from admission to the United States, and who may accompany, or subsequently apply for admission to the United States.

SEC. 37. That the decision of the Secretary of Labor to admit or deport any alien shall be final, except that any alien who is excluded from admission to the United States by the decision of an immigrant inspector may appeal from such decision to a board of special inquiry, which shall be composed of three immigrant inspectors, and the decision of a majority of such board shall be final, except that the Secretary of Labor shall have power to reverse the decision of such board or to remand any case for further hearing before such board. Such appeal shall be taken within such time and under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Pending the decision on such appeal the alien shall be detained in the custody of the immigration officials or, in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, released under bond in such amount as may be prescribed by him, conditioned upon the obedience of such alien to the final decision.

SEC. 38. (a) Any person, whether an alien or not, who shall bring into or land in the United States, by any means or in any manner whatsoever, any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000, or both such fine and imprisonment, for each and every such alien so brought in or landed.

(b) Any person, including any transportation company, which shall bring to a port of the United States any alien afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disorders the existence of which is required to be certified by the examining surgeon at the port of embarkation, shall be liable to the United States in the sum of $200 for each and every such alien, which amount may be sued for and recovered by the United States in any court of competent jurisdiction: Provided, That no suit shall be instituted for the recovery of said sum unless the alien in respect of whom the said sum is claimed shall have been certified by the examining surgeon at the port of embarkation as afflicted with such disease or defect at the time of the departure of the vessel from such port: Provided further, That no such suit shall be instituted after the lapse of one year from the date of the arrival of the vessel at the port of arrival.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall be of opinion that any alien has been allowed to land in the United States in violation of law, and that such alien cannot be found or identified for deportation, or that for any reason it is impracticable or inconvenient to deport such alien, the Secretary of Labor shall cause to be paid to the collector of customs of the district in which such alien has been allowed to land the sum of $1,000 for each alien so landed, which amount shall be a lien upon the vessel which brought such alien to the United States, and may be recovered by libel proceedings in the name of the United States in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may be found.

(d) Proof shall be made to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel bringing such alien to the United States from any place outside thereof did not have reason to believe that such alien was being smuggled into the United States, or that the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel has caused to be posted in a conspicuous place on board such vessel, where it may be seen and read by intending passengers, a copy, in the English language, of the provisions of this section, and has delivered to each such passenger a copy, printed in the language of such passenger, of the notice prescribed by section 19 of this Act, and has caused such notice to be posted in each compartment assigned to such passengers, before the departure of such vessel from the last port at which she shall touch before coming to the United States, and has taken from each such passenger a receipt for such notice, which receipt shall be produced upon the demand of any officer of the United States authorized to board and inspect such vessel, and has otherwise complied with such reasonable rules and regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the enforcement of this section, which rules and regulations he is hereby authorized to make and enforce.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall be of opinion that any alien has been allowed to land in the United States in violation of law, and that such alien cannot be found or identified for deportation, or that for any reason it is impracticable or inconvenient to deport such alien, the Secretary of Labor shall cause to be paid to the collector of customs of the district in which such alien has been allowed to land the sum of $1,000 for each alien so landed, which amount shall be a lien upon the vessel which brought such alien to the United States, and may be recovered by libel proceedings in the name of the United States in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may be found.

(f) Proof shall be made to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel has complied fully with all the requirements of the immigration laws before the departure of such vessel from the last foreign port or place from which she sailed for the United States, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers or the equivalent thereof until the master thereof has produced to the collector of customs for the district in which such vessel is documented a certificate from the Secretary of Labor that the master has complied fully with the requirements of the immigration laws.

(g) Any person who knowingly forges, counterfeits, alters, or falsely makes any certificate or paper issued or required by any of the provisions of this Act, or any copy thereof, or knowingly uses or attempts to use any such certificate or paper, or any such copy, the forged, counterfeited, altered, or falsely made certificate or paper or copy thereof, or knowingly sells to, or exchanges with, or delivers to, or knowingly possesses with intent to sell to, exchange with, or deliver to any alien any such certificate or paper, or any such copy, the forged, counterfeited, altered, or falsely made certificate or paper or copy thereof, or personates the owner, agent, consignee, or charterer to whom any such certificate or paper has been issued, or, for the purpose of procuring the issuance of any such certificate or paper, or any such copy, knowingly makes any false statement under oath, shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and shall forever thereafter be incapable of obtaining any certificate or paper hereunder or of exercising any privilege thereunder.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel that has failed to file the manifest required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, nor shall clearance be granted by section 36 of the Act prescribed by rule 23 until the master has complied with the requirements of the administrative acts prescribed by rule 25 and 26 hereof.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 21. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws of the United States, except temporarily for hospital treatment, or because of sickness or injury incurred after his arrival in the United States, may be permitted to land in the United States, except upon such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and no such seaman employed on board any vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall have been notified of the intention of such seaman to land, and such seaman shall have been inspected by such immigration officer or by such other officer as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor for the purpose.

SEC. 25. (a) Any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States from any place outside thereof (other than foreign contiguous territory) any alien seaman (whether an inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or any alien seaman who has been refused a landing money by the master of the vessel, shall be required to pay a tax of $8.00 for each such alien seaman. Such tax shall be a lien upon the vessel, and shall be collected by the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located and the same shall be paid to the Secretary of Labor or to any collector of customs or other officer designated by him for the purpose, and shall be deposited by the Treasurer of the United States to the credit of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers while the certificate of payment of such tax, or of the equivalent thereof, is withheld, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the question of liability to payment of such tax, or while the case is pending on appeal, upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof shall be made to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel has complied fully with the requirements of the immigration laws before the departure of such vessel from the last foreign port or place from which she sailed for the United States, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers or the equivalent thereof until the master thereof has produced to the collector of customs for the district in which such vessel is documented a certificate from the Secretary of Labor that the master has complied fully with the requirements of the immigration laws.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall be of opinion that any alien has been allowed to land in the United States in violation of law, and that such alien cannot be found or identified for deportation, or that for any reason it is impracticable or inconvenient to deport such alien, the Secretary of Labor shall cause to be paid to the collector of customs of the district in which such alien has been allowed to land the sum of $1,000 for each alien so landed, which amount shall be a lien upon the vessel which brought such alien to the United States, and may be recovered by libel proceedings in the name of the United States in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may be found.

The list described below of persons on board your vessel is required by the Department of Labor for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port of arrival. EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board in the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens shall be delivered in the port of arrival; and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed as the time of the arrival and the time of the departure of the vessel; and if any such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall fail to deliver any list herein required, or shall deliver an incomplete list, he shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, or a fine thereof is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located until the fine and all charges against the vessel have been paid or sufficient security therefor given, or a bond furnished sufficient to cover such fine, or it a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof has been approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States may be made by the certificate of the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such alien seaman on board such vessel at the time of departure, and shall be sufficient cause for the withholding of clearance papers from such vessel.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act therein been waived, the deposit specified in rule 55 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or treatment in a hospital, or because of illness certified by the medical officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), found two thirds to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such liability to the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States may be made by the certificate of the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such alien seaman on board such vessel at the time of departure, and shall be sufficient cause for the withholding of clearance papers from such vessel.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, ——Adam Cederberg—— of the ——Gothenburg—— do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly on said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the coby of section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, entered from subdivision B, rule 7, and coby of sections 13 and 50, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

——Master, First or Second Officer.

Sworn to before me this ——25——day of ——May——, 1925

——Immigrant Inspector.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

FEB. 5. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been verified, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative officer prescribed by said section 36 of said Act, and not until a period of 24 hours has elapsed after the deposits prescribed in rule 23 have been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness of such seaman, or for the purpose of obtaining treatment as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board the said vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board until such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or who shall depart in violation of the provisions of section 18 of this Act, and who has not been granted clearance nunc pro tunc by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act. The cost of maintenance of any alien seaman pending his departure from the United States, and the cost of his deportation, shall be a lien against the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 583) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes or alien members of crews (Form 588) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on the ship's arrival at the port of arrival: or lists containing as much of such information as may be required by regulations prescribed: but alien members of the crew of such vessel may be allowed to land temporarily at such port as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulations prescribe: but the master of the vessel shall be liable to a fine of not more than $10 for each alien so landed from the vessel, except a member of the crew who has been employed on the vessel when it shall be at the port of arrival, and who is destined to some foreign port and intends to depart in the vessel on which he arrived: Provided, That the master of any vessel may, in case of the illness of such crew member, agent, consignee, or master so to declare either of the aforesaid lists, if such be the fact, before the departure of such vessel from the port, and in such case such vessel may depart from such port without the inclusion in such list of the name of such alien: Provided further, That the master of any such vessel shall, prior to the departure of such crew member, agent, consignee, or master, deliver to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival a certified list containing the names of all aliens employed upon the vessel at the time of the arrival of the vessel at such port, which list shall be subject to the same inspection and examination by the immigration officers at the port of arrival as is provided in this section for the lists required to be delivered upon the arrival of the vessel at such port: Provided further, That the master of any vessel who shall fail to deliver the lists required by this section, or who shall refuse to allow the immigration officers to board the vessel for the purpose of examining the same, or who shall fail to deliver to the immigration officers any such list found by them to be incorrect, shall pay a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a true report is not made as above required, to be sued for and recovered by the Secretary of Labor, by and in the name of the United States, for the use of the person who shall first inform and prosecute therefor, and shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by process against the vessel in the hands of any consignee thereof: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative officer as prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said act having been served, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or otherwise to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board such vessel, before the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and before such vessel has been granted pratique, a complete and accurate list or manifest of all persons (which inspection it shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to deliver such manifest to the immigration officer at the port of arrival at the time of the arrival of such vessel, shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof thereto approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Front first an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the inspector of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such alien seaman on board the vessel on which he arrived at the time of departure therefrom, unless he or such seaman be able to prove that such failure was occasioned by illness or injury necessitating his removal from such vessel before its departure, and that such vessel left behind a sufficient number of sailors to work her, in charge of a competent officer, and that the Secretary of Labor was notified of such illness or injury and of the intended departure of such vessel before the departure thereof.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived blow cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of the length of time required for the vessel to return to the port of arrival, and such vessel is ready to depart from a port other than the port of arrival, the Secretary of Labor may authorize the deportation of such alien seaman on any vessel sailing for the port of arrival: Provided, That sufficient bond to guarantee the return of such alien seaman to the port of arrival shall be furnished by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members (Form 598) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens who are to be landed at that port, and such other lists or parts of lists as relate to aliens who are not to be landed at that port, which lists shall be prepared in the form prescribed by the Secretary of Labor: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may in his discretion require the preparation and delivery of such lists in connection with the entry of any vessel or class of vessels: Provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel bringing an alien who is not in possession of an unexpired immigration visa, if such visa is required by this Act, or other document required by this Act, or who is not in possession of a valid passport, if a passport be required by the regulations hereinafter provided for, shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 in addition to any other penalty prescribed by this Act: And provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel bringing an alien who is afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 in addition to any other penalty prescribed by this Act, unless it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that said alien had been detained and treated for such disease prior to the departure of said vessel from a foreign port or place, or that said disease was subsequently contracted by said alien while in quarantine: And provided further, That no vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of any penalty imposed by this section, but the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, issue a permit for the departure of any vessel from a port pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Every alien arriving at a seaport of the United States from foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent islands, shall be subject to such inspection and examination by the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival as aliens arriving at the seaports of the United States from foreign countries are subject to under the provisions of this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien assumed on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or treatment as such by a recognized hospital, or for burial, but shall be deported as provided in this Act in the same manner as other aliens found unlawfully in the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection shall in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or to deliver such seaman to the immigration officer for special inspection if so required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, or to report such seaman in respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not appear upon the contract manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, to land as a seaman, shall be reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of the provisions of section 16 of this Act, and shall be deported as provided in this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been transmitted, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fines prescribed by section 35 of said Act remains open, except that deposits specified in rule 23 have been made.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 598) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board when discharged in the port of arrival; to place coordinate to which or such vessel is destined, and such other information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and upon the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who shall thereafter ship, sign, or in any manner join the vessel at any port or place in the United States or elsewhere, and to report to such officer the names of those who have been hired on and discharged, and the cause of their discharge. It shall be the duty of the master of every such vessel to deliver to such immigration officer, at the time of the departure of the vessel from each port in the United States, a list containing the names of all persons employed on board such vessel who are not citizens of the United States, and full information concerning each such person, his occupation, residence, and destination, and such other information as may be required by such officer for the purpose of properly enforcing the immigration laws. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver any list required of him by this section, or who refuses to answer any question put to him by any such officer concerning any person on board such vessel who is not a citizen of the United States, or who refuses to permit any such officer to go on board such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the list of passengers and crew thereof, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the liens imposed by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been satisfied, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act having been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury requiring hospital treatment, or to secure his safe transportation to such alien's foreign residence: and no such alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), to who shall be detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear now the onlicing immigrant of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from which place outside thereof, or that he was refunded by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport alien seaman by reason of which fine was remitted unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 632) shall not be destroyed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alleged "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether those so to be hired or discharged in the port of arrival or lists containing so much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and until the vessel shall be cleared it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who thereafter joined the vessel, and the reasons for the non-employment of such persons. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section 70 to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act unless the deposit specified in rule 35 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (other than Canada or Mexico) shall pay a head tax of $8 for each alien seaman employed on such vessel (with the exception of (1) a persona bona fide member of the crew who is a citizen of the country under the flag of which the vessel sails, and who is employed in any capacity on board thereof, and (2) a person who has been admitted into the United States and who is employed on board the vessel in which he arrived, and who is destined to the port at which he shall land from such vessel, and who has been inspected by the immigration officer at the port of arrival and has been certified by him to the Secretary of Labor), which head tax shall be paid to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located (the sum so collected to be accounted for as other moneys received from passengers), except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the liability to payment of such tax, or while the case is pending, upon the deposit of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or of such deposit in lieu thereof, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the territory of the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was refused by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of the provisions of this section by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, unless such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien seaman (1) has been duly discharged in the United States with the consent of the Secretary of Labor, or (2) has been prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury, or (3) has been imprisoned, or (4) has died.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, [illegible], of the [illegible], do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place quoting net, present voyage. IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members and of crews (Form 588) shall not be retained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "nonexempt" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the nationals deported, removed, or otherwise departed from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who fails to deposit on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspection of such alien, or who fails to report the illness or hospitalization of such alien seaman, or who fails to detain on board any alien seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or shall be left behind by such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a failure to deliver to the immigrant inspector at such port the certificate issued by the master of such vessel upon the departure of such alien seaman from the United States, unless such alien seaman has been duly accounted for by the master in the manner provided by section 16 of this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived will cause undue hardship to such alien seamen, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, seamen, employed on such vessel, including the positions they temporarily hold in the ports a company, when and where they were respectively engaged, and the nationality of such seamen, and the nationality of the port of departure of each of them; and it shall be the duty of the master of such vessel to report the illness or hospitalization of any such seamen, and the cause thereof, if known, and to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a complete list containing the names of all seamen who have been discharged or who have died on board during the voyage, and the cause of death in each case, and the country of which such deceased seamen were citizens, which list shall be certified to by the master of such vessel, and the failure to deliver such list or to make such report shall be unlawful and punishable as provided in section 16 of this Act. Upon the discovery of any such illegally landed alien seaman, it shall be the duty of the master of such vessel to cause him to be detained on board and to report the case forthwith to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival, and such alien seaman shall be placed in the custody of the master of such vessel until a permit for his landing shall be granted by the Secretary of Labor or by such person or persons as he may designate for the purpose, or until such alien seaman shall be taken before a commissioner of immigration or other officer for examination. Any such alien seaman who shall have been lawfully admitted to the United States shall be entitled to a certificate from the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival setting forth the name, age, and last residence of such alien seaman, and shall be given a reasonable time in which to depart from the United States under the supervision of the master of such vessel, and if such seaman shall depart on the vessel on which he arrived or on any other vessel leaving a port in the same general locality, no tax shall be charged against him under the provisions of section 2 of this Act. Any such seaman who shall desert or who shall remain in the United States in excess of the time allowed for his departure shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have been admitted to the United States. Any master who shall fail to report the illness or hospitalization of any alien seaman, or to deliver to the immigrant inspector the certificate required by this section to be delivered to such seaman, or who shall fail to detain any alien seaman when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall refuse to pay any fine imposed upon him by the Secretary of Labor under authority of this section, shall pay a penalty of $500 for each such offense, for which sum the vessel shall also be liable. The Secretary of Labor shall have a lien upon the vessel to secure the payment of such fines and penalties, and for the purpose of such lien may libel the vessel in any district court of the United States within the district in which she may be found. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel while any fine imposed upon the master thereof under the provisions of this section remains unpaid, or while the master against whom such fine has been imposed is within the United States, but this provision shall not prevent the master from obtaining clearance for the vessel upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover the amount of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, the vessel may be libeled therefor in the district court of the United States within the district in which she may be found. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel while the fine remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been tendered: And provided, That such fees unless notice of illegality to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to limit prescribed by section 35 of said Act, shall not be refunded upon refund, the deposit specified in rule 55 has been made.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector portside the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall not be delivered to the master of the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (888 shall not be detained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port." When an arriving seaman is a "MOTHMAN," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, commander, or consignee of the vessel to deliver to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively applied to engage in the service, and specifying those of the same who have been discharged and the cause of their discharge; and it shall be the duty of the master of any vessel bringing aliens to the United States from foreign contiguous territory to deliver to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens who may be on board such vessel, stating the nationality, last residence, and destination of each of such aliens, and such information shall be subscribed by the master of such vessel under oath administered by any officer of the United States authorized to administer oaths for immigration purposes; and any master who knowingly fails to lead to his disembarkation in a foreign port any alien who may have been refused admission into the United States, or who fails to deliver to any such alien a certificate of the payment of a head tax imposed by law, or who knowingly lands any such alien at any port in the United States, except in case of stress of weather or other unavoidable accident, or who lands or permits to land any such alien at any time or place not designated by the proper immigration officer, or who violates any of the provisions of this section relating to the number of aliens to be carried in proportion to the tonnage of the vessel, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien in respect to whom any violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the payment of any head tax imposed by this section, or of the question whether any alien has been landed or allowed to land contrary to the provisions of this section, and in case of the refusal of the master to pay any head tax due by him, the same may be sued for and recovered by the collector of customs, and shall be a lien upon the vessel which may be enforced by the libel process in any court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof, and such vessel may be detained by the collector of customs until the question of the payment of such head tax has been determined and the tax paid or secured to be paid, or such vessel released by order of the Secretary of the Treasury. The Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may recommend for the enforcement of the provisions of this section, and shall report to Congress at the beginning of each regular session thereof a full statement of all moneys received or collected under this section, and the names of the persons from whom such moneys shall have been received or collected.

SEC. 37. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel making entry in the United States from any place outside thereof to which such vessel regularly plies solely for the purpose of taking on board additional alien passengers at such place, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such emergencies as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the enjoyment of shore leave not to exceed in any case five days, any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall have determined such seaman (which determination in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), to be admissible to the United States, and has granted to such seaman a landing certificate, valid for such period of time as the Secretary of Labor may by regulations prescribe, but not longer than the vessel will remain in port. Such certificate may be revoked by the Secretary of Labor at any time and the alien to whom granted removed from the United States in the manner provided for the removal of aliens who have entered unlawfully. Any alien granted shore leave who shall remain beyond the period specified in his certificate shall be deported as provided in this Act, unless subsequently lawfully admitted to the United States, and any master, owner, agent, charterer, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse to receive on board such alien upon the departure of such vessel from the United States shall pay a penalty of $500 for each such alien, and such vessel may be seized and held as security for the payment of such penalty. Any alien who fails to depart from the United States upon the termination of the period specified in his certificate shall be deported as provided in this Act, and any master, owner, agent, charterer, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse to receive such alien on board such vessel and depart therewith shall pay a penalty of $500 for each such alien, and such vessel may be seized and held as security for the payment of such penalty. Any alien who fails to depart from the United States upon the termination of the period specified in his certificate shall be deported as provided in this Act, and any master, owner, agent, charterer, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse to receive such alien on board such vessel and depart therewith shall pay a penalty of $500 for each such alien, and such vessel may be seized and held as security for the payment of such penalty.

(b) Upon the arrival of any vessel with alien seamen employed thereon at any port of the United States the master, agent, owner, charterer, or consignee of such vessel shall deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port a list or manifest containing the name of each alien seaman employed on such vessel, his nationality, last permanent residence, the port at which he was engaged, the capacity in which he is employed on the vessel, and such other information relative to such seamen as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. Any alien seaman employed on such vessel who fails to appear on the list or manifest may be required to establish to the satisfaction of the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival that he was employed on such vessel, and if he fails to establish such employment to the satisfaction of such officer he may be refused a landing certificate and deported as provided in this Act. Any master, owner, agent, charterer, or consignee of any vessel who fails to deliver such list or manifest, or who delivers a list or manifest which does not correctly record the information required by this section to be recorded thereon concerning each alien seaman employed on such vessel, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such alien concerning whom such incorrect record is made, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(c) The Secretary of Labor shall have the power to enter into contracts with transportation lines for the conveyance, maintenance, and medical treatment, pending examination, of alien seamen who become ill while in the United States and who cannot be promptly discharged from the vessel on which they arrive, and for the return of such aliens to the countries to which they belong or from which they came, and for the burial in such countries of such aliens as may die while in the United States, and to make such contracts with masters, owners, agents, charterers, or consignees of vessels bringing alien seamen to the United States as may be necessary to secure the proper care, maintenance, and return of such seamen, and to guarantee the performance of such contracts by such masters, owners, agents, charterers, or consignees.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived or on some other vessel within the period specified by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or within such further time as may be granted by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported as provided in this Act, and the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation shall be borne by the master, owner, agent, charterer, or consignee of the vessel on which he arrived.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seamen he may cause them to be returned to the United States on such vessel or on any other vessel within a period of four months from the date of their deportation, and such seamen shall not be granted admission to the United States during such period except in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has been employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such emergencies as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the enjoyment of shore leave not to exceed in any case five days, any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of deportation of such alien seaman has been notified of the arrival of such seaman and has granted to such seaman a landing certificate, valid for such period of time as the Secretary of Labor may by regulations prescribe, but not longer than the vessel will remain in port. Such certificate may be revoked by the Secretary of Labor at any time and the alien to whom granted removed from the United States in the manner provided for the removal of aliens who have entered unlawfully. Any alien granted shore leave who shall remain beyond the period specified in his certificate shall be deported as provided in this Act, unless subsequently lawfully admitted to the United States, and any master, owner, agent, charterer, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse to receive on board such alien upon the departure of such vessel from the United States shall pay a penalty of $500 for each such alien, and such vessel may be seized and held as security for the payment of such penalty. Any alien who fails to depart from the United States upon the termination of the period specified in his certificate shall be deported as provided in this Act, and any master, owner, agent, charterer, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse to receive such alien on board such vessel and depart therewith shall pay a penalty of $500 for each such alien, and such vessel may be seized and held as security for the payment of such penalty.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished by section or to that prescribed by section 38 of the Act of May 26, 1924, unless notice of inability to do so has been received by the collector of customs from the immigration officer at the port of arrival, but no clearance shall be granted to any vessel which has failed to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form 888) shall not be detained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival, and no vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the payment of any head tax imposed by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and no vessel which has been granted clearance shall be required to return to the anchorage or berth it occupied before such clearance was granted for the purpose of landing any alien seaman who may have been left behind when such vessel departed, but such seaman may be returned on such vessel or on any other vessel arriving at the port of departure within four months from the date of such departure, if the master, owner, agent, charterer, or consignee of such vessel shall pay the cost of the maintenance of such seaman while detained and of his deportation, and if the vessel on which he arrived, while it remains within the jurisdiction of the United States, is found to be unseaworthy, or if the master, owner, agent, charterer, or consignee of such vessel shall satisfy the Secretary of Labor that the refusal of such seaman to return on such vessel was due to cruelty practiced upon him or to the existence on board such vessel of unsanitary conditions, or that such seaman has a definite offer of employment on board another vessel sailing to the United States within a reasonable time, and that the interests of the United States will not be prejudiced by the admission of such seaman, the Secretary of Labor may cause such seaman to be admitted to the United States for such time and under such conditions as he may prescribe, notwithstanding the provisions of section 3 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and the master, owner, agent, charterer, or consignee of such vessel shall not be required to pay the cost of such seaman's maintenance while detained or of his deportation.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry (or, at a port where there is no immigrant inspector, the customs officer) has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs or the customs district in which such port is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof shall be taken as often as may be necessary to establish the identity of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was deported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be printed on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be in his hands before he takes from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members here of crew (Form 583) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.—When an alternate address is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all alien employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's country, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and description thereof to be kept by and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing as much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and alien members of the crew of any such vessel shall be listed by the master at the time of the arrival of such vessel at a port of the United States and before the departure of such vessel from such port, and such lists shall be subject to the same inspection by the immigration officer of the Secretary of Labor. Any owner, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel who refuses to deliver to the officer a true list containing the names of those, if any, who have been hired on and discharged, and of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival of such vessel, and who refuses to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of those, if any, who have been hired on and discharged, and of all alien members of the crew of such vessel, giving a description of each alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of each owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of such departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired on and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or died; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid all alien members of such vessel shall be detained on board thereof at the discretion of the immigration officer, and such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be cleared while it remains unduly detained by the immigration officer on account of any of the provisions of this section. Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been collected, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fund prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 33 of said Act, shall have been waived, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

The list described below shall be printed on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector possessing the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 524) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "motorman," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or entered, and absolutely refusing those to be landed who shall thereafter be found in the port of arrival; or have contrary to the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Labor shall be immediately deported to the country whence they came at the expense of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel in which they arrived, and such vessel shall be liable to a further like contribution for the support of such alien, to be recovered with the costs of suit: Provided, That if any such alien shall make it appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not have knowledge or reasonable grounds for belief that the person was an alien likely to become a public charge, or was afflicted with such contagious disease, or had such physical or mental defect as would be the cause of his being excluded from admission to the United States, or was otherwise unlawfully brought into the United States, or that he did not have sufficient opportunity after landing to apply for a special inquiry, he may cause such alien to be returned to the country whence he came, at any time within one year after his entry, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this act.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been duly made, and, in the event such lists be imposed, while it remains during that period, no alien shall be permitted or landed; Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of persons to alien members (from Cuba) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival [here continue as much of said information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; but after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of each owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel to report in writing to such immigration officer, in addition to the information hereinbefore required, the name and nearest known address of every alien, whether a passenger, member of the crew, or stowaway, found on board, and such information as may be required by any such officer concerning the movements of any such alien, whether in the United States or not, before the departure of any such vessel from the port of arrival; or place contiguous to such port of arrival; or place where such alien was first inspected by an immigration officer; and it shall be the duty of each owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel to hold to the order of any such immigration officer any alien employed or who was employed thereon at the time of the arrival of such vessel at such port of arrival, and to furnish such information about such alien as may be required by any such officer. Any such owner, agent, consignee, or master who shall refuse or fail to comply with the requirements of this section, or any rule or regulation made thereunder, or who shall refuse to allow any such officer to enter such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same and the persons thereon, or who shall refuse to answer any question put to him by any such officer touching the right of any person to enter the United States, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each offense. Any such vessel, her tackle, furniture, apparel, boats, and cargo, or a sum equivalent to the value thereof, shall be liable for the payment of any fine imposed upon the master thereof under the provisions of this section, and may be seized and proceeded against summarily by libel in the district court of the district into which she may first enter or arrive, and such vessel shall be released from such seizure upon the payment into court of the amount of such fine or the tendering of a bond in such amount as may be required by such court, conditioned upon the payment of such fine as may be finally imposed therefor by such court. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel for the nonpayment of any fine imposed upon the master thereof under the provisions of this section.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative time prescribed by section 32 of said act remains been served, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States. Upon the certification by the medical officer in charge at the port of arrival that such alien is suffering from any disease, except temporarily or who fails to obtain such seaman's landing certificate, or who is found to be afflicted with any mental disease, or who has been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who is a professional beggar, or who is a vagrant, or who is an anarchist, or who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States, or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates the assassination of public officials, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining, advocating, or teaching any of the doctrines above specified, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization publishing or distributing any printed or written matter advocating or teaching the doctrines above specified, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived, and such option shall be exercised within five years after the entry of such alien. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States during the period of time his vessel is in port, without having been granted a landing certificate, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on board which he arrived, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived, and such option shall be exercised within five years after the entry of such alien. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States during the period of time his vessel is in port, without having been granted a landing certificate, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on board which he arrived, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived, and such option shall be exercised within five years after the entry of such alien. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States during the period of time his vessel is in port, without having been granted a landing certificate, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on board which he arrived, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived, and such option shall be exercised within five years after the entry of such alien. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States during the period of time his vessel is in port, without having been granted a landing certificate, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on board which he arrived, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived, and such option shall be exercised within five years after the entry of such alien. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States during the period of time his vessel is in port, without having been granted a landing certificate, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on board which he arrived, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived, and such option shall be exercised within five years after the entry of such alien. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States during the period of time his vessel is in port, without having been granted a landing certificate, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on board which he arrived, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived, and such option shall be exercised within five years after the entry of such alien.

(a) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States or who shall remain in the United States in violation of law, or who shall not depart with the vessel on board which he arrived, or on some other vessel sailing within a period of five days thereafter, or who shall not depart within such period on any vessel sailing to a foreign port within sixty days thereafter, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived, and such option shall be exercised within five years after the entry of such alien. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States during the period of time his vessel is in port, without having been granted a landing certificate, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on board which he arrived, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived, and such option shall be exercised within five years after the entry of such alien. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States during the period of time his vessel is in port, without having been granted a landing certificate, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on board which he arrived, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived, and such option shall be exercised within five years after the entry of such alien. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States during the period of time his vessel is in port, without having been granted a landing certificate, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on board which he arrived, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived, and such option shall be exercised within five years after the entry of such alien. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States during the period of time his vessel is in port, without having been granted a landing certificate, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on board which he arrived, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived, and such option shall be exercised within five years after the entry of such alien.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the onboard manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or obtain after reimbursement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by such vessel, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

Inspector.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall not be detached from the vessel. The list or manifest of passengers to be delivered to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 598) shall not be detached on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is in possession of a valid "Seaman's" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of a vessel in the United States from the foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be paid off in the port of arrival; to list contraband or opium or other intoxicating liquors found upon the vessel, giving a description of such articles, together with the information likely to lead to his apprehension; the names of all persons who may desert from the vessel at the time of its arrival at the port of the quay or dock where vessel is moored, or at any time before the departure of the said vessel if bound to the United States, or to deliver to such immigration officer such list of the members of the crew as may be required by him; and no such vessel shall be cleared by the collector or other officer of customs until the master thereof has delivered to such immigration officer the lists required by this section, and has subscribed and sworn to the same before such officer. Any master who refuses to deliver such lists, or who knowingly and willfully lands or permits to be landed any alien employed on such vessel at any port in the United States without having delivered to such immigration officer a list containing the name of such alien, or who

SEC. 36. That upon entry of the vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of entry a list containing the name in full of all persons who shall be employed on board the vessel on the date of its entry into the United States, and the nationality, last permanent residence, and intended future disposition of each person who may be employed on board the vessel during her stay in the United States, which list shall be subscribed and sworn to before the immigration officer by the master of the vessel, or by the purser, surgeon, or chief officer when the master is incapacitated by illness or injury from performing the duty, and shall be delivered by the master to the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after entry of the vessel it shall be the duty of each owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel to deliver to the immigration officer in charge of the port a like list containing the names of all persons who may be employed on board the vessel during her stay in the United States, and the nationality, last permanent residence, and intended future disposition of each person who may be employed as aforesaid, which list shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the time of the departure of the vessel from the United States. Any master who knowingly fails to deliver, or willfully delays the delivery of, any list required by this section, or who willfully includes therein the name of any person employed on board the vessel who was not employed thereon at the time of the entry of the vessel into the United States, or who willfully omits from any list required by this section the name of any person employed on board the vessel at the time of the entry of the vessel into the United States, unless the name of such person shall have been stricken from the list by the immigration officer in charge of the port, or who willfully fails to deliver to the Secretary of Labor, or to any officer authorized by him to receive the same, any list required by this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each and every such offense, and shall be imprisoned for not more than one year: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit any fine or any part thereof imposed under the provisions of this section.

(a) If the Secretary of Labor finds that any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place is about to depart from the United States without having first delivered to the immigration officer in charge of the port a list containing the name in full of all persons who may be employed on board the vessel during her stay in the United States, and the nationality, last permanent residence, and intended future disposition of each person who may be employed as aforesaid, and that the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel refuses or neglects to prepare and deliver such list, he may refuse or revoke the clearance of the vessel and detain the vessel at the port until the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel shall have complied with the requirements of this section to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, and in the meantime shall cause a notice to be posted in a conspicuous place on board the vessel specifying the cause for the detention.

(b) Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver to the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival the list required by this section, or who shall refuse or neglect to prepare such list when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall refuse or neglect to answer truthfully and completely to the best of his knowledge any question touching the list or touching the right of any person named therein to enter the United States, or who shall refuse or neglect to detain on board the vessel any person when directed so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall refuse or neglect to deliver to the proper immigrant inspector any person detained on board the vessel when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall refuse or neglect to report and deliver to the proper immigrant inspector any person who may have been left behind by reason of illness or injury, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each and every such offense, and shall be imprisoned for not more than one year: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit any fine or any part thereof imposed under the provisions of this section.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel has been guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of this section, he may refuse clearance to such vessel for the port of destination or any other port, and may cancel the clearance papers of such vessel, and may refuse clearance papers to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, or to any of them, for the same or any other vessel owned in whole or in part by any of them, for a period not exceeding one year.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a justice of the peace, or other officer authorized by the laws of the United States to administer oaths and take depositions, in any part of the United States, that such seaman has deserted, and it shall thereupon be the duty of such justice of the peace, or other officer, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of such deserter, directed to any officer charged with the execution of the laws of the United States, or of any State, Territory, or District thereof, within the district in which he may be found.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel has refused to deliver to the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival the list required by this section, or has refused to answer truthfully and completely to the best of his knowledge any question touching the list or touching the right of any person named therein to enter the United States, or has refused to detain on board the vessel any person when directed so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or has refused to deliver to the proper immigrant inspector any person detained on board the vessel when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or has refused to report and deliver to the proper immigrant inspector any person who may have been left behind by reason of illness or injury, such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall pay to the collector of customs a sum not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of such sum, or any part thereof, with the collector of customs or the furnishing of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(f) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a justice of the peace, or other officer authorized by the laws of the United States to administer oaths and take depositions, in any part of the United States, that such seaman has deserted, and it shall thereupon be the duty of such justice of the peace, or other officer, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of such deserter, directed to any officer charged with the execution of the laws of the United States, or of any State, Territory, or District thereof, within the district in which he may be found.

(g) If the Secretary of Labor finds that any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel has refused to deliver to the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival the list required by this section, or has refused to answer truthfully and completely to the best of his knowledge any question touching the list or touching the right of any person named therein to enter the United States, or has refused to detain on board the vessel any person when directed so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or has refused to deliver to the proper immigrant inspector any person detained on board the vessel when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or has refused to report and deliver to the proper immigrant inspector any person who may have been left behind by reason of illness or injury, such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall pay to the collector of customs a sum not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of such sum, or any part thereof, with the collector of customs or the furnishing of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(h) If the Secretary of Labor finds that any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel has been guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of this section, he may refuse clearance to such vessel for the port of destination or any other port, and may cancel the clearance papers of such vessel, and may refuse clearance papers to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, or to any of them, for the same or any other vessel owned in whole or in part by any of them, for a period not exceeding one year.

(i) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a justice of the peace, or other officer authorized by the laws of the United States to administer oaths and take depositions, in any part of the United States, that such seaman has deserted, and it shall thereupon be the duty of such justice of the peace, or other officer, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of such deserter, directed to any officer charged with the execution of the laws of the United States, or of any State, Territory, or District thereof, within the district in which he may be found.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 9. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such temporary detention as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (which inspected such seaman (which inspection shall in all cases be sufficient examination by the medical officer), and certified that such seaman has been found physically, mentally, and otherwise admissible a personal physical examination by the medical officer), and certified that such seaman has been found physically, mentally, and otherwise admissible under the immigration laws, and shall furnish to the Secretary of Labor, at such time and place as he may require, such information in respect of such seaman as may be required by the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located (or in case such seaman arrives at a point not a port of entry, then to the collector of customs of the customs district in which such point is located) $17.00 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of such sum, or any part thereof, with the collector of customs or the furnishing of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a justice of the peace, or other officer authorized by the laws of the United States to administer oaths and take depositions, in any part of the United States, that such seaman has deserted, and it shall thereupon be the duty of such justice of the peace, or other officer, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of such deserter, directed to any officer charged with the execution of the laws of the United States, or of any State, Territory, or District thereof, within the district in which he may be found.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel has been guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of this section, he may refuse clearance to such vessel for the port of destination or any other port, and may cancel the clearance papers of such vessel, and may refuse clearance papers to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, or to any of them, for the same or any other vessel owned in whole or in part by any of them, for a period not exceeding one year and may refuse clearance papers to any vessel on account of the refusal of the master to deliver the list required by this section or to answer truthfully and completely to the best of his knowledge any question touching the list or touching the right of any person named therein to enter the United States, or on account of the refusal of the master to detain on board the vessel any person when directed so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or on account of the refusal of the master to deliver to the proper immigrant inspector any person detained on board the vessel when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or on account of the refusal of the master to report and deliver to the proper immigrant inspector any person who may have been left behind by reason of illness or injury, until such time as the Secretary of Labor may direct. When an alien seaman has been granted clearance and has left the United States, any expense that need be paid to effect payment subsequently to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according on separate manifests immigrants who are defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also according on separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class but who do not immigrate, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and those who were seen by the master, commanding officer, or surgeon to be so-called contract class, whose alien penalties for the initials of fascimile signatures, and those who were seen by the master, commanding officer, or surgeon to be members of the same family group, even though they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate lines should be used on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Line of ship).—The name of vessel, voyage, or flight of ship should be entered in every column.

Column 2 (Sex).—The name of the alien (name) or F (female).

Column 3 (Married or single).—The terms should be entered as follows: M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 4 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arrival, as, for example: Civil engineer, mechanical engineer, locomotive engineer, marine engineer, mining engineer, steam engineer, steel engineer, iron molder, boom tender, etc., and not simply as engineer, laborer, molder, farmer, or other indefinite designations.

The distinction should be made between permanent and temporary residence. If it is important to establish temporary and accidental residence independent of country of permanent residence, country to which, and so forth.

Column 6 (Age).—The terms in this column should be extremely in every or month, for infant under one year of age. Under 1 year to read 1 month.

Column 8 (Married or single).—The terms should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 9 (Nationality).—Operation 9 should be construed to mean the country of which citizen or subject.

The entry should be made as race or people as given in this list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country to that permanent residence, and country to which to pitch, and "France" by race or nationality. The terms "France" and "French" by race do not mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race might be citizen of any country in the world. In this connection the following distinctions should be especially observed:

CAUTION

TERM INDIAN

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Canada or Mexico.

NATIVE AMERICAN

"Aboriginal American" refers to the people of Central and South America of Aboriginal descent.

NEGRO

"Negro" refers to the African (black), whether coming from Cuba or other islands of the West Indies, North or South America, Europe, or Africa. The alien with admixture of blood of the African (black) should be classified under this heading.

Column 12 (Name of document presented).—Every alien should present to the document prescribed by the Immigration Act of 1924, and also the following documents with regard to quota immigrants: Passport, Nonquota Immigration Visa, Immigration Visa, Transportation Visa, or Reentry Permit; and also state section of the Immigration Act of 1924 involved, as a section 4 (a).

Column 13.—The question has reference to the place and date of issue of the document described in column 12, and is self-explanatory.

Column 16 (Last temporary residence).—Aliens to an intended residence in 1 year shall correspond temporary residence. The last country in which alien resided with the intention of immigrating to America 1 year to more than 1 year to more than 6 months.

Temporary absence of journey of casual residence therein. The entries in column 16 should be made with the name of the city, city of town, State, province, or district of last permanent residence. If it is important to ascertain previous and subsequent temporary residence, country to which, nationality, or race.

Columns 17 to 20 (Vessel and complete address of nearest relative or friend in United States and the territory from which alien entered the United States, give name and address of husband, wife, parent, guardian, or friend in country to which alien intends to proceed in United States, if any. If to join relative or friend, it must be stated whether such relative or friend is a citizen or subject of the United States, and if not, whether such relative has filed a declaration of intention to become a citizen. Address should include street and number, if any. If to join relative or friend in place other than the place of residence, it must be stated whether such relative or friend has filed a declaration of intention to become a citizen. Address should include street and number.

Column 21 (Final destination).—The terms to state destination (final destination) of the alien arrival, give name and address of person or persons in country to which alien is going, and the place (city or town) to which alien is going. IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on plain forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 598) shall not be received on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and describing those to be landed in the port of arrival; or lists containing no more of such information as to the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been landed and the reasons therefor. Such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, or a sum equal to the cost of such immigration agency, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of such landing is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a sum equal to the cost of such immigration as shall have been actually incurred in the case of any such alien specified in such lists who shall not be lawfully landed, and such sum shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by libel in rem: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax and such additional sum as may be required to pay the cost of such immigration, in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 2. That any person, company, agency, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous countries to the same who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of section 38 of the act to which this is an amendment, or who shall refuse to allow any immigrant inspector to enter any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous countries to the same for the purpose of inspecting the passengers and crew thereof, or who shall refuse to detain any such vessel for a sufficient length of time to enable such inspection to be made, or who shall refuse to detain any such vessel for the purpose of having any sick immigrant therefrom removed to a hospital for treatment, or who shall refuse to detain any such vessel for the purpose of having any immigrant therefrom who has been certified for special inquiry removed to Ellis Island for such inquiry

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternative manner is indicated, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of the vessel in the United States from the foreign port or place if shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival a list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those so to be landed in the port of arrival; also containing the full names of all aliens, whether passengers or not, who may be found on board such vessel, and such information touching them as may be required by the Secretary of Labor under the provisions hereof; and also containing such information in regard to the crew, and such other matters relating thereto, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such list shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer, or first or second officer of the vessel, and shall be in such form as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. Any master or commanding officer of any such vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver such list, or who knowingly lands or permits to land from any such vessel any alien employee not specified in such list, or who knowingly lands or permits to land from any such vessel any alien passenger not specified in such list, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any such master or commanding officer may be required, before any immigrant inspector, to make oath as to the truth of the statements contained in such list in relation to any alien therein named. Any such master or commanding officer who knowingly makes any false statement in such list shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. Any such master or commanding officer who fails to deliver such list, or who refuses to allow any immigrant inspector to board such vessel for the purpose of examining such list, or who refuses to such inspector the means necessary for such examination, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a sum equal to double the amount of such head tax, in the event such sum is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such vessel be permitted to depart: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been duly executed, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act prior to the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 12. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty or for such reasons as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 13. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection shall not include a personal physical examination by the medical officers of the service), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance until a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or the liability to payment is shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, or his authorized agent, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

(b) Every such alien seaman who does not appear upon the onboard manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or shall be found to have been temporarily by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of the immigration laws by the master or such vessel, but such master may overcome such evidence by showing that such alien seaman was duly discharged in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel is detained by reason of the expense of the passage of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel may be granted clearance upon the deposit of such amount as may cause such fine to be deposited on account thereof by the master of the vessel or the agent thereof with the Secretary of Labor, such deposit to be refunded upon the payment of such fine, or any part thereof, or the liability to payment is shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared in duplicate and delivered by the master to the immigration inspector at the port of arrival, and the master shall not land any person from the vessel at any other port or place in the United States or its possessions until the list has been delivered to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival. The list or manifest shall be prepared in the form and manner prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be verified by the master or first officer of the vessel or by the surgeon of the vessel, if there be a surgeon on board. The list or manifest shall contain the names of all aliens who are in the United States and who depart on the vessel, whether as cabin passengers or otherwise, and whether they are citizens of the United States or aliens, and shall state the sex, age, calling, nationality, last permanent residence, and final destination of each alien who departs, and whether he has been in the United States previously, and if so, how long previously he resided here, whether he has been deported or has applied for deportation, whether he has a ticket through to his final destination, whether he has been in prison or in a almshouse or an asylum for the insane or supported by charity, whether he is in possession of $50 and if less than $50 how much he has, whether a female is married or single, and the name and address of the nearest relative or friend who is going to the country whence he came, and whether he has ever been in the United States before, and if so, when and where, and whether he has a ticket through to the place to which he is destined, and whether his passage is paid by himself or by others, and if by others, by whom, and whether he has been employed in the United States, and if so, by whom, and whether he has a contract or promise of employment in the United States, and if so, what kind of work he is to perform, and whether he is coming to join a husband, wife, father, mother, grandparent, child, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, or cousin, and if so, what relative, and whether he is a skilled laborer or servant, and to what occupation or class he belongs, and whether he is a citizen of the United States, and if so, whether by birth or naturalization, and if by naturalization, when and where the certificate was granted, and whether he is a polygamist, and whether he believes in organized government or in the practicability or desirability of the abolition of all government, and whether he is an anarchist, and whether he has ever been connected with any society or organization which teaches disregard for or opposition to all organized government, and whether he has ever been an inmate of or confined in any institution or asylum for the insane or feebleminded, and whether he is coming in pursuance of a previous promise or agreement to procure labor, and the condition of health, mental and physical, of each alien, and any other facts which may be required as to the identity and circumstances of each alien, which list or manifest shall be sworn to before the master or first officer by the oath or affirmation of such master or first officer, and shall be subscribed by him in duplicate, and the surgeon's certificate shall be similarly sworn to and subscribed in duplicate by the surgeon, if there be a surgeon on board.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from a foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held for debt in the port of arrival; or lists confirming or adding information to such lists as to the substitution of persons who have been discharged in the port of arrival, or the death of persons who have died on the voyage, which lists shall be delivered by the master to the inspector in charge of the port of arrival at the time of the vessel's entry. Any person who shall refuse to deliver any list required by this section, or who shall refuse to answer any question touching the matters regulated by this section, or who shall make any false answer thereto, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 and by imprisonment for not more than one year. The master of any vessel who shall fail to deliver the lists required by this section shall pay a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, to be sued for and recovered by the United States district attorney in any court of the United States having jurisdiction of the port at which the vessel may arrive, or of the port from which she departed, and no vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel that has failed to deliver lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 20, 1907, nor any master who has failed to deposit the penalty prescribed by section 36 of said Act, and no fees shall be demanded or collected by the administrative officers prescribed by this section or by section 38 of said Act, unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by this section or by section 36 of said Act shall have been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 duly made, and the fees demanded and collected.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 11. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States under the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival may be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of the necessities of the vessel, or for such other reasons as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, under such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient surety in such sum and containing such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and approved by the collector of customs.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the foreign contiguous territory of Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Newfoundland, Bermuda, the Bahama Islands, the Panama Canal Zone, or an island adjacent thereto in which the United States is immediately interested, shall not land from such vessel, nor shall any person be allowed to land from such vessel in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of the necessities of the vessel, or for such other reasons as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor under such regulations as he may prescribe, and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient surety in such sum and containing such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien who is refused a landing from any vessel at any port in the United States shall be returned on the vessel which brought him to such port to the country from which he came to the port of departure of such vessel, or to the country in which he resided and from which he entered the United States, or to such other country as may be designated by him and which will receive him, by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, who shall cause him to depart on the first vessel sailing therefor, and which has sufficient space therefor, and which is not scheduled to stop at any port in the United States before sailing for the country designated by such alien, and who shall furnish such alien with sufficient money to pay his passage to such country and his reasonable expenses while en route thereto, unless such alien shall be admitted to the United States or shall be entitled to land in the United States as provided in this section. Such vessel shall not be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the landing of such alien, unless security is given to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien will depart on such vessel or some other vessel.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien seaman on any vessel on arrival at any port of the United States cannot be detained on board or at such port without danger to the health of the crew or other persons on board such vessel, or that such alien seaman is suffering from sickness or injury requiring treatment which cannot be furnished on board such vessel without jeopardizing the life or health of such alien seaman or others on board such vessel, he may cause such alien seaman to be taken to a hospital for treatment and detained under such guard as he may deem necessary. The cost of such treatment and detention, not to exceed $4 per week, and the cost of burial in case of death, shall be paid out of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws. Any seaman who refuses medical treatment when ordered by the Secretary of Labor shall be deported as provided by law.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from a foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held for debt in the port of arrival; or lists confirming or adding information to such lists as to the substitution of persons who have been discharged in the port of arrival, or the death of persons who have died on the voyage, which lists shall be delivered by the master to the inspector in charge of the port of arrival at the time of the vessel's entry. Any seaman who refuses medical treatment when ordered by the Secretary of Labor shall be deported as provided by law.

The list described below shall be prepared in duplicate and delivered by the master to the inspector in charge at the port of arrival, and the master shall not land any person from the vessel at any other port or place in the United States or its possessions until the list has been delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 588 shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port). When an alien seaman is a "stowaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector possible the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members to crews (Form 632) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival list or lists containing such number of sheets as may be required, and prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, which lists shall be filled out by the master or commanding officer of such vessel, or by the surgeon of such vessel if there be one, and sworn to before a consular officer of the United States at the port of departure, or if there be no consular officer at such port, then before the nearest available official authorized to administer oaths, by the master, commander, or surgeon of such vessel, stating the position then occupied by each alien on board such vessel, stating the full name, age, sex, calling or occupation, whether married or single, the name and last residence of each such alien, the country to which he belongs by birth, his nationality, his race, the final destination of each such alien, whether he has a ticket through to such destination, whether the expenses of such alien are paid by himself or by others, whether in possession of money and how much, whether going to join relatives or friends and, if so, their names and addresses, whether ever before in the United States and, if so, when and where, whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or assistance of any kind to perform labor in the United States, whether in possession of a ticket to the place of his ultimate destination, whether any person has paid his passage or furnished him money for the journey, whether he has been deported before, and whether going to join a husband, wife, father, mother, grandparent, child over sixteen or under sixty years of age, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece, and whether able to read or write, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. The master, commander, or surgeon of such vessel shall also report the sickness or death of any alien on board such vessel during the journey, stating the cause thereof, and shall deliver a list containing the names of all aliens employed or shipped on board such vessel during her stay in port, and shall report the sickness or death of any such alien during such stay in port. Such lists shall be open to the inspection of immigrant inspectors, and the master, commander, or surgeon of such vessel shall furnish such additional information relative to the movements of such aliens as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, commander, or surgeon of any vessel who refuses to deliver to an immigrant inspector any list required or who fails to report the sickness or death of any alien as herein provided, or who refuses to answer questions concerning the movements of such aliens, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been completed, and not then unless unless it shall appear to the administrative officer prescribed by section 37 of said Act that all persons on board have been duly accounted for as required by said section or to such officer prescribed by section 38 of said Act, and that the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has been employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of accident, or by reason of being required as a witness in the case of the master, or for other cause beyond the control of the master, or because of illness of such alien seaman, until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has been notified and has examined such seaman (which examination in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or has caused such examination to be made by a surgeon of the United States Public Health Service. Such alien seaman shall be detained on board or at such other place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and pending the completion of the physical and mental examination of such alien seaman, and pending the actual departure of such alien seaman on board the vessel on which he arrived or on some other vessel, unless the master, commander, or agent of such vessel shall furnish a bond in such amount, not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor to insure the presentation of such alien seaman for examination at the time of departure and his compliance with the regulations governing the movements of such alien seamen. Clearance may be granted to such vessel without the production of such alien seaman upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such bond, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman on board the vessel on which he arrived, unless the master, commander, or agent of such vessel shall furnish satisfactory proof that such alien seaman was prevented from departing on such vessel by reasons beyond the control of the master, commander, or agent of such vessel, or by reason of illness of such alien seaman, and that the master, commander, or agent of such vessel has complied with the requirements of the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor with respect to the deportation of such alien seaman.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress, or to secure repairs to the vessel on which he arrived, or pending the action of the Secretary of Labor with respect to such alien, or pending his departure on a vessel or aircraft other than the vessel on which he arrived, or pending his departure on the vessel on which he arrived within a period of time determined by the Secretary of Labor to be sufficient to accomplish the purpose of his landing. Such seaman shall be detained on board or at the immigration station, except that he may be allowed temporarily to go ashore under guard. Before any alien seaman is allowed to land, a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof in the penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such default occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every fine or alien seaman who may not appear shall not be refunded by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such alien seaman on board the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from such foreign contiguous territory, or that he was employed on board, but shall be delivered

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival a list containing the name of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board when discharged in the port of arrival; to make corrections on such list as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been discharged, and the cause of their discharge. If any such owner, agent, consignee, or master fails to deliver either of the lists required by this section, he shall be punished by the Secretary of Labor, by a fine of not more than $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, and no clearance shall be granted such vessel until the payment of such fine has been secured or adequate bond therefor given to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

The U. S. Customs shall not be granted who vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fines prescribed by section 35 of said Act cannot been secured, the deposit specified in rule 33 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or treatment to such extent as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the multiple deserter, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 16. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof duly listed to depart on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or duly to depart on board any alien seaman who has been granted a conditional landing, or who has been temporarily landed for medical treatment, or who has been left behind by reason of illness, without the permission of the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the time remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Fines shall be liens against such vessels as a penalty, shall be prima facie evidence of the failure of such vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such deportation of such alien was caused by the act, default, or negligence of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below is prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and is ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nominated for the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or changes or additions thereto must be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival. Any alien omitted from the list will be liable to the penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct information is not given as above required.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of a vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all the aliens on board such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in and the guide's company, name and whence they came; and such other lists or manifests of the persons on board such vessel as the Secretary of Labor may by regulation prescribe; and failure to deliver such lists or manifests when and as required by the Secretary of Labor shall be punished by a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each and every such offense; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the delivery of such lists or manifests or the infliction of the penalty, or during the refusal or neglect of the master to deliver such lists or manifests, or to perform any act required by the Secretary of Labor in connection therewith, or to allow any immigration officer to go and remain on board of such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or to interfere in any way with such officer in the performance of his duties, or to land or permit to be landed any alien before the examination of such alien by the proper immigration officer, or at any place other than the designated port of entry for such alien: Provided, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel may appeal to the Secretary of Labor from the decision of the immigration officer to the Board of Special Inquiry, and the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, order the temporary landing of any alien pending the decision of such appeal: Provided further, That reasonable notice shall be given by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seamen (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), for whom lists or manifests have been delivered as above required, and no such seaman shall be allowed to land except temporarily for medical treatment, or in case of the sickness or injury of such seaman requiring his detention in a hospital, or as a witness, or for such other special cause as may be approved by the Secretary of Labor, and then only under such regulations as he may prescribe for the safeguarding of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 25. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing in the United States from any place outside thereof any alien not entitled to admission under the provisions of this Act, or any law or treaty in force at the time of application for admission or entry, or who at the time of application for admission or entry or who came in search of employment, or any alien who has been deported under the provisions of this Act, shall be required to pay the head tax and the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seamen (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), for whom lists or manifests have been delivered as above required, and no such seaman shall be allowed to land except temporarily for medical treatment, or in case of the sickness or injury of such seaman requiring his detention in a hospital, or as a witness, or for such other special cause as may be approved by the Secretary of Labor, from the United States, except upon certificate by the medical examiners and the immigration officer at the port of arrival that the person is not afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities specified in subdivision (c) of section 3 of this Act, or any other form of contagious disease, and that a thorough inspection of his body, including the scalp and hair, has been made by said medical examiners, and that the said person has been found free from vermin. Upon the certification by the medical examiners as above provided of any alien seaman, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived shall be notified by the Secretary of Labor that such alien seaman is certified by the medical examiners as above provided, and shall be required to remove such alien seaman from the United States on the vessel on which he arrived or on any other vessel sailing to the country whence such vessel came, or to any country which will receive him, other than the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national, within such time after the service of such notice as the Secretary of Labor may direct, not exceeding five days, unless the Secretary of Labor shall extend the time for such period as he may deem necessary, and in default thereof shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. Such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof thereafter, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily detained for medical treatment, or in case of the sickness or injury of such seaman requiring his detention in a hospital, or as a witness, shall be prima facie evidence to a similar effect in the case of any other alien seaman employed on such vessel during the same voyage.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is detained for the payment of the head tax as herein provided, or that he has left the vessel at the expense of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, or that deportation cannot be effected on account of the refusal of the country to which such alien seaman is destined to receive him, or for any other cause, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause such alien seaman to be detained at the United States immigration station at the port of arrival, or at such other place as he may designate, pending the final determination of the question of his deportation, and may permit such vessel to depart from the United States without the deportation of such alien seaman from the United States.

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or in case of the sickness or injury of such seaman requiring his detention in a hospital, or as a witness, or for such other special cause as may be approved by the Secretary of Labor, from whom special permission must be obtained therefor, and such vessel shall be required to remove such alien seaman from the United States.

SEC. 13. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing in the United States from any place outside thereof any alien seaman (master included) employed on board such vessel shall deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a complete list of such alien seamen employed on such vessel, and the immigration officer at the port of arrival shall inspect such seamen on board such vessel before such vessel departs from the United States, and no such seaman shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or in case of the sickness or injury of such seaman requiring his detention in a hospital, or as a witness, or for such other special cause as may be approved by the Secretary of Labor, from whom special permission must be obtained therefor.

(b) Any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing an alien seaman to the United States who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section or any rule or regulation made thereunder, or who shall refuse or neglect to detain such alien seaman on board such vessel or to remove him therefrom when required so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof thereafter, approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is detained for the payment of the head tax as herein provided, or that he has left the vessel at the expense of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, or that deportation cannot be effected on account of the refusal of the country to which such alien seaman is destined to receive him, or for any other cause, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause such alien seaman to be detained at the United States immigration station at the port of arrival, or at such other place as he may designate, pending the final determination of the question of his deportation, and may permit such vessel to depart from the United States without the deportation of such alien seaman from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) That upon arrival of a vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all the aliens on board, showing their ages, sex, marital condition, calling, nationality, last permanent residence, final destination, whether they have been previously in the United States or not, whether they have a ticket through to their destination, whether their passage is paid by themselves or by others, whether in possession of money, and if so how much, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends, and whether they have been in prison or almshouses or institutions for the care of the insane or supported by charity, and whether they are coming under contract or agreement to perform labor, and what their occupations are, and whether they have been deported from the United States, and if so, how often and the cause for deportation, and whether they are in possession of a ticket through to the place of their ultimate destination, and such other lists or manifests of the persons on board such vessel as the Secretary of Labor may by regulation prescribe; and failure to deliver such lists or manifests when and as required by the Secretary of Labor shall be punished by a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each and every such offense; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the delivery of such lists or manifests or the infliction of the penalty, or during the refusal or neglect of the master to deliver such lists or manifests, or to perform any act required by the Secretary of Labor in connection therewith, or to allow any immigration officer to go and remain on board of such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or to interfere in any way with such officer in the performance of his duties, or to land or permit to be landed any alien before the examination of such alien by the proper immigration officer, or at any place other than the designated port of entry for such alien. When any such vessel is prevented by the Department of Labor from landing any alien, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall be notified by the Secretary of Labor that such alien is certified by the examining surgeon as afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such alien is removed therefrom, unless the Secretary of Labor shall otherwise direct.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been duly executed, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by section 36 of said Act has been given.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or to cause such alien to depart on board such vessel or other such vessel or conveyance as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was treated by the master as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman on such vessel.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or it appears sufficient security has been given for the payment thereof.

The list described below must be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port or crews (from 653) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer as the vessel is leaving the dock. The list of persons so delivered must be signed by the master, and sworn to before the immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, such fact should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of the vessel in the United States from the foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of entry of last place contraband the names of all the aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's country, when and where they were respectively naturalized or citizens of the United States, and the intended destination of each alien who is not a citizen of the United States; and no such alien shall be allowed to land from such vessel at any port in the United States until the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof shall have delivered to the said officer a list containing the names of all such aliens, together with the information likely to lead to his apprehension; and if any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or master shall refuse or neglect to deliver to such immigration officer, or willfully conceal from the said officer, any information likely to lead to the apprehension of any such alien, or shall refuse to furnish a description of such alien, forthwith upon the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer or inspector in charge at the port of arrival the name of any such alien, and in default thereof such master, owner, agent, consignee, or master shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each and every such alien not reported, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That the penalty of imprisonment shall not apply to masters of vessels who shall have reported the illness or injury of any alien prior to the arrival of such vessel at a port of the United States and who shall have subsequently obtained a certificate from a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service or a duly licensed practicing physician of the locality in which the port is situated, to the effect that the said alien was suffering from an illness or injury which would probably require his hospitalization for the protection of other persons on board such vessel or the public health, and who shall have furnished a copy of such certificate to the said immigration officer at the port of arrival and obtained his written permission to land such alien for hospital treatment.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 3. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, shall have been delivered, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative unit prescribed by said section or to such prescribed by section 35 of said Act, unless such vessel be cleared, the deposit specified in rule 85 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or bringing to such territory, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because to such extremities as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 25. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof with alien to depart on board who fails to detain such seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do or, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or to or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from this or any foreign port, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman, unless it appears that such rejection was without the consent or connivance of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, and that every reasonable effort was made to prevent the desertion of such alien seaman.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is ready to depart, or sail from a port of the United States, and that the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel has been unable to secure a full complement of seamen lawfully entitled to be employed thereon, he may, in his discretion, issue a permit in writing authorizing the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel to employ such alien seaman for the round trip of such vessel upon which he arrived, during the stay of such vessel in port, and such alien seaman may be employed on such vessel during such round trip without the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, or by section 1 of the Act of February 20, 1907, as amended, and such seaman shall not be entitled to a certificate allowing such alien to land temporarily under section 3 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended.

Manifest of Aliens Employed on Vessel

Form 2-580 (Rev. 1-1-23)

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the Immigration Inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of persons of alien registry (Form 583) shall not be detached on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "MOTAWWIL," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, where and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and absolutely refuse to be paid or discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing no names or the word none, if such be the fact. It shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and any master, consignee, or master to refuse to deliver to such immigration officer in writing as to the name of each alien employed on board his vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver a true copy of the ship's articles of agreement with the name of each person who may have been employed thereon at the time of the arrival and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver a true copy of the ship's articles of agreement with the name of each person who may have been employed thereon at the time of the arrival and before the departure of any such vessel from any port to which such vessel may thereafter be bound, and also the names of those, if any, who have been left behind sick or otherwise, and the reasons therefor, so far as known. Every master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to comply with any of the requirements of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, or a true report is not made as above provided; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs in the district in which the port is located until the master has delivered to the immigrant inspector in charge lists containing the names of all aliens employed on board such vessel during her stay in port, or a sworn statement that there were no such aliens employed thereon, and has paid the penalties incurred by him or his vessel under the provisions of this section: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury requiring his removal to a hospital for treatment, or when the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof shall cause to be detained on board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman or has issued a certificate in lieu of inspection to such seaman (which inspection or certificate may be evidenced by the indorsement by the immigration officer on the crew list of the vessel with respect to such seaman), and no such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel shall refuse or fail to deliver on demand to such immigration officer any such seaman. Any such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel who violates any provision of this subdivision shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deposit with the immigration officer at the port of arrival the amount required by the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, has such expense of the vessel on which he arrived, has caused him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel at the port of arrival, and such vessel may thereafter be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The law requires that a list of all aliens who are to be employed on board your vessel at the time of departure from the United States must be delivered to the immigration inspector at the port of departure not less than 24 hours before the vessel sails. The list of changes or alien members of the crew (Form 588) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien seaman is a witness before a duly authorized official of the Department of Labor, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any alien at any port of the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens on board such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively examined by the consular officers, and whether they have been admitted in the United States or not, and such other information regarding them as the Secretary of Labor may require. Such lists shall be delivered from time to time as may be required by the said immigration officer, in which case the list of aliens last delivered shall be considered as a correction of the previous lists, and the master shall be required to report to such immigration officer, in writing, the name of any alien whose name is not on the list, and the cause of his absence, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and failure to deliver such lists or to report the absence of any such person, as required, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10 for each alien not reported. The master shall also report the name of any alien who may have been left behind from the vessel, stating a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and failure to report the absence of any such person at the time of the departure of the vessel from the United States shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10 for each alien not reported. The master shall also report the name of any alien who may have been employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who may have been discharged from the vessel, stating the cause of discharge, the amount of wages due him, and the amount thereof withheld by the master, and failure to report such alien, together with such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10 for each alien not reported. The master shall also report the name of any alien who may have been employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who may have been discharged from the vessel, stating the cause of discharge, the amount of wages due him, and the amount thereof withheld by the master, and failure to report such alien, together with such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until she has complied with section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been fur-nished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act, shall not have been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 11. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress arising after the vessel's departure from the last port outside the United States, or for the purpose of and while being detained for examination by the immigration officers in connection with his case, or for the purpose of and while being taken to the vessel on which he is to depart, or to a hospital, jail, or other place of detention in lieu of detention on board the vessel, or to such other place as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, or to a home for seamen maintained by a person or society approved by the Secretary of Labor for the relief of seamen, or to a hospital for the treatment of sick seamen: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may require any alien seaman entitled to land temporarily as provided herein to furnish a bond in such amount, not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such bond is furnished, with sufficient sureties, as may be required to guarantee the return of such alien seaman to the vessel or other means of departure from the United States when required so to do, and the payment to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the vessel may depart of any tax, or any fine or penalty which may be imposed upon such alien seaman. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of any such tax, or any fine or penalty which may be imposed upon such alien seaman in respect of whom such bond is furnished, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, fine, or penalty, or a bond with sufficient sureties to secure the payment thereof.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States has deserted, or that he was temporarily treated for the purpose of and while being detained for examination by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, and such vessel has sailed without him, the master, consignee, agent, or owner of such vessel shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such bond is furnished by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, and the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located shall have a lien upon the vessel for the payment of such sum, or until the vessel has been granted clearance papers by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or in default of such payment until sufficient sureties to secure the payment thereof have been furnished to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the subpoena mentioned in the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily treated for the purpose of and while being detained for examination by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, and such vessel has sailed without him, the master, consignee, agent, or owner of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such alien seaman on board the vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector, boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and no alien seaman shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port or otherwise (Form 598) shall not be detained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively signed or engaged, and specifying those so to be held on board in the port of arrival; to list separately those who are to be left behind, and the intended destination of each; and to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those who have deserted, and the cause for such desertion, respectively, so far as known; and such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall furnish to such immigration officer a complete manifest correct to the time of departure of the vessel from the last port touched at, containing the names of all aliens on board, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct data are not delivered or a sufficient reason therefor is not given as above provided; and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid no clearance shall be granted the vessel by the collector of customs, and in the event such fine is not paid prior to the departure of such vessel the Secretary of Labor is hereby authorized to withhold the clearance of any other vessel owned in whole or in part by the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel liable for such fine: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act pravide been served, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has been employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness or casualty requiring his retention as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board the vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from the country of his birth or last residence, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman by the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall be liable to the payment of the fine provided for in this section.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the onboard manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that no such seaman was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after readmittance by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel is detained to obtain or deport after readmittance by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, such vessel may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of the vessel in the United States from the foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, whether the destination thereof be known or unknown at the time of sailing from the foreign port or engaged, and specifying those to be held for the vessel's return abroad and those to be transferred to other vessels, and those who were respectively discharged in the port of arrival; to list contraband as much of such information as may be obtained from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of the vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed thereon who may not embarked thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and the cause; if any, why any have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver either of the lists above provided for, the owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such sum, and in the event such sum is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such sum be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of September 2, 1917, have been transmitted, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act remain open, and not then unless the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such relinquishment as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Front sums so collected by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes on page (Form 583) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 26. That upon arrival of a vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed at the port of arrival; of lists containing as much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and visés thereof, as may be required by the immigrant inspectors; and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has concealed himself on board such vessel; and it shall be the duty of the master or commanding officer and the agent of such vessel, before the departure of any such vessel from a foreign port for the United States, to make a complete list containing the names of all aliens employed by him on the vessel, specifying those who were not employed therein at the time of the arrival of the vessel at such port, and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer at the time of her departure from each port in the United States a complete list containing the names of those, if any, who have been added to the crew since the arrival at such port, specifying those who have been discharged, and the cause of their discharge. It shall be the duty of the master of each vessel to report the illness or injury of any alien on board, and the cause thereof, if known, before the vessel leaves port, and to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a list of all aliens who may have been taken from such vessel to a hospital during the period of quarantine, and a report of the cases of those who may have died on board during the period of quarantine, stating in each case the cause of death. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section shall pay to the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 26 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been transferred; but shall not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to final prescribed by section 26 of said Act during such period entered in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or internment to such destination as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not obtain from the owning or operating interests of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States a certificate in writing from the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival that the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel had complied with the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section shall be prima facie evidence that such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer failed to deport such alien.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspectors boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall, in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members to or from (Form 583) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is ordered detained by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of vessel in the United States from foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's country, where and where they were respectively examined and by whom, and the intended length of stay and future address in the United States of each alien employed. Such lists shall be delivered at the time of the vessel's entry inward from the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and a failure to deliver such lists or to furnish information thereof, or willfully falsifying any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who have been employed upon such vessel since the last list was delivered. Such lists shall be kept by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel for inspection by immigration officers at all reasonable times. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses to comply with the provisions of this section, or who shall refuse to allow any immigration officer to enter and search such vessel, or any part thereof, and any and all rooms, spaces, and accommodations thereon, shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above provided, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains pending, exactly that clearance before the payment thereof may be withheld by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien who shall refuse or neglect to answer any question addressed to him by any immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, and every person who shall fail to obtain a certificate from the United States consul when such certificate is required by section 10 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, shall be deported as provided in that act, unless he shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such refusal or failure was reasonably excusable or was not willful.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien assumed on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel or the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof, has been guilty of any act or omission which under the provisions of this act would be ground for the refusal of clearance to such vessel, clearance shall not be granted such vessel or master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof, or any other vessel of which they are master, agent, consignee, or owner, until the Secretary of Labor shall otherwise direct.

(d) Every alien who shall be excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the humane treatment of such aliens, or in case of the sickness or injury of the master or officers of such vessel, or the inability of sufficient number of the crew to perform the work necessary for the safe navigation of the vessel, or in case of quarantine, or for the purpose of receiving on board passengers or crew, or for the purpose of repairing such vessel in case of emergency, or for the purpose of taking on board supplies, or for any other reason in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, and any such alien who shall land from any such vessel at any port in the United States shall be deported in the same manner as provided for aliens who have entered the United States in violation of law, unless the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien had become a bona fide resident of the United States before the vessel on which he arrived sailed from any foreign port or place, or that he was prevented by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

(e) Any person who shall bring to the United States any alien not duly entered by the immigration officers at the port of arrival, or who shall conceal or harbor, or attempt to conceal or harbor, any such alien, shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States in violation of law, and in addition shall pay to the collector of customs a sum equal to $1,000 for each alien so concealed or harbored, or attempted to be concealed or harbored, which sum shall be a lien upon the vessel on which such alien arrived, and clearance may be withheld from such vessel until such sum is paid or until sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof is given to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(f) Every alien who shall come into the United States in violation of law may be required by any commissioner of immigration, or by any person in charge of any station designated by him, to return to the country whence he came, and for this purpose the master of the vessel on which he arrived shall, upon the demand of such commissioner or person in charge of such station, detain such alien on board or in such station at the expense of such vessel until the departure of such vessel from the port, and such vessel shall be liable to the payment of the cost of such detention and to the payment of the cost of the return of such alien, and clearance may be withheld from such vessel until such cost is paid or sufficient surety given to secure the payment thereof.

(g) Every alien who shall be excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the humane treatment of such aliens, or in case of the sickness or injury of the master or officers of such vessel, or the inability of sufficient number of the crew to perform the work necessary for the safe navigation of the vessel, or in case of quarantine, or for the purpose of receiving on board passengers or crew, or for the purpose of repairing such vessel in case of emergency, or for the purpose of taking on board supplies, or for any other reason in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, and any such alien who shall land from any such vessel at any port in the United States shall be deported in the same manner as provided for aliens who have entered the United States in violation of law, unless the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien had become a bona fide resident of the United States before the vessel on which he arrived sailed from any foreign port or place, or that he was prevented by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

(h) Any person who shall bring to the United States any alien not duly entered by the immigration officers at the port of arrival, or who shall conceal or harbor, or attempt to conceal or harbor, any such alien, shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States in violation of law, and in addition shall pay to the collector of customs a sum equal to $1,000 for each alien so concealed or harbored, or attempted to be concealed or harbored, which sum shall be a lien upon the vessel on which such alien arrived, and clearance may be withheld from such vessel until such sum is paid or sufficient surety given to secure the payment thereof is given to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(i) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien assumed on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel or the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof, has been guilty of any act or omission which under the provisions of this act would be ground for the refusal of clearance to such vessel, clearance shall not be granted such vessel or master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof, or any other vessel of which they are master, agent, consignee, or owner, until the Secretary of Labor shall otherwise direct.

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the humane treatment of such aliens, or in case of the sickness or injury of the master or officers of such vessel, or the inability of sufficient number of the crew to perform the work necessary for the safe navigation of the vessel, or in case of quarantine, or for the purpose of receiving on board passengers or crew, or for the purpose of repairing such vessel in case of emergency, or for the purpose of taking on board supplies, or for any other reason in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, and any such alien who shall land from any such vessel at any port in the United States shall be deported in the same manner as provided for aliens who have entered the United States in violation of law, unless the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien had become a bona fide resident of the United States before the vessel on which he arrived sailed from any foreign port or place, or that he was prevented by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board such vessel the immigration officer in charge at the port of embarkation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 31. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board such vessel the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and there inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains pending, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien who shall refuse or neglect to answer any question addressed to him by any immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, and every person who shall fail to obtain a certificate from the United States consul when such certificate is required by section 10 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, shall be deported as provided in that act, unless he shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such refusal or failure was reasonably excusable or was not willful.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien assumed on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel or the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof, has been guilty of any act or omission which under the provisions of this act would be ground for the refusal of clearance to such vessel, clearance shall not be granted such vessel or master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof, or any other vessel of which they are master, agent, consignee, or owner, until the Secretary of Labor shall otherwise direct.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens memorandum, or current (Form 283) shall not be retained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate seaman is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board discharged in the port of arrival; to list separately as much of such information as can be ascertained from the crew list, or manifest, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor by regulations prescribed; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has left the vessel, stating a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a written list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the Secretary of Labor, for the use of the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located, the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above as above required: Provided, That clearance shall not be refused in the case any such alien is found to be afflicted with any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease if such alien shall be certified for treatment in a hospital to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor or his authorized agent: Provided further, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be refused the vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative time prescribed by rule section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said act, namely, the deposit specified in rule 55 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the admission of such alien seaman, from the custody of the master, upon the deposit by such master with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover the cost of maintenance and return to the country whence he came, pursuant to the immigration laws, and a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, in an amount not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman, as required by the Secretary of Labor, and in default of such deposit and bond such alien seaman shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman, or who fails to detain on board any alien seaman who has been certified by the medical examiner (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fund, or while the fund remains subsisting, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Front first on alien seaman did not appear upon the onboard manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver or deport after requirement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Joseph Coffin, Master, of the U.S.S. Ibbot, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place quoted per current voyage. I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 21 and 50, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector pending the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes or additions shall be prepared in like manner (form 688) and not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien entitled to a "non-quota" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of entry list or lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be paid off in the port of entry; to list or lists containing or which to such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and while the vessel is in the port of the United States no master, owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a written list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel who were not shipped, engaged, or carried on the inward list and who have left the vessel at any port or place in the United States, stating, so far as can be ascertained, the cause of their departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those who have been reported dead or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to so deliver either of the lists aforesaid, if any, who have been employed as aforesaid, respectively, or on so to report such cases of desertion to landed, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of entry is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been investigated; but not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section 07 to that prescribed by section 38 of said Act, if any, has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws who has been employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty, or by permission of the Secretary of Labor under such conditions as he may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who lands or permits to land on board such vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel shall immigration officer in charge at the port of entry (which inspection may include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), and such inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner, or who fails to detain such seaman on board such vessel such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of entry is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be cleared pending the determination of the question of the payment of such fine, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to such determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to file a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman shall not be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section, but may be required by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or collector of customs to proceed on board the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on any other vessel in the service of the same owner, or to any place outside thereof, or, if he be permitted to land temporarily or permanently in the United States, to such place as the Secretary of Labor may direct: Provided, That no master, owner, agent, consignee, or collector of customs shall be required to receive on board any seaman who has been certified by the medical officer of the port as being afflicted with any loathsome disease, or who is known to be a criminal, a person who has been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a person who is a member of the anarchistic or other class of aliens excluded from admission into the United States under the provisions of this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or collector of customs, he may cause such alien seaman to be detained on board such vessel at the expense of the vessel or delivered to the custody of the Secretary of Labor, and such alien seaman may thereupon be admitted to the United States temporarily upon the furnishing of a suitable bond as required by the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on plain white paper approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall on no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of churches of alien members of the crew (Form 588) shall not be detached or bound, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien desires it a "MOTAWAY" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those of the number, if any, who have been employed on board any vessel during the voyage, and also as to the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and failure to deliver such lists or any of the information required shall be unlawful and the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as aforesaid; and it shall be unlawful for any such alien employed on such vessel, after inspection and before departure of the vessel from the port, to land from such vessel, except temporarily to attend to the sick or injured, or for any person to bring on board any vessel any such alien, except pilots, physicians, customs officials, and immigration officers, in the performance of their official duties, unless such alien shall have been duly admitted into the United States or shall have established a right to remain therein under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and any such alien who lands from any such vessel in violation of this section shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act. The cost of maintenance of any such alien pending the decision of the Secretary of Labor shall be borne by the owner of the vessel bringing such alien to the United States. Any such alien who becomes a public charge within three years after his entry into the United States from causes existing prior to his entry shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act. Any such alien who shall be found in the United States in violation of this Act or any amendment thereto shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to file administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said Act, and such lists have been verified, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless to such extent and upon such conditions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof duly listed as required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and not found by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and there inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board such vessel until such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to its determination on deposit of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to file a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Front first page of alien seaman old not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or shall be temporarily by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a liability to payment of such fine, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to its determination on deposit of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to file a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue delay to obtain or deport such temporarily the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Front first page of alien seaman old not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or shall be temporarily by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a liability to payment of such fine, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to its determination on deposit of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to file a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all alien members of the crew employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board the vessel at the port of arrival; or lists containing no more of such alien members, as may be required by the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Such lists shall be in the form prescribed by the Secretary of Labor and shall contain such information as the Secretary of Labor may require, including a description of each alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and the cause for which each alien arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or hospital cases; and owner, agent, consignee, or master as to delivery either of the whole list of such alien arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or hospital, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall be punished by a fine of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above as to any alien, to be collected by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above as to any alien, to be collected by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of departure is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above as to any alien, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: Not shall such ship be granted or transferred clearance, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: Not shall such ship be granted or transferred clearance, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 7. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 38 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act of May 26, 1924, has been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the minimum detention of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board the alien seamen employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seamen (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seamen on board after such inspection or to deport such seamen if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) That if an alien seaman did not appear upon the customs manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the inspector of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a jury that he was a deserter: Provided, That if such alien seaman shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert from such vessel, but was left behind because of illness or injury, and that he was not a public charge at the time he left such vessel, and that he is not likely to become a public charge, and that he was not afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects described in section 3 of this Act, he may be allowed to enter the United States under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that the deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense shall not be refunded otherwise than upon such evidence and pass hold to its payment satisfactory to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place if alien be found on the crew, every alien seaman coming or arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall be detained on board the vessel to which he belongs, or on board such other vessel as may be designated by the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival, until a certificate shall be issued to him by the Secretary of Labor or by such officer as he may designate, stating whether or not, in his opinion, such alien seaman is admissible into the United States under the provisions of this Act. Every alien seaman ordered detained on board a vessel arriving in the United States shall be entered in a list, which shall state the full name, age, nationality, last permanent residence, calling, and destination of every such alien seaman, and such list shall be produced on demand for the inspection of any officer of the United States authorized to board such vessel. Every alien seaman ordered detained on board a vessel arriving in the United States shall be subject to such physical examination by the medical officers of the United States Public Health Service as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and for the purpose of such examination the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall furnish all such assistance as may be required by the immigrant inspector in charge of the port. Any alien seaman ordered detained on board a vessel arriving in the United States who refuses to be examined as provided herein, or who refuses to be detained on board such vessel, or who, without permission of the immigrant inspector in charge of the port, departs or attempts to depart from the United States, shall be deported as provided in this Act. Any alien seaman who, after having been ordered detained on board a vessel arriving in the United States, is found on shore without such permission, shall be deported as provided in this Act. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman with respect to whom such failure occurs. The vessel shall be detained pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty, and such penalty may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor upon such terms and conditions as he may deem just. Clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the question of liability to the payment of such penalty upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof. Such bond shall be in a sum sufficient to cover the cost of the maintenance of such alien seaman pending the determination of the question of his admissibility to the United States, and in the event such alien is admitted, while it remains pending: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such cost.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 38 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been duly signed and not thereafter unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act shall have been waived, the deposit specified in rule 23 have been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury requiring hospital treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation or removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily, as provided in section 13 hereof, any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the inspector of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport alien seaman, or that such seaman was not returned on such vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such presumption may be overcome to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of vessels in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively applied or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board the vessel when she leaves the port of arrival; or lists containing as much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and until such lists have been delivered no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers: and if any master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel shall refuse to deliver such lists or shall connive at the violation of any such provisions, he shall for each offense be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 and imprisonment for not more than one year. Upon the immigration officer at the port of arrival being satisfied that any alien employed on such vessel is destined to the United States, he shall require the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel to cause such alien to be detained on board thereof or at such port until a permit shall be granted to him by the Secretary of Labor, and the cost of such detention shall be paid by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel. Any such alien who shall leave such vessel without such permit shall be deported at the cost of such vessel to the country whence he came, in the manner provided by law, unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel shall give a bond in such sum as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, not exceeding $500 for each such alien, conditioned upon the return of such alien on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States when required to do so by the Secretary of Labor or any person authorized by him to make such demand, and upon the payment of the cost of detention and deportation of such alien. Any such vessel which shall have been granted clearance papers before the departure of any such alien employee may upon application be required by the Secretary of Labor to wait for the return of such alien for a period not exceeding forty-eight hours after the departure of such vessel, and shall be liable for the cost of detaining such vessel for such period. Any such vessel which shall depart without the payment of the cost of detention and deportation of such alien shall be liable to a penalty of $300 in addition to the cost of detention and deportation of such alien, which penalty may be sued for and recovered by the United States district attorney in the district in which the port of arrival is located; and the head officer, or master, of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each such alien employee who shall not be included in the lists required to be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, but such penalty shall not be incurred if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien was employed in good faith as a seaman, and that he had been discharged in a foreign port before the vessel sailed from such port, and reported to the consul general or consul of the United States at such port the fact that such alien had been employed on board such vessel, and the cause of his discharge from such vessel, and had furnished such consul general or consul with a full description of such alien, and that such consul general or consul has indorsed such fact upon the certificate of discharge of such alien. Upon the payment of the cost of detention and deportation of such alien, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel shall be entitled to a certificate from the Secretary of Labor authorizing the granting of clearance papers to such vessel. Any such vessel which shall depart without the payment of the cost of detention and deportation of such alien shall be liable to a penalty of $300 in addition to the cost of detention and deportation of such alien, which penalty may be sued for and recovered by the United States district attorney in the district in which the port of arrival is located; and the head officer, or master, of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each such alien employee who shall not be included in the lists required to be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, but such penalty shall not be incurred if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien was employed in good faith as a seaman, and that he had been discharged in a foreign port before the vessel sailed from such port, and reported to the consul general or consul of the United States at such port the fact that such alien had been employed on board such vessel, and the cause of his discharge from such vessel, and had furnished such consul general or consul with a full description of such alien, and that such consul general or consul has indorsed such fact upon the certificate of discharge of such alien. Upon the payment of the cost of detention and deportation of such alien, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel shall be entitled to a certificate from the Secretary of Labor authorizing the granting of clearance papers to such vessel.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been delivered, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act cannot be served, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who shall fail to deliver on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or to obtain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the port of arrival, or who shall fail to deport such seaman in accordance with any regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such liability upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Front fines as an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport alien seamen after reimbursement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship such alien seamen may be permitted to remain in the United States if the expense of such maintenance will not be a charge upon the public funds, and such vessel shall be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or a sufficient guaranty to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor has been given.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, what nations they were respectively naturalized citizens of, and what passports they severally bear, and the intended length of their stay in the United States; and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, stating a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a written list containing the names of all such employees known now to such employer intended to be left behind, and the reasons therefor. Any person who shall knowingly violate any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien as to whom such violation occurs, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the delivery of such lists in the case of the failure to arrive of any person included therein, if the master makes oath that he has made due effort to secure the presence of such person for examination before sailing: Provided further, That clearance may be granted prior to the delivery of such lists in the case of any person included therein who shall have been prevented from being on board by reason of sickness or injury necessitating his removal from the vessel before departure: Provided further, That the master of any such vessel shall not be required to deliver lists containing the names of persons employed on board as members of the crew, but shall deliver lists containing the names of all persons employed on board as members of the crew who are discharged from the vessel in a foreign port or place, with the cause of discharge of each, and the sum, if any, due each person at the time of discharge.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fines prescribed by section 35 of said act has been served, the deposit directed in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, however, or any alien seaman employed on board any vessel which shall depart from the United States for any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fines prescribed by section 35 of said act has been served, the deposit directed in rule 53 has been made.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, before any alien leaves the vessel shall deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and report the number of aliens on board, which information shall be verified at the time of inspection by the master, purser, or surgeon of the vessel (manifest), or by such other member of the crew as may be designated by the master, and such verification shall be subscribed by the master. Such report shall be in addition to any other report required by law. Any master who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each alien as to whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a seaman, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such alien upon departure of such vessel, unless such alien be found by the immigration officer at the port of arrival to be then employed on board such vessel.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship, such alien seaman may be allowed to depart from the United States on any vessel leaving such port, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because to such destinations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the aliensmen, or to the collection of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the foreign dominion of such alien from the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because to such destinations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the aliensmen, or to the collection of such alien from the United States.

(b) Any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall have inspected such seaman (which inspection of all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), and no such seaman shall be allowed to depart from such vessel at any port in the United States until the immigration officer at the port of arrival shall have inspected such seaman on board after such inspection or to debark such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10.00 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers from the port of arrival to the determination of the liability to payment of such tax, or while the determination is pending, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) Proof that an alien seaman did not obtain from the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States to debark or a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof to such destination upon the deposit of

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival like conditions the manifest of all persons carried on such vessel, which manifest shall be so prepared as to show separately all cases of aliens who have been admitted or lawfully domiciled in the United States, and who depart therefrom, and all cases of aliens who are not admitted or lawfully domiciled in the United States, and who depart therefrom, and shall show the full name, age, sex, calling, nationality, last permanent residence, and final destination of every alien who departs from the United States, and such additional information relative to such aliens as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be in such form as he may prescribe; and upon the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of each owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases of aliens who have been concealed on board, and whether such aliens have or have not been admitted or lawfully domiciled in the United States, and to deliver to such immigration officer a further manifest containing the names of all such aliens, together with such information likely to lead to the appprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further manifest containing the names of all aliens who have been discovered on board after the departure of such vessel, and all such aliens who have been found on board at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon as the case may be; and in case of the failure of any owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel to comply with the provisions of this section he shall be liable to a penalty of $200 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, or a like penalty of $200 as aforesaid for each alien who is not listed as provided for in this section, which penalty may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor, but in no case shall any such owner, agent, consignee, or master be entitled to clear his vessel from port pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine; and in the event such fine is imposed, or the same is not remitted, it shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by process of libel and seizure by any United States district court which shall have jurisdiction of the port at which such vessel may arrive: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by section 36 or 16 shall prescribed by section 35 of said Act have been waived, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or treatment to such extent as the administrative fine prescribed by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, or the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or the collector of customs at the port of arrival if there is no immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, shall report to the Secretary of Labor the name of each alien (whether passenger in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to obtain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel duly certificate issued by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor as provided under seamen (Act February 5, 1915, sec. 10), or who fails to report the illness or hospital treatment of any alien seaman, or who fails to detain any alien seaman specified by the Secretary of Labor, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the onboard manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from such place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the inspector at the port of arrival, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman unless he satisfactorily explains his absence.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 36. That upon entering or the vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival [last coming] the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether aliens to be landed in the port of arrival; or [last coming] as to such of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of the vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to and deal with immigration officer in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally remained on board, secreted himself, or landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a written list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, and who have not been entered at the time of the arrival of the vessel but who may leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of all aliens who have been discharged and the cause of such discharge, and to report to such officer the name of any such alien who may desert from such vessel while in port. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who shall refuse to comply with the provisions of this section relating to the report and discharge of aliens arriving at the port of arrival shall be punished by a fine of $10 to $100 for each such alien concerning whom such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall refuse to report, or in respect to whom any false report is made, and no such vessel shall be cleared by the Secretary of Labor, nor, if she shall depart without clearance, may she be admitted or entitled to any of the privileges of a vessel entering the United States: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

PAR. 3. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines remitted by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been transmitted, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act remains unpaid, the deposit specified in rule 55 has been made.

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place, other than from the United States, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or to attend to such formalities as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a foreign contiguous territory, or that he was refused by the master of such vessel as a seaman, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport alien seaman by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman in that such vessel is not scheduled to return to the port at which she arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be furnished on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspectors boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of steerage or alien members of the crew (Form 688) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be being discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as may be known by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has been secreted by the crew in such vessel before the departure of the vessel from the last foreign port or place, and before the departure of such vessel from the United States; and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to the said immigration officer, at the time of the departure of the vessel from the last foreign port or place, a list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave such platform on the arrival of such vessel from the last foreign port or place, and the names of all aliens employed who have been discharged, and the cause for the discharge of each alien so discharged, and also the names of those, if any, who have been left behind in foreign countries, and the cause therefor. Such lists shall be subscribed and sworn to by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel, and the truthfulness and correctness of the statements therein contained shall be sworn to before the said immigration officer. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to report, deliver, or make oath to any such lists as herein required, or who shall refuse to answer any question put to him by any such immigration officer touching the matters required to be reported, or who shall make any false answer to any such question, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding $1,000 for each offense, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Such vessel shall be detained by the collector of customs for the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a true report is not made as above provided; and no such vessel shall be cleared while it remains during; nor shall such sum be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been transmitted, and not then unless notice of inability to do administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act cannot been served, the deposit specified in rule 55 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress, or for such temporary period as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who lands or causes to be landed on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who lands or causes to be landed from such vessel, or who knowingly or willfully conceals, harbors, or secretes on board such vessel, or who causes or assists any such seaman to escape from the United States, or who refuses to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall depart from the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall depart from any other port of the United States without the consent of the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival, shall be deemed a deserter, and shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after requirement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, _____, of the _____, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place during the past twenty months.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 30, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

Vessel AMERICAN STEAMER IRONSIDE, arriving at PORT ANGELES WASHINGTON, JULY 1st, 1918, from the port of VICTORIA B C CANADA

I, the undersigned master of the above vessel, do solemnly swear that the above list contains a true account of all persons employed on board the said vessel as members of the crew or passengers, and that no member of the crew or passenger has been left behind in any foreign port or place, except as follows: None

Sworn to before me this 1st day of July, 1918

Immigrant Inspector.

The list described below shall be prepared on plain forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens of whom information is required (Form 528) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When no alien is arriving scanian or "norwegian," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and description thereof; and failure to furnish such lists as required by this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a fine thereof is not made as above provided; but no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains pending, not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted vun vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been ten-dered, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act, if any, have been complied with or deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily and solely for medical treatment, or because of such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board vun alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to deport such seaman on board such alien seaman if required by such immigration officer at the time of departure of such vessel from the United States, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every such alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or shall depart from the United States within five days after the departure of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport after temporary treatment by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be exacted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

I, DARRELL WINN, master, of the AMERICAN STEAMER ROSOMAN, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place quitted yet present voyage. I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 21 and 50 of Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

Darrell Winn
Master

Sworn to before me this 24 day of JULY, 19 24

Immigrant Inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall on no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members to or from the vessel (Form 588) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When no arriving aliens are on board, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival like manifest the manner of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board when discharged in the port of arrival; or like manifest of such aliens as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and strict compliance with such regulations likely to lead to the detection of all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival of the vessel at the port of arrival but who may thereafter join the vessel, and the reasons for the departure of such employees, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired to fill such vacancies, and the cause thereof: Provided, That no such list shall be required of vessels plying regularly between ports in the United States and foreign contiguous territory: Provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of any such vessel shall furnish to any immigrant inspector at any port of the United States full information concerning the movements of any alien employee who may desert or attempt to desert while in the United States, and shall furnish such information and render such assistance as may be within his power to secure the detention of such alien employee prior to the issuance of a warrant for his arrest, upon the request of any immigrant inspector: And provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of any such vessel shall not be required to furnish any information regarding the movements of any alien employee after such alien has been in the United States for a period of one year.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been intended, and not then unless notice of inability to file administrative data prescribed by said section or to land prescribed by section 32 of said Act has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of the necessities of such alien from the United States as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel shall cause every alien employed on board such vessel, before departure from any place outside the United States, to be examined by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service at the time of the examination of the crew, and shall report to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival the name of every alien employed on board such vessel who has not been so examined, and the cause of such failure to examine. Any such alien found upon such examination to be afflicted with any contagious disease, mental or physical defect, or disability which would be cause for exclusion under the immigration laws, shall be deported on the vessel bringing him to the United States, unless the Secretary of Labor shall otherwise direct, and the cost of such deportation shall be a lien against such vessel, which may be enforced by libel in rem in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may be found. No clearance shall be granted any vessel while such lien remains undischarged.

(b) Every owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to comply with any of the requirements of this section or with any lawful rule or regulation made by the Secretary of Labor in pursuance thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of the provisions of this section by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of such vessel, and such vessel may be refused clearance until such expense has been paid or security therefor given to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall on no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members to or from the vessel (Form 588) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When no arriving aliens are on board, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of arrival at least twenty-four hours before the departure of the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival and be subject to the examination provided for by the immigration laws. Any master who refuses to deliver such list or manifest when required so to do, or who refuses to allow the immigrant inspector to come on board the vessel for the purpose of examining the list or manifest, or who refuses to detain any alien on board his vessel when ordered so to do by the immigrant inspector, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival lists or manifests of all the persons on board such vessel, whether they be cabin passengers or members of the crew, or other persons carried on such vessel, which lists or manifests shall be prepared at the port of sailing, or last point of departure from a foreign country, by such officer of the vessel as may be designated by the master thereof, and shall be subscribed by the master and by each other officer before any immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. The lists or manifests required by this section shall be in such form and contain such information concerning each person listed thereon as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel shall be responsible for the correctness of and shall verify by his oath such lists or manifests. Such additional information shall be furnished at such time and place and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor or by such officers as he may designate, all cases in which any such alien may be found to be inadmissible being fully and specifically stated. The master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel shall furnish to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of the names of all aliens employed by him on such vessel who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon in connection with the departure of such vessel, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those. If any, who have deserted from such vessel since the departure of the last immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and shall report the same to the proper immigrant inspector at the port of departure before such vessel departs from the jurisdiction of such port. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer who refuses or fails to deliver lists or the data required by this section, or who refuses to allow the immigrant inspector to come on board such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or who refuses to detain any alien on board such vessel when ordered so to do by the immigrant inspector, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no alien vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the disposition of such alien, and if the owner, agent, master, or consignee of such vessel shall refuse or neglect to pay such fine it may be recovered, with costs, in the name of the United States of America by action of debt in the district court of the district in which the vessel may arrive or depart. The Secretary of Labor may in his discretion remit any fine, or part thereof, imposed upon the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel for the violation of the provisions of this section relating to the presence of any alien on board such vessel, if it be shown to his satisfaction that such alien had been brought on board such vessel in distress or for the purpose of saving life and that reasonable diligence had been exercised by such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer to prevent the violation of such provisions.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury requiring hospital treatment, or because of quarantine, or for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 28.(a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who has failed to deport any alien on board such vessel when ordered to do so by the Secretary of Labor or by any immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival may be required to pay a sum not exceeding $300 for each such alien, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or on the giving of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a foreign contiguous territory, or from the immigration officer at the seaport of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to any such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

That upon arrival of vessels in the United States from any foreign port or from if shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, which lists shall be verified by the oath of such officer, and shall be subject to such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section. Such lists shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival, or in case of vessels arriving at different ports, to the principal immigration officer at the first port of arrival. Any master who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such lists, or who shall refuse to answer truthfully to the best of his knowledge, any question touching the right of any alien to enter the United States, which may be propounded to him by any immigration officer, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any master who shall knowingly bring to the United States any alien afflicted with any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or who shall knowingly bring to the United States any alien who has been deported under the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any master who shall knowingly bring to the United States any alien who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, if such visa is required by this Act, or who shall knowingly bring to the United States any alien who has been excluded from admission and deported, unless such alien specifically set forth that he has been excluded from admission and deported and intends to return to the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any master who shall refuse or neglect to detain any alien on board his vessel when ordered so to do by an immigration officer, or who shall refuse or neglect to take any such alien on board and to transport him to the port for which his vessel is booked, or who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such alien to the immigration officer at such port, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any master who shall refuse or neglect to report, detain, or deliver any alien as in this section provided, or who shall refuse or neglect to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel that has been refused by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, upon which the head tax prescribed by section 2 of this Act has not been paid, unless notice of hearing to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of this Act has been waived, the penalty exacted in such case, or the question of liability duly decided in favor of the master.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or treatment to such extensions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the adjustment deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who shall refuse to obtain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel duly the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and who shall allow such alien seaman to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or who shall refuse or neglect to report, detain, or deliver any such alien seaman on demand of any immigration officer, or who shall refuse or neglect to pay the head tax provided for by section 2 of this Act for each alien seaman so landed, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien so landed, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the onboard manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain on board and detain such alien seaman as required by this section.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived will cause undue hardship to such alien seaman, or to the master or owner of such vessel, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be cleared clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be delivered by him to the master of the vessel. The list of changes or ports of call mentioned of crews (Form 429) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an arrival manifest is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival in the United States from any foreign port or upon any transportation from one part of the vessel to another, every commander or master of any vessel bringing an alien who is applying for admission to the United States shall, at the time of the physician's examination of such alien, deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, or if such examination is not held at such port, then at the first port at which such examination is had, lists or manifests of all such aliens, in the form or forms prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall thereupon subscribe and deliver to the immigrant inspector a certificate, under oath, in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, stating that the list or manifest is complete and correct in all particulars, and that each and every alien mentioned therein has been duly examined under his direction, and that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the decision of the immigrant inspector thereon is correct, and that no alien mentioned therein has been allowed to land in the United States without the permission of the immigrant inspector, except as provided in section 23 of this Act. Such certificate shall be in addition to any certificate required to be executed by the master under the provisions of section 10 of this Act. Any master who refuses to deliver such list or manifest, or to execute such certificate, or who knowingly or willfully delivers a false list or manifest, or who refuses to allow the immigrant inspector to board the vessel for the purpose of examining the list or manifest, or who refuses to detain any alien on board his vessel when requested so to do by the immigrant inspector, or who refuses to carry back any alien specified in section 19 of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien in respect of whom any such violation occurs. If the vessel upon which any alien arrives in the United States from any foreign port shall depart from the port of arrival before the inspection of such alien is completed or before the decision of the immigrant inspector in the case of such alien is rendered, or before the return of a rejected alien shall have been provided for by the master, such master shall pay a penalty of $300 for each alien so departing, and shall be liable to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10,000 for each alien who may be afterwards found to have entered the United States from such foreign port without inspection or to have remained therein in violation of the immigration laws, which sum shall be a lien upon the vessel, and may be recovered by the United States in the district court of the United States for the district in which the port of arrival is located, and the vessel may be libeled therefor in admiralty, and shall not be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the penalty or the payment thereof, or the giving of a bond with sufficient surety therefor, in such sum as may be required by the collector of customs, not exceeding the amount of the penalty. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the penalty or the giving of bond as herein provided, when the vessel upon which the alien arrived is owned by persons operating two or more vessels, a single penalty of $300 may be imposed for the departure of all vessels so owned which depart during the period intervening between the examination of the first and last alien arriving upon such vessels, but a bond in the penalty of $10,000 for each alien detained under authority of this section shall be required in each case. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to require the detention of any alien entitled to enter the United States under any existing treaty or convention by reason of the provisions of this section relating to the refusal of clearance to vessels, or to the payment of penalties or the giving of bonds, or to the deportation of aliens, who may be in transit through the United States to any country other than the United States.

SEC. 39. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel writing in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any transportation company other than railroad engaged in bringing aliens to the United States, who shall have charge of any such vessel shall furnish to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a list or manifest of all aliens brought to the United States by such vessel, and the last known address in the country whence they came of the immediate relative specified in the affidavit required by section 23 of this Act to accompany the alien coming to the United States, and such other information respecting each alien as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, on such forms and in such detail as the Secretary may prescribe. Any such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel who shall refuse to furnish such list or manifest, or any additional information required by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall refuse to allow the immigrant inspector to board such vessel for the purpose of obtaining such list or manifest or information, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such refusal.

(b) Any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel who shall refuse to carry back any alien certified to him for deportation under the provisions of this Act, or who shall refuse or fail to deliver such alien to the proper immigration officer at the time and place fixed by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall refuse or fail to comply with the lawful requirements of such immigration officer, or any person in charge or command of any such vessel who shall aid or abet any alien to evade any of the provisions of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien in respect of whom any violation of this Act occurs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have cause to believe that any alien entered the United States in violation of law, he may cause such alien to be kept on board or at quarters designated by the master of such vessel pending the completion of the examination and decision. The cost of such detention and of the return of any such alien shall be borne by the owners of the vessel bringing such alien to the United States.

(d) Any master who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such failure, and may be required to remove any such alien from the vessel before it shall be granted clearance.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 3. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and such list must show the name, birthplace, last residence, and destination of every alien on board such vessel, whether in transit through the United States or destined to a foreign country, and whether or not in possession of an immigration visa. Such list must be verified by the master or commanding officer of the vessel by his oath administered by the collector of customs or his deputy, or by the consular officer of the United States at the port of departure, if there be one at such port, or by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, if there be one at such port, and, if the vessel sails from a port at which there is no consular officer or immigrant inspector, then by the master or commanding officer before the customs officer clearing the vessel. The oath may be administered by the master or commanding officer before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths for general purposes within the jurisdiction of the United States. The master or commanding officer will be required to state under oath whether the list contains the names of all aliens on board the vessel, and if not, the reason why the name of any alien is omitted. The master or commanding officer will be required to state under oath whether the vessel has on board any alien who has been refused admission to the United States at any port, and if so, the name of such alien, the port at which he was refused admission, and whether or not he has been returned to the country whence he came. The master or commanding officer will be required to state under oath whether any alien on board the vessel has been ordered deported from the United States, and if so, the name of such alien, and whether or not he has been returned to the country whence he came. The master or commanding officer will be required to state under oath whether any alien on board the vessel has been granted a visa by a consular officer, and if so, the name of such alien, the number and date of such visa, and the consular office by which granted. The master or commanding officer will be required to state under oath whether any alien on board the vessel has been granted a passport by the Secretary of Labor, and if so, the name of such alien, the number and date of such passport, and the place where granted. The master or commanding officer will be required to state under oath whether any alien on board the vessel has been granted a permit by the Secretary of Labor to proceed in transit through the United States, and if so, the name of such alien, the number and date of such permit

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness of such alien from the United States.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a liability to deport such alien seaman, which liability shall not be discharged by the payment of the head tax.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel or the master to deport such alien seaman on such vessel will cause him to be detained on account thereof beyond the time of its departure, and that such detention is unnecessary, he may issue a certificate to such effect, and such vessel may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens or alien members for the crews (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company; when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged; and whether those to be hired on the return journey or not as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and prior to the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who may thereafter be employed on board; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such officer lists of the alien employees who have been discharged on board; and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired on board, during the time the vessel was in port, and the reasons for their discharge, and the cause for leaving. If any such owner, agent, consignee, or master fails to comply with the requirements of this section, he shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains pending; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act therein has been served, the deposit specified in rule 33 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has been employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the Canadian or Mexican borders, or between such ports, unless such alien seaman has been granted a landing certificate by the Secretary of Labor or by such person or persons as he may designate for the purpose, and has been issued a certificate of identification by the Secretary of Labor as provided in section 4 of the Act of May 22, 1918, as amended by section 3 of the Act of June 21, 1930, or has been granted a visa as a nonimmigrant seaman by an American consular officer. Any such alien seaman employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the Canadian or Mexican borders, or between such ports, shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of the Act of February 5, 1917, to the country whence he came, or to the country in which he resided and from which he was brought to the United States, as the Secretary of Labor may direct, at the cost of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws current at the time the deportation is ordered. Any such alien seaman who has been granted a landing certificate by the Secretary of Labor or by such person or persons as he may designate for the purpose, and who has been issued a certificate of identification by the Secretary of Labor as provided in section 4 of the Act of May 22, 1918, as amended by section 3 of the Act of June 21, 1930, or who has been granted a visa as a nonimmigrant seaman by an American consular officer, and who is found on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the Canadian or Mexican borders, or between such ports, after the vessel has departed from the last port in the United States at which it was required by the immigration officials to touch

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place if space in the hold of the vessel, vessel, consigned, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, how and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether they intend to be back on board the vessel on sailing from the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens, according as may be the fact; and such lists shall be prepared in the form and manner required by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of such master, purser, or other officer of such vessel, which oath or affirmation the officer administering the same is hereby authorized to make, and shall contain such information touching each alien named therein as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and such other information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such master, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such master, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed thereon at the time of the arrival of the vessel but who left vessel prior to the departure of the vessel, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of all those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such master, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid in the case of any alien employed thereon at the time of the arrival of the vessel but who left vessel prior to the departure of the vessel, or in the case of the failure of such master, agent, consignee, or master to report any such alien who has illegally landed from the vessel, or in the case of the failure of such master, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of all those who have deserted or landed; and in case any such master, agent, consignee, or master shall refuse to answer any question touching the information required in relation to any such alien, or shall willfully answer falsely touching any such information, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each alien concerning whom any such refusal or false answer shall be made, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the collection of the duties imposed by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such duties, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deliver alien seaman's identification certificate by the immigration officer at the port of arrival.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel cannot be used as such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of actual necessity, and in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor under such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory (which term shall for the purpose of this section include Canada, Mexico, Newfoundland, the West Indies, Panama, the Canal Zone, and Cuba) shall not permit any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or two days after such seaman on board after such inspection or to depart such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the medical examiner to be detained for treatment, or because of actual necessity, unless such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master has obtained a permit from the Secretary of Labor so to do, or shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deliver alien seaman's identification certificate by the immigration officer at the port of arrival.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel cannot be used as such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 30 of said act, shall have been waived, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, C. Hansen, master, of the M. S. Alphonse Ossen, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 30, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the last port of call before arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (form 434) shall not be delivered on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all alien employees on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed at the port of arrival; or place contemplated so much of such information as may be in the possession of the master, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who may have been employed thereon at the time of the arrival of the vessel but who may have ceased to be employed thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted the vessel: and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid, he shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be cleared pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty; and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains an unpaid lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been delivered, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act therein, and such fine has been paid, or a sufficient deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the strictly temporary detention of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not obtain upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after readmittance by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector pointing the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival a list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and, when practicable, those to be employed in the port of arrival; to state separately the names of all aliens who will be discharged in the port of arrival, as far as known, and the intended destination of each such alien; to report the sickness or death of any alien during the voyage, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon in the time of per debentures, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of such aliens, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid, if required by the Secretary of Labor, he shall be liable to the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master is hereby required to make oath before any immigrant inspector to the correctness of the lists so delivered by him, and for any omission or false statement therein he incurred the penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above provided: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative has prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 32 of said Act unless such penalty need served, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board the alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located for each such offense $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a failure to detain or deport after treatment by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of the fact that he was employed on such vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is unable to secure the payment thereof to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, such alien shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

Immigration Service
PORT TOWNSEND, WASH.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the wharf at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens required by section 8 of the act of February 20, 1907 (Form 628) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When no arriving aliens are on board, the master or other officer in charge of the vessel shall indorse on the manifest "NONE" across the face thereof.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from a foreign port or in place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of entry list or manifest of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position each respectively held in the ship's company, when and where they were severally engaged, the intended destination of each alien who may be destined to the United States as far as known, the last permanent residence of each alien as given in the ship's articles, and such additional information relative thereto as may be required by the Secretary of Labor or by such immigration officer, in which list shall be stated whether each alien has been in possession of a ticket through to his ultimate destination, and whether he has been assisted in coming by any other person or corporation, and the amount contributed by each such person or corporation toward the purchase of the ticket of each such alien, together with such information as may be required by such officer to enable him to properly administer the provisions of this act relative to the admission of aliens. Such list or manifest shall be subscribed and sworn to before the immigration officer at the port of arrival by the master or other officer of such vessel, and deposited with him by the master or commanding officer of such vessel before any of the passengers are landed at such port. Such officer may administer such oath required by this section and may, without fee or charge, take affidavits in duplicate to the information required by this section to be furnished by masters of vessels. Any master or commanding officer who knowingly refuses to deliver such list or manifest, or who knowingly or willfully lands or attempts to land any alien not duly listed therein, or who knowingly or willfully lands or attempts to land elsewhere than at a designated port of entry any alien brought to the United States on such vessel, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such alien so landed or attempted to be landed, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any such alien shall be deported in the manner provided by law, unless the Secretary of Labor shall adjudge that such alien may be allowed to enter or remain in the United States without detriment to the welfare of the country. Any such alien who shall enter or attempt to enter the United States in violation of this section shall be incapable of becoming a citizen of the United States.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative unit prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said act prompt cause exist, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board until such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the applicability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Front fines on alien seamen did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from which such fines are alleged to have been collected, or if the master of such vessel is a transferee, shall be primarily liable for such fines, but such vessel shall also be liable for such fines in case the master fails to pay the same after demand therefor. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the applicability of this subdivision to such vessel, or while any fines imposed hereunder remain unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seamen he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

When an alternate manifest is furnished, the word "duplicate" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether those to be landed at that port intend to become citizens of the United States, and the final destination of all such aliens, so far as known, and such other information as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of each owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to each immigration officer, at whatever port, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of each owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to each immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been added to the crew since the arrival of the vessel, and the cause of the absence of each. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver any list required by this section, or who delivers an incorrect list, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located a sum not exceeding $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be cleared while any fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, or pending application for remission or mitigation thereof: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been transmitted, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said act, manifest been served, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the purpose of the quarantine laws, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if rejected by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Front fine an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after reinvestment by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be printed on plain tough approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspectors boarding the vessel as the boat of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 688) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "WORKAWAY," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place if shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the alien's country, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board the vessel at the port of arrival; to state concerning each such alien, following: his sex; whether married or single; calling or occupation; nationality; last residence; whether in possession of a ticket to any place in the United States and if so what place; whether in possession of money and if so how much, and whether less than $50 or $50 or more; whether going to join relatives or friends and if so what relatives or friends and their names and complete address; whether ever before in the United States and if so when and where; whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity and if so what; whether a polygamist; whether an anarchist; whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, or agreement, expressed or implied, to perform labor in the United States; whether having a ticket or passage paid for by others or having money sent to him by others and if so by whom; whether he has been deported and if so how many times and the cause therefor; whether going to join a vessel and intending to leave the United States in the vessel on which he arrives; whether he intends to become a citizen of the United States; whether he is a male or female between the ages of sixteen and sixty, and whether able to read or write; the nationality, last residence, and race or people to which he belongs; the port in the United States at which he intends to land; and such other facts and particulars in addition to those specified as may be required by the Secretary of Labor at the time of the arrival of the vessel at the port of arrival. The master of the vessel or, in his absence, the person in charge of the vessel shall subscribe and verify by oath the lists required by this section at the time of the vessel's arrival at the port of arrival. The master of the vessel or, in his absence, the person in charge of the vessel shall, at the time of subscribing the lists required by this section, deliver the same to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and no person shall be allowed to land from any vessel arriving at any port in the United States until the immigrant inspector has inspected the lists required by this section to be delivered by the master, or person in charge of the vessel, and has completed the physical examination of the persons hereinafter required to be examined by the medical officer of the port, and has indorsed on the lists his permit for the landing of the persons examined: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alternate departure, removal, or detention of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seamen (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), and has indorsed on the list or lists a permit to land, or a certificate that no such permit is required, shall not permit any alien seaman employed on such vessel to land from such vessel at any port in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alternate detention, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

(b) Every alien seaman employed on any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States who is desirous of landing on board any vessel while in the United States shall be examined by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for admission to the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alternate detention, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

(c) Every alien seaman who does not have in his possession a valid passport viséed by the consular officer at the port or place of departure, if such there be, and by the diplomatic representative of the United States in the country to which the vessel is destined, if there be such representative in the country, and by the consular officer of the United States at the port of arrival, and who is desirous of landing on board any vessel while in the United States shall be examined by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for admission to the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alternate detention, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seamen (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or has indorsed on the list or lists a permit to land, or a certificate that no such permit is required, shall not permit any alien seaman employed on such vessel to land from such vessel at any port in the United States from any place outside the Panama Canal Zone, or from any place in the Territory of Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, or the Virgin Islands, unless and until the master of such vessel shall have delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival lists containing the information required by section 36 of this Act concerning such alien seaman, and such alien seaman shall have been duly certified by the immigrant inspector to the master of such vessel and to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival as having been found upon examination by him to be in all respects entitled to enter the United States under this Act, and such certification shall have been indorsed by such master on the list or lists delivered by him to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival.

(b) Every alien seaman who does not have in his possession a valid passport viséed by the consular officer at the port or place of departure, if such there be, and by the diplomatic representative of the United States in the country to which the vessel is destined, if there be such representative in the country, and by the consular officer of the United States at the port of arrival, and who is desirous of landing on board any vessel while in the United States shall be examined by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for admission to the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alternate detention, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seamen (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or has indorsed on the list or lists a permit to land, or a certificate that no such permit is required, shall not permit any alien seaman employed on such vessel while in the United States from any place outside the United States to land from such vessel at any port in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alternate detention, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States

NOTE.—Full text of division 25 is as follows: "Whoever shall bring into or harbor any person who does not appear to an inspector that the entry of such person into the United States is not prohibited by this Act, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection, or attempt to conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such person in any place, including any building or any means of transportation, or who shall encourage or induce any such person to come to, enter, or reside within the United States, knowing or having reason to know that such person is unlawfully in the United States, shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years, or by a fine of not more than $2,000 for each such person, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according as separate manifests immigrants and non-immigrants, as defined by the immigration Act of 1917; and also according as separate manifests those aliens traveling in the first class and the so-called tourist class, where there is such part the multiple of technical subjects; and those whose races do not pass such multiple. The names of all members of a family should appear upon the same manifest sheet when such travel in the same class; but if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Line).—The entry in this column should be consecutive in the first class and numbered separately; as, 1 to ..., 2 to ..., etc.

Column 2 (Last name).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 3 (Age).—The entry should be given in years; if under 1 year, state number of months, as 6/12, 9/12, etc.

Column 4 (Married or single).—The answer should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 5 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arrived, as, for example: Clerk, cashier, stenographer, saleswoman, bookkeeper, accountant, manager, agent, salesman, merchant, dealer, peddler, tailor, seamstress, dressmaker, milliner, operator, engineer, machinist, fireman, conductor, motorman, brakeman, switchman, foreman, laborer, farmer, farm laborer, gardener, stockman, herder, cowboy, sailor, fisherman, miner, weaver, spinner, piecer, loom fixer, textile worker, glass worker, iron worker, steel worker, tinsmith, coppersmith, boilermaker, machinist, engineer, or other industrial designations.

Column 6 (Last permanent residence).—Actual or at intended residence of 1 year to the place from which the alien came to the United States. The last country in which alien resided for 1 year or more.

Column 7 (Final destination).—The intended residence for 1 year or more in the United States. The place to which alien is destined for permanent residence. If alien is destined to a city, give the name of the city, state, province, or district of last permanent residence. It is important for statistical purposes that abbreviations or initials should not be used. If alien is destined to a farm, give the name of the county, city or town, state, province, or district of last permanent residence. It is important for statistical purposes that abbreviations or initials should not be used. If alien is destined to a farm, give the name of the county, city or town, state, province, or district of last permanent residence. It is important for statistical purposes that abbreviations or initials should not be used.

Column 8 (Final destination).—The answer to this question shall be the United States (city or town) of intended future permanent residence. It within the United States; country, if intended future permanent residence. The entry should show definitely the place (city or town) of intended residence. An intended residence of 1 year shall constitute permanent residence.

Column 9 (Ticket).—Whether ticket is complete or incomplete, and whether ticket reads through to destination or not. Whether ticket is prepaid or not. Whether ticket is first, second, third, or steerage class.

Column 10 (Whether in possession of $50, and if less, how much).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No" as the alien has or has not $50 in his possession. Money includes cash, drafts, money orders, and travelers' checks. Any amount of money in excess of $50 should be counted, no matter how large the amount.

Column 11 (Whether going to join relative or friend, and if so, what relative, where, and complete address).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No" as the alien is going to join a relative or friend, and if so, what relative, where, and complete address.

Column 12 (Whether ever before in the United States, and if so, when, where, and how long ago, and whether has been deported or not, and cause).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No" as the alien has been in the United States before; and if so, the year (or period of years) and place, as, 1881, Philadelphia. Where in the United States most alien once previously resided last, residence only, and give exact or approximate date of last departure from the United States.

Column 13 (Whether going to join a relative or friend, and if so, what relative, where, and complete address).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No" as the alien is going to join a relative or friend, and if so, what relative, where, and complete address; and if a relative, the exact relationship.

Columns 14 to 38.—These columns are for the use of the Commissioner of Immigration and the examining officers in the examination of aliens. However, in overcrowding 30 it alien has been excluded, deported under warrant within 1 year, has at any time, subsequent to the passage of the act, been found insane or afflicted with any form of mental disease, or has been found to be a pauper, professional beggar, vagrant, or has been found to be afflicted with tuberculosis in any form or with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or has been found guilty of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or has been found guilty of a violation of any law regulating the importation of prostitutes, or has been found to be a polygamist, or has been found to be an anarchist, or has been found to be an assisted alien, or has been found to be a person likely to become a public charge, or has been found to be a person who has been deported as an alien who has been found to be a person who has been deported as an alien who has been found to be a person who has been deported as an alien who

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

TAX. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the liens required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been satisfied, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative tax prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act remains open secured, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury certified by the master, to a hospital or to such place as may be approved by the Secretary of Labor, and in no case shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner(s), arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner(s), thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof thereof with the collector of customs.

(b) Every fine on alien seamen did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section by the master of such vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense may be collected by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seamen he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below should be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of entry (Form 633) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon the arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively taken on board, and whether they intend to land at the port of arrival; to list concealed aliens as soon as discovered, and to report to the Secretary of Labor forthwith the arrival of such vessel and the presence of any such alien on board, specifying more particularly the facts and circumstances in connection therewith so enabled to be reported; and such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master of the vessel to deliver to each alien who is to be detained on board or at quarantine a list containing the name of such alien, and also the manner of the disposition made of him, and before the departure of the vessel from any port of the United States to deliver to the master a list containing the names of those, if any, who have been detained on board for examination, and the final disposition made of each case: Provided, That the master of any vessel who shall have complied with the provisions of this section shall not be liable to the penalty provided in section 35 of this Act for the illegal landing of any alien from such vessel: Provided further, That the master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and before the vessel shall be admitted to entry, a separate list containing the names of all aliens employed on board such vessel who have been ordered to be left behind for the reason that they were found to be suffering from a contagious disease, a mental or physical defect of such a character as to render them likely to become a public charge, or an immoral class of aliens, specifying in each case the fact and reason for such exclusion, and the vessel shall be subject to the payment of the head tax in all cases in which such list is not delivered as herein required.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act therein have been served, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 11. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has been employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detained on board or in such locality as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or otherwise than on board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry shall have granted a permit. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the sanity or mental examination of any alien seaman on board after such inspection or to depart such seaman if reported by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to be afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the question of the sanity or mental examination of any alien seaman in respect of whom such inspection or report is made, but such clearance shall not relieve the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel from the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 26, 1917, or any amendment thereof, or any other provision of law applicable thereto.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall depart from the United States during the progress of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, or who shall be discharged from such vessel, shall be deported at the cost of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service unless the Secretary of Labor shall otherwise direct. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel who shall refuse or fail to deport any such alien seaman when ordered so to do by the Secretary of Labor shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance while any such alien seaman remains on board after such inspection or to depart such seaman if reported by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, until paid to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of determination of the inability to pay the cost of such one, or until the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall have entered into a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel would cause undue hardship to such seamen he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

I, Olav Bardahl, master of the Norwegian M.S. Kvarnberg, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 11 and 50, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board vun vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent islands, or who is destined to land in the United States, except temporarily for inspection or to secure his discharge, or who has been refused a visa as a nonimmigrant by the Secretary of State, shall be permitted to land in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of vun vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who knowingly or negligently brings to the United States any alien seaman (which term as used in all cases shall include a person employed on board such vessel) who is afflicted with any of the following-named diseases or mental or physical defects, to wit: Idiocy, imbecility, epilepsy, leprosy, tuberculosis in any form, or trachoma, or who has been deported as an alien seaman on board vun vessel, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien so brought, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the application of this subdivision (a) to any physician or surgeon employed by the owners of such vessel who shall certify to the Secretary of Labor that such person has been duly examined by him and found to be free from any of the diseases or defects hereinbefore described.

(b) Any alien seaman (which term as used in all cases shall include a person employed on board such vessel) who is afflicted with any of the following-named diseases or mental or physical defects, to wit: Idiocy, imbecility, epilepsy, leprosy, tuberculosis in any form, or trachoma, or who has been deported as an alien seaman on board vun vessel, shall be detained on board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such alien seaman, or shall be removed from such vessel and detained for such inspection or for deportation by the master of such vessel when and as directed by such immigration officer at the port of arrival: Provided, That any such alien seaman may be permitted to land temporarily for medical treatment, or for burial, or for such other reasons as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, under such regulations and such bond as he may require, but such bond shall not be required in the case of any such alien seaman who is in possession of a valid unexpired passport issued by the country of which he claims nationality and which complies with the requirements of section 2 of the Immigration Act of 1917, unless the Secretary of Labor has reason to believe that such alien seaman is afflicted with one of the diseases or defects specified in subdivision (a) of this section.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that any vun vessel has been used in violation of subdivision (a) or (b) of this section, such vessel shall not be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of the penalty or penalties incurred, and such penalty or penalties shall constitute a lien upon such vessel which may be enforced by libel in rem, and such vessel may be detained by the collector of customs until such penalty or penalties are paid or their payment secured to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor or the courts: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the liability to the payment of such penalty or penalties upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty or penalties as may be finally determined by the Secretary of Labor or the courts upon the application of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel: Provided further, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such penalty or penalties upon the deposit of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman had not obtained vun the certificate mentioned in the proviso to subdivision (a) of this section shall be prima facie evidence that such alien seaman was brought to the United States from a foreign contiguous territory, or that he was temporarily by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman by reason of inadequate facilities, lack of room in the vessel, or refusal of the consul to issue the necessary certificate.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(f) Section 35 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, masters, and as to all seamen, entitled in the United States prior to the encashment of the same.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness of such alien seaman not due to his own negligence, pending the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, or on board any other vessel on which he may be employed, or on board any vessel on which he may be detailed for passage to a foreign port, unless a bond in the penal sum of $300 with sufficient surety or sureties approved by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien seaman will depart from the United States within such period as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and will comply with all the requirements of the immigration laws with respect to aliens, shall have been given by the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived, or by the owner of any vessel on board which such alien seaman is detailed for passage to a foreign port, and approved by the Secretary of Labor or such person as he may designate for the purpose. Such bond may be sued for and recovered by any district attorney in the name of the United States in the district in which the vessel on board which such alien seaman arrived may be found. Upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such bond with the Secretary of Labor or such person as he may designate for the purpose, such alien seaman shall be entitled to a certificate to that effect, and upon the presentation of such certificate to the master of the vessel on board which such alien seaman arrived, or to the master of any vessel on board which such alien seaman is detailed for passage to a foreign port, such alien seaman shall be permitted to land temporarily from such vessel without giving bond.

(b) Any alien seaman who deserts or remains in the United States in violation of law shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor or such person as he may designate for the purpose, and the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation shall be paid from the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws.

(c) Any alien seaman who shall land in violation of law, or who shall fail or refuse to depart with the vessel on board which he arrived, or on board any other vessel on which he may be employed, or who shall fail to report for deportation when required, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(d) Any alien seaman who shall desert while in the United States from any vessel upon which he arrived shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor or such person as he may designate for the purpose, and the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation shall be paid from the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman by reason of illness contracted while in the service of the vessel, he may cause such alien seaman to be detained on board such vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, E. E. Evans, Master, of the Br. ss Scottpool, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from application B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 50, Act of May 26, 1924, mostly appear below.

E. E. Evans

Sworn to before me this 23rd day of May, 1924.

[illegible]
Immigrant Inspector.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector, preferably the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (form 524) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. When an alternate address is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively applied or engaged, and specifying those to be landed at the port of arrival; or lists containing no more of such aliens, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien deserted or secreted himself on board such vessel; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien shall have been illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been landed and the cause for such discharge, and the said lists of such alien employees shall be verified, respectively, so as to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master as to deliver either of the those, if any, who have declared on landing: but in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such alien seamen such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above as specified is levied the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above as specified, and in the event such fine is unpaid, while it remains unpaid, not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been delivered, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative officer prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act, namely been served, the deposit specified in rule 55 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or treatment to such exceptions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to obtain on board the alien seamen employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seamen (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to obtain such seamen on board after each inspection or to deport such seamen if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deport such seaman as required by this section.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens mentioned in section 12 (Form 528) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 528) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "non-quota" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed at the port of arrival; or lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed at the port of arrival, and the intended destination of each alien; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to each immigration officer at the port of departure lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, and specifying those who have been landed at each previous port, and the destination of each alien; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to report to each immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any alien employed on such vessel has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, the circumstances connected with his landing, and his destination; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to each immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employees who were not employed when the vessel arrived at the port, and specifying those who have been landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, the circumstances connected with his landing, and his destination; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver lists as herein required, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the collector of customs of the district in which the port is situated the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as aforesaid, to be recovered as other penalties and forfeitures are recovered: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inquiry to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to a fine prescribed by section 35 of said Act remains open, except as provided by section 35 of said Act.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily and solely for medical treatment, or because of the necessity of replacement in the vessel on which he arrived, and shall in no case be permitted to land unless a bond in the sum of $500 with sufficient surety shall be given to the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located for the return of such alien to the vessel on which he arrived or the delivery of such alien to the master of another vessel for the return of such alien to the country from which he came to the United States, at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, such return to be made within five years from the date of such bond. Such alien seaman shall be detained on board the vessel on which he arrived or on board such other vessel as the master may designate, or in such place on shore as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge of the port, pending the decision as to whether he may be allowed to land, and shall be subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Such regulations shall provide for the safekeeping of such alien seaman, for his prompt return to the vessel or other vessel or country specified, and for his detention on board or elsewhere pending such return. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of law shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act. Any such alien seaman who shall land temporarily for medical treatment shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act if he becomes a public charge within two years after such landing from any cause originating prior to his last arrival in the United States. Any such alien seaman who shall land temporarily because of the necessity of replacement in the vessel on which he arrived shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act if he becomes a public charge within two years after such landing from any cause originating prior to such replacement in the vessel. Any such alien seaman who shall land temporarily for medical treatment or because of the necessity of replacement in the vessel on which he arrived, and who shall not be deported within the period allowed by the immigration officer in charge of the port, shall be deported upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, and the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation shall be paid from the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of law

The law described below shall be observed on board vessels documented by the Department and be kept for reference by the inspector of hulls and the inspector of boilers at each inspection of the vessel. The law shall be enforced by the masters of the vessels. The law applies to vessels of the United States and to foreign vessels while in the waters of the United States. The penalty for violation of the law is a fine of not more than $100 or imprisonment for not more than 6 months, or both, at the discretion of the court. (See R.S. 4463, as amended by act of June 9, 1874.)

SEC. 36. That upon written application to the United States consul in the district in a foreign port where no consul is located, or to the commanding officer of a vessel of the United States in a foreign port where no consul is located, the master of any vessel of the United States may, when about to sail from such port, make oath before such consul or commanding officer that the crew of his vessel is complete, stating the number of the crew and the capacity in which each member is serving, and that to the best of his knowledge and belief all the members of the crew are on board and intend to proceed with the vessel to the port of destination; and if any member of the crew is absent at the time of sailing, the master shall state in such oath the cause of such absence, so far as known to him, and the consul or commanding officer shall indorse upon the crew list a statement of the facts presented by the master. Any master who shall knowingly make false statement in such oath shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 37. That upon the arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place if sailed from the port of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel, or the commanding officer of a vessel of the United States from a foreign port or place if sailed from the port of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel, a written list or manifest of all persons on board such vessel, including the master, officers, crew, passengers, and stowaways, if any, specifying the nationality, last permanent residence, and destination of each person who is not a citizen of the United States, and the number of pieces of baggage belonging to each person, shall be delivered by the master to the customs officer at the port of entry before any of the persons enumerated in the list shall be allowed to land from the vessel, and before the vessel shall be allowed to proceed to another port of the United States. Any master who shall knowingly fail to deliver such list or manifest, or who shall knowingly make false statement in such list or manifest as to the persons on board his vessel, or any of them, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The list or manifest required by this section shall be delivered by the master to the customs officer at the port of entry before any of the passengers are landed from the vessel, and before the vessel shall be allowed to proceed to another port of the United States. Any master who shall knowingly fail to deliver such list or manifest, or who shall knowingly make false statement in such list or manifest as to the persons on board his vessel, or any of them, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The list or manifest required by this section shall be delivered by the master to the customs officer at the port of entry before any of the passengers are landed from the vessel, and before the vessel shall be allowed to proceed to another port of the United States. Any master who shall knowingly fail to deliver such list or manifest, or who shall knowingly make false statement in such list or manifest as to the persons on board his vessel, or any of them, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The list or manifest required by this section shall be delivered by the master to the customs officer at the port of entry before any of the passengers are landed from the vessel, and before the vessel shall be allowed to proceed to another port of the United States. Any master who shall knowingly fail to deliver such list or manifest, or who shall knowingly make false statement in such list or manifest as to the persons on board his vessel, or any of them, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The list or manifest required by this section shall be delivered by the master to the customs officer at the port of entry before any of the passengers are landed from the vessel, and before the vessel shall be allowed to proceed to another port of the United States. Any master who shall knowingly fail to deliver such list or manifest, or who shall knowingly make false statement in such list or manifest as to the persons on board his vessel, or any of them, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been collected, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by this section or of that prescribed by section 35 of said Act, has been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 21. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employment on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of the necessities as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 25. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport any alien seaman on board such vessel when required so to do by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or who fails to deport any alien seaman on board such vessel when ordered so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who fails to pay the cost of maintenance of such alien seaman while detained at a hospital pursuant to section 32, or who fails to pay the cost of maintenance of such alien seaman while detained at a hospital pursuant to section 33, shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination and payment of such fine, or while a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Front fine is not to be remitted unless it is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that the vessel on which the alien arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master to such vessel as a deserter, shall be given such evidence as to fail-ure to detain or deport alien seaman as the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived will cause undue hardship, but such alien seaman may be permitted to land temporarily, he may cause such alien seaman to be detained on board or otherwise, at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but no fine shall be imposed under this section.

The list described below shall be prepared on plain white paper approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector promptly upon the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or duplicate of same is often required by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival (from 6 to 7 hours after the vessel docks), but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving steamer is at anchor in the stream, the list shall be made out and delivered by the master before the vessel leaves the dock at the last port.

SEC. 28. That upon arriving within the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position which they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board the vessel when she leaves port, and the intended destination of each alien. Any master who knowingly fails to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival lists containing as nearly as may be the information required by this section as to the aliens employed on such vessel, or who knowingly lands from the vessel, except in case of accident, any alien employed thereon at the time of the vessel's departure from any foreign port or place without the permission of the Secretary of Labor, or who knowingly lands from the vessel, except as provided in section 16 of this Act, any alien employed on such vessel who has not been included in the lists required by this section, or who knowingly refuses to permit any immigrant inspector to enter the vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or to question any person on board thereof touching the matters required to be stated in the lists herein provided for, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The master of any vessel bringing an alien who is afflicted with any loathsome disease, or with a mental or physical defect of a character which is likely to affect his admissibility to the United States, shall detain such alien on board the vessel at such time previous to the vessel's departure from the foreign port as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall report the illness or defect of such alien to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival, and such alien shall be detained on board the vessel at the discretion of the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival until the examination of such alien has been completed and he has been certified to be admissible to the United States or has been ordered deported pursuant to law. Upon the refusal of the master to comply with the provisions of this section he shall pay a penalty of $300 for each and every such offense, and no clearance shall be granted to the vessel while the master thereof is in default in the payment of such penalty. Upon the refusal of the master to deliver the lists required by this section, he shall pay a penalty of $10 for each and every alien concerning whom complete and correct information is not contained in the lists, but no penalty shall be imposed if the master shall show that he has made due diligence to obtain such information and that the failure to obtain it was excusable or was not his fault. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit any penalty or portion thereof imposed under this section.

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or treatment in a hospital to which sick seamen are regularly taken by the owners of the vessel on which they arrived, or in case of the death of any such seaman, or in instance of shipwreck, and shall in all cases be deported as soon as practicable after the vessel arrives at the port to which it is bound, and pending deportation to which he shall be detained in such manner as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. Any master who lands or permits to land any alien seaman in violation of this section shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each such alien landed, and the cost of maintenance, detention, and deportation of such alien, to be recovered from the vessel. The list of arrivals of aliens at each port shall be certified on oath by the master of the vessel to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (from 6 to 7 hours after the vessel docks), but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving steamer is at anchor in the stream, the list shall be made out and delivered by the master before the vessel leaves the dock at the last port.

SEC. 28. That upon arriving within the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position which they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board when she leaves port, and the intended destination of each alien, so far as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and until the alien is duly discharged in the port of arrival lists containing as nearly as may be the information required by this section as to the aliens employed on such vessel, arriving at a description of such alien, so far as may be ascertained, all cases in which any alien employed on such vessel is intended to be landed from the

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector pointed out by the master to the port at which the vessel is to arrive, but shall not be delivered on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port as the Secretary of Labor may designate. The list or a duplicate thereof must be kept on board the vessel at the place where the same is to be inspected by the immigration officers at the port of arrival, and must be open to their official inspection at all times until the inspection is completed. Any master who refuses to present the list for inspection or to deliver such list when required by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, or who refuses to land any alien duly certified to be entitled to land by the immigration officers, or who lands or permits to land any alien before the physical and mental examination by the medical officers, or who lands or permits to land any alien who has been certified by the medical officers to be afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each and every such offense, or by imprisonment for a term of not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 2. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, purser, surgeon, or other officer of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively engaged, and by whom, and specifying those of the persons named in the lists who have been certified by the proper consular officer as the persons whose photographs are attached to their passports; and such lists shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department of Labor and furnished by the immigration officers at the ports of arrival. Any master, purser, surgeon, or other officer of such vessel who refuses to deliver such lists, or who refuses to answer truthfully to the best of his knowledge and belief all questions propounded to him concerning the persons named in such lists, or who refuses to the immigration officers access to the vessel for the purpose of examining the persons named in such lists, or who refuses to detain any alien on board such vessel when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who refuses to deliver to the proper immigration officers at the port of arrival any alien duly certified by the consular officers to be entitled to land, or who refuses to aid and assist in the removal of any alien detained for special inquiry, or who refuses to carry back to the country whence he came any alien ordered to be deported from the United States, or who refuses to pay the cost of the maintenance of any alien pending the decision of his case, or who refuses to pay the cost of his removal to the country whence he came in case he is ordered deported, or who refuses to pay any fine or penalty imposed upon him by the provisions of this Act, or who refuses to pay the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 26, 1917, upon any alien who has been admitted to the United States and who is found to be illegally in the United States at any time within three years thereafter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term of not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 3. That any person who shall bring into the United States any alien for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose, or who shall import any alien into the United States for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose, or who shall hold any alien for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose, in pursuance of such unlawful importation, or who shall keep, maintain, control, support, or harbor in any house or other place for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose any alien, in pursuance of such unlawful importation, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not more than $5,000 and by imprisonment for not more than five years. Any alien who shall be found an inmate of or connected with the management of a house of prostitution or other immoral purpose house, or who shall be found to have been such inmate or connected with such management at any time within three years after he shall have entered the United States, shall be taken into custody and deported as provided by this Act. Any alien who shall, after he has been excluded and deported or has departed from the United States in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, attempt thereafter to enter the United States, or who shall enter or be found within the United States in violation of this Act, shall be arrested and deported as provided by this Act, and in addition shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year, unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the court before which he is taken for trial that he did not come for any of the purposes mentioned in this section directly or indirectly from a country contiguous to the United States or from adjacent islands.

SEC. 4. That the following classes of aliens shall be excluded from admission into the United States: All idiots, insane persons, epileptics, and persons who have been insane within five years previous; persons who have had two or more attacks of insanity at any time previously; paupers; persons likely to become a public charge; professional beggars; vagrants; persons afflicted with tuberculosis in any form or with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease; persons who have been convicted of or admit having committed a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; polygamists, or persons who practice polygamy or believe in or advocate the practice of polygamy; anarchists, or persons who believe in or advocate the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States, or of all forms of law, or the assassination of public officials; prostitutes, or persons coming into the United States for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose; persons who procure or attempt to procure or import prostitutes or persons for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose; persons who have been deported under any of the provisions of this Act, and who may again seek admission within one year from the date of such deportation, unless prior to their reembarkation at a place outside the United States or application therefor the Secretary of Labor shall specially consent to their admission; persons who are coming in consequence of any solicitation, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, unless otherwise specifically provided for in this Act; persons who have been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, although pardoned; persons who have come in violation of the contract labor laws; persons who are under 16 years of age, unless accompanied by father or mother or legal guardian; persons who are over 60 years of age, unless accompanied by husband or wife or child or parent; persons who are physically capable of reading but who can not read the English language or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew or Yiddish: Provided, That any admissible alien may bring in his parents or grandparents over 60 years of age, and any admissible alien may bring in his husband or wife or unmarried children under the age of 16 years, regardless of their ability to read, and any such relatives specifically excluded may be admitted in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor; persons who are feeble-minded; persons who are epileptics; persons who are insane; persons who have had two or more attacks of insanity at any time previously; persons who are paupers; persons who are professional beggars; persons who are vagrants; persons who are afflicted with tuberculosis in any form; persons who are afflicted with a loathsome or with a dangerous contagious disease; persons who have been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; persons who are polygamists; persons who believe in or advocate the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States; persons who believe in or advocate the assassination of public officials; persons who are prostitutes; persons who procure or attempt to procure or import prostitutes; persons who have been deported under any of the provisions of this Act; persons who are coming in consequence of any solicitation

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury incurred while in the employ of such vessel, and such alien seaman shall be detained on board or at such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival pending the final determination as to the cause of his exclusion. The decision of the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival may be reviewed by the Secretary of Labor, whose decision shall be final.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board such vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel duly inspected and certified by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to deport any such seaman on board such vessel upon such inspection or to deport such seaman if detained by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or in a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall depart from the contiguous territory of the United States on vessel or who shall be refused a permit to land in the United States from any place outside thereof, or from any vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a similar fact to detain or deport every such seaman who has not been granted by the master of such vessel a certificate, shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have reasonable cause to believe that any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, has been or is about to be employed on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is destined to such seaman be not allowed clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens so mentioned to be typewritten (Form 688) shall not be destroyed or mailed, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master, forthwith to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position each respectively holds in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively examined and by whom, and where they were born, with the last permanent residence of each, and specifying those to be held on board the vessel at the time of its arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens, as the case may be. Such lists shall be prepared in the port of arrival in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall be responsible for the correctness of such lists. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner who refuses to deliver to such immigration officer a true list containing the names of all aliens employed on the vessel in the capacity and for the service hereinbefore mentioned, or who knowingly lists, registers, or causes to be registered the name of any alien employed thereon at the time of the departure of such vessel from any foreign port or place who was not employed at the time of the arrival of such vessel at a port of the United States, or who knowingly lists, registers, or causes to be registered the name of any alien employed on such vessel who has been paid off and discharged, and who shall refuse to report such fact to the commissioner of immigration at the time of the arrival of such vessel at a port of the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 3. Clearance shall not be granted to any vessel until the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been duly executed, and not then unless notice of inability to file administrative fine prescribed by said section 36 or to fine prescribed by section 38 of said act therein noted, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or to secure his return as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the aliens coming in transit to foreign countries, or because of shipwreck or other casualty or emergency, or for such other reasons as may be deemed sufficient by the Secretary of Labor, but such seaman shall be deported in the same manner as provided in the case of other aliens excluded from admission to the United States and found unlawfully therein. Upon the certification by the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival that any alien seaman has been refused a landing, such seaman shall be deported as provided in this section, irrespective of the time limitations imposed by section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and regardless of the provisions of section 20 of said Act.

SEC. 25. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection shall in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who refuses to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located for each and every such failure to detain or refusal to deport such seaman the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who may be refused a landing from any vessel or who may be required to remain on board while such vessel is in port, shall be placed in the custody of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel and such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall furnish a sufficient bond or undertaking for the faithful performance of this obligation and for the payment of any expenses incurred in the maintenance, support, and transportation of such alien seaman. Such bond or undertaking shall be in such amount, not exceeding $1,000, as may be required by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, and with sufficient surety or sureties approved by the collector of customs.

(c) Every alien seaman who may be refused a landing from any vessel or who may be required to remain on board while such vessel is in port, and who shall not be returned by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel as a member thereof, shall be taken before a special board of inquiry, which shall be appointed by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, and which shall give such alien seaman a hearing, of which hearing due notice shall be given to the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, and determine whether such alien seaman shall be allowed to land temporarily or permanently in the United States or shall be deported to the country to which he belongs or from which he came to the United States, or to any country which may be willing to receive him, in accordance with the provisions of the immigration laws. Pending the decision of such board, such alien seaman shall be detained on board or at such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, and the cost of such detention shall be borne by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel. The decision of such board shall be final as to the right of such alien seaman to enter the United States, notwithstanding the provisions of section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, but shall not affect the final disposition of such alien seaman under the provisions of section 20 of said Act.

(d) Every alien seaman who may be refused a landing from any vessel or who may be required to remain on board while such vessel is in port, and who may be returned as a member of the crew of any vessel, shall be placed in the custody of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, and such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall furnish a sufficient bond or undertaking for the faithful performance of this obligation and for the payment of any expenses incurred in the maintenance, support, and transportation of such alien seaman. Such bond or undertaking shall be in such amount, not exceeding $1,000, as may be required by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, and with sufficient surety or sureties approved by the collector of customs.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall have granted permission for the removal of any alien seaman on board the vessel on which he arrived, and such alien seaman shall not be returned by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel as a member thereof, such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall pay to the collector of customs the sum of $1,000 for each such alien seaman, which sum shall be collected by the collector of customs in the manner provided by law for the collection of fines imposed by the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on plain forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be filled in on instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 528) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien member is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all alien employees on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the alien's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or entered, and description of those to be hold on board in the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, at such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, in case of any such alien employee, the cause of his severance from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and upon the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who before the departure of such vessel from the port of arrival had been employed thereon, and the cause of their severance from the service. It shall be the duty of the master of any such vessel to deliver to the immigration officer at the time of the departure of such vessel from the port of arrival a list containing the names of those, if any, who have been employed or hired on board such vessel at any time after the arrival at such port and who have not been previously reported, and the cause of their severance from the service. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver any list required of him by this section, or who refuses or neglects to report the name of any alien employee who has severed his employment on board such vessel, or who refuses or neglects to furnish any information in regard to any such alien employee required of him by the Secretary of Labor, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such offense.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative officer prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 32 of said Act of March 26, 1934, has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 14. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury certified by the Secretary of Labor, or his authorized representative, or to secure treatment for such sickness or injury, or because of illness of a member of the crew certified by the medical officer of the vessel, or to accompany a sick or injured member of the crew for treatment, or to attend the burial of a member of the crew, or because of other circumstances found by the Secretary of Labor to be sufficient to warrant the granting of such permit. Such seaman shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, upon the certificate of the medical officer of the vessel that he is afflicted with a disease which requires treatment for more than thirty days, or upon the certificate of the Secretary of Labor or his authorized representative that he is afflicted with insanity, tuberculosis, leprosy, or a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or upon the certificate of the Secretary of Labor or his authorized representative that he has been found to be a member of the class of persons excluded from admission into the United States by section 3 of the Act of February 5, 1917, other than persons coming within the provisions of section 4 (d) of said Act, or upon the certificate of the Secretary of Labor or his authorized representative that he has been found to be a member of the class of persons excluded from admission into the United States by section 3 of the Act of February 5, 1917, other than persons coming within the provisions of section 4 (d) of said Act, and that he cannot be cared for without becoming a public charge. Such deportation shall be at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the Act of February 5, 1917, unless the master, owner, agent, or consignee of the vessel on which such seaman arrived shall pay the cost of such deportation, or shall furnish a bond in such amount, not exceeding $300, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned upon the payment of such cost. Such seaman, if he is not deported within five years after the date of his entry, shall be deported in the manner provided in this section for the deportation of seamen excluded from admission,

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel as the boat is arriving, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 598) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "moreman," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed in the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens and the fact as to the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been landed in England, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists, if any, who were employed or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver such list, if required by the Secretary of Labor, for the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been transmitted, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act pending such determination, or a sum sufficient to cover such fine has been deposited.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury requiring treatment, or for the purpose of obtaining surgical appliances ordered before the departure of the vessel, certified by the medical officer in charge at the port of arrival and approved by such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to depart on board the vessel upon which employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of Secretary of Labor to do so. Bond to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) That any alien seaman who does not depart from the contiguous territory of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to depart on board such vessel.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall decide that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, [illegible], master, of the [illegible] MCM, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said vessel from [illegible] port or place during the past twenty-four months, to the best of my knowledge and belief; that I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 25, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's capacity, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board the vessel. Such lists shall be prepared in the port of arrival; or lists containing no more of such aliens shall be prepared in such port as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and upon the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and to deliver a transfer list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has been employed thereon, and to deliver lists of the aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's capacity, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those who have been discharged, and the cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from such vessel; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to so deliver either of the lists herein required, or to report any such case of illegal landing, or to make oath to any such report or list when required, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the imposition of the said penalty or the payment of such penalty: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question when deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been tendered, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fines prescribed by section 35 of said act prompt been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment; or because of illness, injury, or quarantine, or unless specifically authorized by the Secretary of Labor under such conditions as the Secretary may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to obtain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who or who fails to obtain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from which there is new reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deport alien seamen within the meaning of this section, but such vessel may be granted clearance upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover the cost of the maintenance of such alien seaman pending his departure, which deposit shall be refunded upon the production of the certificate of the immigration officer at the port of departure that such alien seaman has departed on a vessel other than a vessel of the nationality of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, or upon the production of such other evidence as may be satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor that such alien seaman has departed from the United States.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall cause any alien seaman to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

I, Ralph Johnson, Master, of the M/S Ellen Thorden, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly to said vessel from any port or place quoted per transit voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 30, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nominated by the owner as the port at which the vessel is first to touch from the ocean. The list of aliens on board each immigrant of every class (Form 6N8) shall not be destroyed or mislaid, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port at which application is made for admission.

SEC. 36. That every alien arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of every vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place bringing immigrant aliens to the United States to deliver to the immigration officer in charge of the port of entry lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and the ports at which they severally intend to land; and every such alien shall be examined by the immigrant inspectors as to whether he or she belongs to any of the classes excluded from admission into the United States under the provisions of this act, and every such alien not clearly and beyond a doubt entitled to admission shall be detained in the port of entry or removed to the place from which he or she came at the discretion of the Secretary of Labor pending the decision of the Secretary of Labor on the case; and it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of every vessel bringing any alien who is excluded from admission by the provisions of this act to pay the cost of his maintenance while detained at the port of entry and his return to the place from which he or she came. If any owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this act or any rule or order of the Secretary of Labor made thereunder, or shall refuse or neglect to detain any alien required to be detained by the officers of the United States charged with the execution of this act, or shall refuse or neglect to deliver lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, or shall refuse or neglect to pay the cost of maintaining any alien excluded from admission by the provisions of this act, or shall refuse or neglect to pay any fine imposed upon him by the Secretary of Labor, he or she shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, and such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall be liable to the United States for a sum not exceeding $1,000 for each and every alien who may land from such vessel at any port or place within the United States, which said sum may be sued for and recovered by the United States in any court of competent jurisdiction; and no vessel which shall have been required to detain any alien on board thereof shall be granted clearance pending the decision as to the landing of such alien, nor shall such vessel be granted clearance during any further period of detention not exceeding two days which may be directed by the Secretary of Labor in his discretion.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the data required by section 36 of the act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to do so be submitted and transcribed by said section or to that transcribed by section 38 of said act.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any seaman employed on board a vessel which touches at a foreign port for the purpose of taking on board passengers destined to the United States, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine, or account of vessel's stranding, or other circumstances beyond the control of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel, until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has issued a permit therefor. Such permit may be granted under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, but no such permit shall be granted to any seaman who is afflicted with any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease. Any seaman who shall land in the United States contrary to the provisions of this section shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who entered the United States unlawfully. The cost of maintenance and medical treatment of any seaman detained in a hospital, and the expenses incident to his deportation, shall be paid out of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to report, detain, or deport any alien seaman specified in this section shall be subject to a penalty of $1,000 for each such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination on such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Fees shall be collected by the masters of vessels for services rendered to aliens passengers not specified in this section, but such fees may be reported by the master of any vessel as a charge against the vessel on which the services of a janitor to any such alien may be performed, and shall be paid by the master to the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the treasurer of the society of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT TO THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, _____, of the _____ do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage. I have noted the copy of section 36 of the act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 15 and 16, act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, _____, master, first or second officer of the _____ do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said vessel from any port or place during the present voyage.

_____
Master, First or Second Officer.

Sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, 19__.

_____

Any master or agent who refuses or neglects to deliver the list required by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, or who refuses or neglects to answer truthfully the questions contained therein concerning each alien mentioned in such list, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 and by imprisonment for not more than one year.
